All Greek Troops Are Moved Across Line From Bulgaria As League Council Ordered

Retreat Completed Hours Before Limit Set by International Organization; Last Clash Between the Opposing Forces Described as of No Importance; No Casualties Were Listed.

Athens, Oct. 29.—It is officially announced the Greek troops have evacuated Bulgarian territory.

Petrich, Bulgaria, Oct. 29.—The Greek troops evacuated Bulgarian territory at 1 o'clock this morning, or seven hours before the time limit fixed by the League of Nations Council.

Bulgarian forces are to reoccupy the evacuated region tomorrow.

ROBBERS IN BUFFALO KILL BANK EMPLOYEE

Thugs Wound Two Messengers and Escape With $93,000

Crime Carried Out in Heart of Downtown Business Section of City

Buffalo, N.Y., Oct. 29.—Robbers today killed one Bank of Buffalo employee and wounded two in making away with money contained in a bank automobile. The loot amounted to $93,000.

The man killed was Charles W. Clifford, driver of the bank's automobile.

The money obtained by the gunmen was being transported from the Marine Trust Company at Seneca and Main Streets to the Bank of Buffalo at North Division and Main Streets.

It was said his condition was critical.

L. M. Yarrington, a bank messenger, was shot in the face and body.

It was said his condition was critical.

John H. Meyers was also shot and wounded by the hooded men.

The bank car contained approximately $117,000, but the bandits overlooked about $24,000 in their haste to escape.

J. C. FORBES, ARTIST, DIED IN TORONTO

Distinguished Portrait Painter Was in Seventy-ninth Year

Toronto, Oct. 29.—Following a lengthy illness, John Collin Forbes, R.C.A., died today in his seventy-ninth year.

He was one of the most distinguished of Canadian artists. His specialty lay in portraiture and in his time Mr. Forbes painted some of the most prominent public men in Canada and Great Britain.

He had also the honor of painting the late King Edward and Queen Alexandra, under commission from the Canadian Government.

Of Scottish-English origin, he was born in Toronto, the son of Duncan and Jane (Turner) Forbes. He was educated at Upper Canada College, Toronto, and in 1888 married Laura Gertrude, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Holbrook of Ottawa.

He studied at the South Kensington Museum and the Royal Academy, London, and the L'Union Internationale des Beaux Arts, Paris.

SAILOR APPEARS IN VANCOUVER COURT

H. Berentsen Charged With Having Murdered Evadoskoff, Russian, in Ship

Vancouver, Oct. 29.—That Evadoskoff, a Russian seaman, came to his death as a result of wounds inflicted by his shipmate, Harold Berentsen, on the Ishmanian liner Crofton Hall in port here yesterday, was the verdict returned today by the coroner's jury which investigated the affair.

Berentsen, whose preliminary hearing on a charge of murder will be held soon than is usually the case, in order that the Crofton Hall may leave for Atlantic ports tomorrow afternoon as scheduled, will appear in police court tomorrow morning when Capt. A. Lang and members of the crew will give evidence in the case.

City Pays Off Its Bank Loan Ahead Of Previous Records

The City Treasury to-day created a record in financing, by completing payment of the annual bank loan for current expenditures, prior to receipt of the bulk of the annual tax levy. Due to advance payments from taxpayers, the city's annual loan has this year been very small and the interest paid the bank has been lower than recorded in a generation.

ATLANTIC SHIP CALLS FOR AID

Valentine, Ireland, Oct. 29.—The steamships Cadillac and Coronado report the receipt of an SOS message from the Holland-America Line freighter Andijk, bound from New York for Rotterdam. Her position and the nature of her distress have not been ascertained.

RECEIVES NEW FRENCH CABINET

PRESIDENT DOUMERGUE

NEW FRENCH CABINET SWORN IN TO-DAY

Painleve is Premier and Minister of Finance; Briand Foreign Minister

Paris, Oct. 29.—Premier Painleve, accompanied by the members of his new Cabinet, arrived at the Elysee Palace early this afternoon for the customary presentations to the President of the republic.

The new Cabinet is constituted as follows:

Premier and Minister of Finance—Paul Painleve.

Foreign Minister—Aristide Briand.

Minister of Justice—M. Chautemps.

Minister of the Interior—M. Schrameck.

Minister of Works—M. de Monzie.

Minister of War—M. Daladier.

Minister of Marine—Emile Borel.

Minister of Commerce—Daniel Vincent.

Minister of Agriculture—Jean Durand.

Minister of Instruction—M. Delpech.

Minister of the Colonies—Leon Perrier.

Minister of Labor—M. Durafour.

Minister of Pensions—M. Antier.

The Cabinet also contains a new portfolio, that of Minister of Budget, which will be filled by Georges Bonnet, former under-secretary of state to the President of the Council.

The portfolio of Commerce in the new Ministry was declined by both Charles Chaumet and Louis Loucheur.

There was a strong rumor in political circles this afternoon that the Premier later would name M. Chaumet, governor of the Bank of France.

Heavy Votes To-day In City of Regina

Regina, Oct. 29.—Indications of a heavy vote in this city in the Federal election were apparent early today.

In the rural polls a large vote is not expected. The roads are bad and bright weather is permitting resumption of threshing operations.

Minor Errors in Election Affairs Were Corrected

St. John, N.B., Oct. 29.—Some 5,000 to 10,000 official ballots prepared for today's election in St. John-Albert bore the name of Hon. W. E. Foster, Secretary of State in the King Government.

In this constituency, incorrectly printed on those ballots he was named Robert, instead of Walter.

The ballots were part of a 54,000 order printed by a local firm or the returning officer, J. C. Berlie, who sent word to all deputies in the 154 polling booths notifying them not to use the wrongly printed ballots.

It was said this morning it was believed none of the wrongly printed ballots would get into hands of voters. All deputies were told to watch for them.

The printers worked throughout the night and printed good ones to replace those with the name of Mr. Robert.

It was stated the agents of the Liberal and Conservative candidates in the riding conferred and agreed

CITY MUST SUPPORT EASTERN OR WESTERN POLICY, LIBERALS WARN IN FINAL APPEAL TO ELECTORS

The Liberal campaign in Victoria wound up in rousing style last night with a final rally in the Royal Victoria Theatre, where a large crowd heard William McK. Ivel, Liberal candidate, Hon. J. D. MacLean, British Columbia Minister of Finance, and J. W. de B. Farris, former Attorney-General.

Only one issue faces the electors of Victoria in to-day's election, all speakers agreed—whether British Columbia shall vote for its own development through the Mackenzie King Government's Western programme, or support the purely and selfishly Eastern policy of the Conservative Party. This declaration drew round after round of enthusiastic applause from the large audience.

Bank Clearings Keep on Climbing

Victoria bank clearings continue steady weekly gains.

Clearings for the week ending today total $2,650,850, according to the totals issued by the Victoria Clearing House at noon.

For the corresponding week of last year the Victoria clearings were $1,678,639.

This represents a gain of twenty per cent for this year over last.

COL. W. M. MITCHELL FAILS TO STOP TRIAL

U.S. Army Officer's Freedom of Speech Plea Overruled in Washington

Washington, Oct. 29.—Colonel William Mitchell's plea of immunity from military trial on the charges against him was overruled today in the general courtmartial proceedings against him.

The court's law officer ruled that when Colonel Mitchell charged War and Navy Department officials with "criminal" and "almost treasonable" conduct in administering the air services, he committed an offense against military discipline and could not take refuge from punishment in the constitutional guarantee of free speech, as he had sought to do.

HEAVY TOTAL BALLOT EXPECTED AS PEOPLE PICK NEW PARLIAMENT

PRAIRIE THOUSANDS VISIT THE POLLS

Reports From Number of Points Show Great Vote Being Recorded To-day

Lethbridge, Oct. 29.—Southern Alberta ridings are polling a record vote today. Many roads in rural districts are aiding in getting out the vote. Threshing operations are at a standstill owing to snow. In some parts of the country all voters are going to the polls in sleighs.

Zero, weather of last night has given way to a rainy Chinook.

WINNIPEG VOTE

Winnipeg, Oct. 29.—Predictions of a record Federal vote in Winnipeg were being realized today.

At noon the poll clerks reported a steady stream of voters during the morning hours and at some of the booths there was a real "election rush."

At some of the polls in the centre of the city fifty per cent of the electors had voted by 10 a.m. At the noon hour there were a big rush to all the stations and all past records are expected to be exceeded.

A heavy rural vote also is being polled today.

WEATHER CHANGED

Saskatoon, Oct. 29.—Reports from a number of polling stations in various parts of the city at 1 o'clock this afternoon indicated that between twenty-five per cent and thirty-five per cent of the city electors had cast their ballots in to-day's general election by that time.

Voting was slow and desultory until about 11 o'clock, when the warmer weather brought out a steady flow of voters who had remained away from the polling stations during the early hours of the morning.

EDMONTON REGION

Edmonton, Oct. 29.—With the weather decidedly warmer than previous days, voters who had remained away from the polling stations during the early hours of the morning.

Favorable reports are also being received from country points, where weather conditions not being unfavorable to a big rural vote.

Ambrose, Tipton, Gladstone, Bury, Conservative candidates in East Edmonton, may protest the election, as the printing of his full name on the ballot left little or no white space for his supporters to record their votes.

Record Vote in Prairie Ridings

Winnipeg, Oct. 29.—The thousands of voters of Western Canada who will elect fifty-four members of Canada's Fifteenth Parliament today went to the polls with very favorable weather conditions prevailing. Reports from all sections of the West reported "clear and cold" and indications this morning pointed to a "sunny day."

A record vote in the city constituencies is assured and should also be the case in the country districts as all farming operations have been held up due to unreasonable weather making it possible for the rural voters to leave their homes without inconvenience to the important Fall work. The roads are reported to be in fairly good condition in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta.

A heavy vote will be cast in Nanaimo riding in this election, it is believed, following the strenuous campaign conducted by T. B. Booth, Liberal, and C. H. Dickie, Conservative.

The result of the Nanaimo poll will not be known until after the verdict in Victoria is clear on account of the scattered location of the various polls.

LOCAL POLLING

Polling in Saanich, Esquimalt and Oak Bay is steady throughout the morning, the percentage of ballots cast to voters tributary to polling stations attaining the high mark in Oak Bay, where Ward 8, South of Oak Bay Avenue, had registered over 300 votes before mid-day out of a registration of about 1,100.

Oak Bay, North of the Avenue, Ward 9, had polled before noon nearly 250 of the 1,100 votes registered, the voters being in many cases ladies who walked to the polls.

In Saanich the registration proceeded briskly at most of the polling stations, with Ward Two and Seven in the lead with 200 and 300 votes cast before mid-day. In Ward Five, exactly 100 votes were cast at 11:30 o'clock and in Ward Three a busy array of cars had brought eighty-three voters to the polls before mid-day, out of a total registration of 450 names on the voters' list.

In Esquimalt this morning registration was extremely slow, the attendance not being sufficient to keep the polling officers occupied for more than a few minutes at a time.

Premier King Cast Ballot in Ottawa

Ottawa, Oct. 29.—Voting in Ottawa and in Hull, which had been heavy in the morning, increased around noon when civil servants and others who were given a half-day went to the polls direct from their offices.

Premier King voted at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, Conservative leader, and Mrs. Meighen voted early this morning at a polling station near their home.

Favorable Weather and Keen Interest in Campaign Issues Spur Voting in Every Part of Dominion; Both Parties Here Anticipate Larger Vote Than In Any Recent Election; Wagers Made in Montreal Liberals Will Hold at Least Sixty of the Sixty-five Seats in Quebec Province.

REPORTS INDICATE ELECTION PROCEEDINGS FROM SEA TO SEA BEING CARRIED OUT IN ORDERLY FASHION

Voters crowded the polls throughout Canada to-day in the general election which will determine the character of this country's Government for the next four or five years. Fine weather, prevailing generally from Victoria to Halifax, spurred the voting in every constituency, and returning officers here and in most of the other centres predicted a great total ballot.

In Quebec, whose sixty-five seats are exceeded in number by only one other province, Ontario, with eighty

TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION HEADS TO PAY VISIT

President J. M. Lynch, S. R.
Brown and J. W. Hays Will Arrive in City on Nov. 18

At the monthly meeting of the Victoria Typographical Union, President F. G. Wyatt announced that he had received information that President James M. Lynch, First Vice-President
S. R. Brown, and Secretary-Treasurer J. W. Hays, members of the Executive Council of the International Typographical Union, had in contemplation a western itinerary which would include Victoria. The trio will arrive here on the Seattle boat at 1.15 on Wednesday, November 18, and leave the following day for Vancouver. A reception committee was appointed by the local union to make arrangements for the entertainment of the well known labor leaders of an organization that has always been in the forefront by its educational methods in the cause of trade unionism on this continent. The I.T.U. protective and beneficial institutions, such as the $2,500,000 Union Printers' Home at Colorado Springs, Colo., its mortuary benefits, and its old age pensions have accomplished much in popularizing the trade union movement and probably accounts for the amicable relations that exist between the employers and their employees.
A donation of $50 was voted in favor of the Mayors' Gentilek

the families of the longshoremen whose lives were so tragically terminated when the tug Hope turned turtle.
A resolution of appreciation was passed to the T.B. Association at the

BEDTIME STORY Uncle Wiggly's Prickly Chair

Copyright, 1925, McClure Newspaper

(By Howard R. Garis)

"Cock a doodle do!" crowed
Charlie the little rooster boy.
"Cock a doodle do!" cried his sister Arabella. "Oh, isn't this just wonderful to meet so many friends!" she went on joyfully.
Charlie and Arabella were floating down the brook in a clothes basket for a boat. It was Charlie and Arabella whom Flipper had seen when, on the island, Uncle Wiggly was making candy for Flipper, his twin sister Flapper, and Bully and Bawdy
No. 10, the two boys.
"This is the end of my voyage," Charlie cackled Arabella as she steered the clothes basket boat up to the shore of the little island where the little rooster boy, Bully and Bawdy were waiting.
"Goodness!" exclaimed Uncle Wiggly again. "I thought, Flipper, when you called out so suddenly," went on the rabbit gentleman, "I saw some of the bad chaps. And I was afraid they would want some candy as it is," he said.
"No, no, no," cried Arabella, "somebody from a pound of sugar has happened to find in his tail, silk hat

after he started off on the adventure trip with Flipper and Flapper.
"Aren't you glad it was only us two chickens, and none of the bad chaps?" asked Arabella as she shook a little water off her tail feathers.
She and Charlie had gone sailing in the clothes basket, and of course it leaked a little.
"Really, it would be a better boat for the Wibblewobble ducks than for us," crowed Charlie. "But a little water leaking in did not harm."
"Well, I am very glad you were and none of the bad chaps," said Uncle Wiggly. "And now if you will all take seats," he went on, as if there was a surprise party on the island. "I will pass the candy."
He had poured the melted sugar, which was flavored with birch and sassafras bark, out on clean leaves of candy, and now the little thin slabs of candy were ready to eat.
"Oh, this is very good!" crowed Bully, who had been racing his brother Bawdy on the lily pad raft before Uncle Wiggly and the little twin bunnies got on board.
"The best I ever ate!" crowed
Charlie, and Arabella said the same.
But even candy cannot last forever, and soon it was all eaten. Then, looking at the clock, Bully and Bawdy looked sleepy. Uncle Wiggly asked Charlie and Arabella to take the two little rabbit twins home—in their clothes basket boat.

"Where are you going, Uncle Wiggly?" asked Charlie.
"I am going to hop off by myself to look for another adventure," replied the rabbit gentleman, twinkling his pink nose. "But your mother will be home soon," he added to Flipper and Flapper. They were too sleepy to say more than "All right," and then Charlie and his sister sailed away with the lily pad raft. Bully went, poling their way down the brook on the lily leaf rafts after taking Uncle Wiggly to shore. Then
Mr. Longears hopped off by himself.
He had not gone far before he came to a grove of trees. The ground beneath the trees was covered with chestnuts, some of them still being in the sharp, prickly burrs.
"I'll pick up a few chestnuts on this flat stump," said Uncle Wiggly to himself, "and when I see Johnnie and Billie Bushytail the squirrels, I'll tell them to come here for the nuts."
By using a piece of board, which he pulled off an old fence, Uncle Wiggly could shovel up the prickly chestnut burrs without getting any silver in his paws. Soon the stump was covered with burrs.
"That would make a prickly seat if anyone sat down on it," thought Uncle Wiggly. "I shouldn't invite any of my friends to sit there. But if any of the bad chaps happened to come along—well, that would be different. But I haven't seen any bad chaps lately. I wonder if—"
And just then there was a rustling in the bushes and something began pushing its way out. Uncle Wiggly did not know whether or not to run.
But what he did do shall learn tomorrow night, when I hope, the clock will make a strike and help the central fact, he said, illustrated this improvement more clearly than any other. It was the fact that the Col-

M. P. BLAIR GIVES OUTLINE OF WORK OF ACTIVE GROUP

Tells What Industrial Group Has Accomplished After Year's Service

In his report at the annual meeting of the Industrial Group of the Chamber of Commerce, M. P. Blair yesterday gave a short resume of the year's work.
"Our Industrial Group Executive would, I am sure, with this time, to report that every effort has been made through correspondence, circulars, personal interviews and attention to call out-of-town prospects for industrializing sites, and by consultation and advice to local concerns who have sought the assistance, to increase and promote the industrial activities of the city."
Mr. Blair said.
"Members will readily realize that it is difficult to state definitely the direct or indirect benefit and influence of the continued efforts along these lines may have, and returns are not always immediately apparent. There have, however, as you are aware, been several substantial additions to our local factories dur-

WORK CONTINUES

Negotiations are at the present time being carried out with certain firms who have expressed an interest and desire to locate here on the Pacific Coast. There has in fact been a marked increase recently in activity on the part of industrial concerns seeking locations for branch plants or Canadian plants in the southern portion of Vancouver Island.
It would take considerably more time than we have available to-day to outline the individual steps and experiences, beside the work done in the past year, upon one specific activity and another, but I am moved to take advantage of the opportunity to mention my personal appreciation of the work of individual members of the executive, and to individual members who have been carrying on with corporations whose intentions locally have been intimated to our executive.

BROUGHT NEW MILL

The McMaisters-Horton negotiations alone, which have led up to the construction of a mill recently upon the Reserve, is a fitting instance of the interest and follow-up activities, necessary, once a proposal such as this first reaches the ears of the group.
Worthwhile of mention, too, especially at this time, is the Home Products Fair which was staged at the Armories last April, and in which many of these present took an active part. My personal belief is that we must continue these fairs, from time to time, for this is without doubt one of the activities for which this group should be responsible. Let me assure you that there is no doubt as to the benefits derived by our citizens and industrial plants as a whole, it is only necessary to take but a few of the comments of those who exhibit regularly, to be convinced of the importance of these exhibitions.

Mr. Blair has been chairman of the Industrial Group for the past two years, but declined to hold office again this time, saying that it was well to get new blood at the head of things. He acknowledged a hearty vote-of-thanks of the members yesterday at the meeting of the group.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY FOR CHILDREN AT LAKE HILL HALL

As the members of the Lake Hill Women's Institute have desired to give the children of the district a good time, they, under the cooperation of Mrs. Peddie, have decided to give a Hallowe'en party, masquerade optional, on October 31, in the Lake Hill Community Hall, to which parents and friends are invited.
Commencing with supper at 5.30 p.m. and devoting the rest of the time to various old and new Hallowe'en games. My wish is that everyone can take an active part, in an ideal way of spending a social evening, with plenty of fun and laughter.
Admission will be free, but there will be collection for the evening in aid of the solumarium at Mill Bay for the benefit of crippled children.

EXPERTS' REPORT LIKELY TO START BIG P.C.E. ROW

Recommendation Against N.
Vancouver Extension Rouses
North Shore People

Findings to Form Centre of Fight in Legislature for Continuation of Railway Building Developments in the last twenty-four hours are expected to produce a vigorous battle over the future of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway when the Provincial Legislature gets under way here next week.
Following the action of a group of voluntary experts yesterday in filing a report opposing the extension of the P.G.E. into North Vancouver, citizens of the North Shore are rallying now in opposition to the proposal. A public meeting of North Vancouver citizens will be held to-night to register complaints against the experts' findings about the P.G.E. should not be built into North Vancouver at this time.
When the Legislature opens it is expected that members from North Vancouver, Lillooet and other constituencies interested directly in the P.G.E. will unite in demanding that if any work is done on the Government owned railway the southward extension into North Vancouver shall form part of this programme. On this point it is believed, the P.G.E. controversy will centre chiefly.
The report filed by the voluntary experts in no way binds the Provincial Government. Premier Oliver stated to-day adding that he had not even read the recommendations contained in it yet. The gentlemen who compiled the report, headed by Major W. G. Swan, did their work on a purely voluntary basis, Mr. Oliver explained.

FAVOR EXTENSION

Their chief recommendation is that the P.G.E. be built north into Prince George to end "democratic" uncertainty regarding the line's future.
They also urge:
Indefinite postponement of the proposal to build a line from North Vancouver to Squamish.
No further consideration of the proposal to construct a cutoff from Clinton to Ashcroft, that the Hat Creek spur line be not built until the coal fields there are developed and the product proved, and that the extension of the line to the Peace River be left to the future.
That publicity be undertaken to increase tourist travel on the P.G.E.
HYDRO-ELECTRIC SURVEYS
That a natural resources department be created to give impetus to agricultural, mining and industrial development of the railway belt served by the line. Continuation of hydro-electric surveys with particular attention to the canyons of the Queens River.
Special emphasis is given to the need of a fixed policy in regard to the railway to make possible stable conditions among the men and industries pioneering in the district it serves.

Two Miners in Mexico Killed

Mexico City, Oct. 29.—Special dispatches from Hidalgo Del Parral, in the state of Chihuahua, say two lost their lives and nine were injured owing to a tunnel cave-in at the La Prieta Mine. It is believed several miners are entombed.

DEMANDS JUST

Western demands for equalized rates mile for mile with Eastern Canada are absolutely fair, Mr. Ivel declared. He added that equalized rates were absolutely essential if Victoria were to develop as a port and Pacific Coast business to expand.
Conservatives, he pointed out, claimed credit for building the Ogden Point piers. "Well, they may have been good starters but they were mighty poor finishers," he said, "because when the Liberal Government came into office it found the docks idle unused, unequipped." Now, he said, the Liberal Government was making the docks a big factor in the city's progress by installing a lumber assembly plant on them while private enterprise, in co-operation with the Government, were about to build a grain elevator there. This, he said, would be the start of important new business for the city by bringing large numbers of ships here to load grain.
The grain business would bring large amounts of money here for outfitting the ships and to cover other large expenditures connected with the traffic, he declared.

PRaises IVEL

Dr. MacLean declared that the large audience present was an indication of keen interest in the campaign and in the Liberal Government's policy.
"Mr. Ivel is a man of broad vision and keen understanding of our affairs," the Minister asserted. He added that the best public speakers were not always the most useful public men.
Dr. MacLean paid a graceful compliment to Hon. S. P. Toimie but assailed the Party he represents and its policies. From these, he said, Dr. Toimie could not disassociate himself.

Ottawa, Oct. 29.—Hon. Arthur Meighen, Conservative leader, ended his Federal general election campaign with a meeting in Ottawa last night. He is remaining in Ottawa to receive the returns to-night.
HIS TARIFF VIEWS
The principal part of his speech last night was devoted to advocacy of a higher tariff.
"Surely the policy of the Conservative Party for an adequate tariff system is the proper one when every country in the world has such a policy of protection," he said. "Certainly a policy of protection as advanced by the Conservative Party which would stimulate our industries, give employment to our workmen, keep our money and our people in our country, is the only one that should be in effect."
He said the results of the Government's policy were that "our debt is increasing at the rate of a million dollars a week; our taxes are higher;
our population coming out; a draining of our life blood; and the stream of immigration is almost dry."
"Are these evidences of sound policy? No. They are not, but are caused by a tariff far better, instead of a tariff by principle," he said.

MOTORISTS HAVE NARROW ESCAPE

Ran Halfway Off Curve in Fog, Overhanging Steep Drop
Ernest S. Birch, 151 Government Street, and J. S. Henderson had a miraculous escape from death when their car skidded at the brink of a precipice on the Malahat at 8 p.m.
yesterday—and turned over. Mr.
Birch was at the wheel when the car ran to the outer edge of the road.
Due to dense fog and rain, the driver thought he was on a straight section of the road, but was at a steep curve. With great presence of mind he applied the accelerator and the car shot round in a circle with almost half of its body off the road, regained the roadbed, and then capsized owing to the grade and the sudden turn.
The two men pushed their way out through the windshield and were practically unhurt. The accident took place at the south side of the Summit near the rock cut. The car was slightly damaged.

ALCOHOL SEIZED

Shelburne, N.S., Oct. 29.—Customs officers seized a quantity of alcohol valued at $20,000 at East Jordan, near here, when they became suspicious of the loading of a car of barrels labeled "Mackel No. 3." No arrests were made.

"Why didn't you pick up that bill?" asked a traveler in Germany, who saw a native drop 1,000 marks. "Ach!" replied the German. "Last week I stopped to pick up such a bill and lost a suspender button, and you can't get a suspender button under 5,000 marks."

Special to The Times

Langford, Oct. 29.—There will be a Halloween party for the children of the district held Friday, October 30, at 7.30 p.m. The teachers hope that all parents and friends will endeavor to be present and help to make the evening a joyful one. It is requested that the children will appear in masked fancy costumes, for which prizes will be given. Refreshments will be served, and a collection taken in aid of the piano fund.

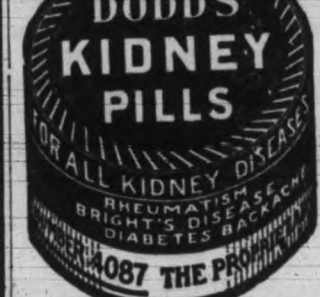

Mrs. A. Cooper of Millstream Road is visiting her daughter in Portland, Oregon.

Mrs. C. A. Morley of Millstream Road has her mother, sister and brother-in-law visiting her from Schreiber, Ontario.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. L. Brown, who have been visiting on the prairies for several months, have returned to their home in Atkins Road.

A mission of service will be held at St. Matthew's Church starting on Sunday, November 1 to 8. There will be evening service every week night, except Saturday, at 8 p.m., Sundays 7 p.m., while on Monday, Wednesday and Friday a children's service will be held at 6.45 p.m. The Rev. H. T. Archibald will be the minister and an earnest invitation is extended to all to be present at the services.

The October meeting of the Langford Women's Institute was held Tuesday afternoon in their hall on Dunford Road. Mrs. Percy Welsh, vice-president, presided. The invitation from the Victoria Steam Laundry to visit their plant was accepted by the Langford members for Thursday, November 5. The man-

Chemainus, Oct. 29.—The Physical Culture Club enjoyed a Halloween party in the picture house Monday. About sixty ladies attended. The walls were all decorated with weird designs of a Halloween nature, goblins, witches, black cats and black and yellow streamers being used effectively. A number of contests also of a Halloween nature took place, for which prizes were awarded. Supper was served in yellow and black aprons and yellow caps. A silver collection was taken up to provide new records for the gramophone which is used at the physical culture classes. Dancing was enjoyed. A vote of thanks was passed to Mrs. John Humbird and the ladies who worked hard to make the event successful.

Metchosin

Special to The Times

Metchosin, Oct. 29.—H. C. Helgeson and his son C. H. Helgeson have returned from a successful hunting trip in the Cariboo district. Mr. Helgeson expressed himself as being very much impressed with the apparent prosperity of the farming communities in the interior, particularly around the Ashcroft district, where he says the crops of tomatoes averaged fifteen tons per acre, and where there is a canning factory employing ninety-six girls besides other male help. The country looks green and there is apparently no depression in the farming industry. Mr. Helgeson speaks of what is known as the "Cherry Creek Farm," which has recently been purchased by the three brothers Heron from the Yakima Valley, State of Washington, who have transported 6,000 sheep to this district and who evidently intend to farm extensively.

Colwood

Special to The Times

Colwood, Oct. 29.—Halloween in the Colwood district is to be a children's night and a fancy dress party is to be held in the hall, arranged by the Misses Kelly and the Colwood Women's Institute, to which all the children of the district are invited to attend in costume and to bring their parents and friends. A general invitation is cordially issued to residents of the district to gather at the hall and help to give the children a good time and incidentally to have a good time themselves; there is only one condition stipulated, and that is that all appear in costume. Many attractive little items of entertainment have been planned, to be given by the children, and games and laughter will be the order of the evening.

Duncan

Special to The Times

Duncan, Oct. 29.—In spite of the inclement weather the auction sale arranged by the Cowichan Women's Institute, proceeds to go to the solarium fund, proved quite a success, about $25.50 being realized. C. Baxter kindly acted as auctioneer, and before putting up any articles for sale, made a spirited appeal on behalf of the crippled children. Bidding was brisk and some good prices realized for the articles donated. The handsome pair of bedroom slippers made by Mrs. J. A. MacDonald were raffled and brought in over $4. Mrs. J. Maitland-Douglass has worked hard for this object of raising funds for the solarium, and together with the president, Mrs. A. W. Johnson, the secretary and the directors, made the afternoon the success it was. Those kindly donating articles for sale were: Mesdames Bradley, F. G. Christmas, G. T. Corfield, W. E. Corfield, J. Dunkley, John Fox, Lionel Henslowe, Hanson, Carr-Hilton, Johnson, R. King, W. Kier, Kay, Leather, R. Macgregor, J. Maitland-Douglass, Macmillan, Neal, Morford, T. Pitt, S. Potts, Rofe, Tisdall, Thompson, Willett, Warwick, Lamont, Miss Parlett, Miss Crafter, Miss H. Thomson, J. Ellingham and others.

The children of St. Peter's Sunday School, Quamichan, donated $20 of money towards the solarium fund through the Cowichan Women's Institute at their sale on Tuesday, this would bring the total receipts to nearly $55.

Keating

Special to The Times

Keating, Oct. 29.—The directors of the Elk Lake Athletic Association held a meeting at the home of H. C. Oldfield, Giles Road, Monday evening, instead of Tuesday, as previously announced. Business for the evening was mainly in connection with the annual club ball which it was decided to hold on November 10 in the Agricultural Hall, Saanich. Several committees were appointed for the affair, the masters of ceremonies for the evening being Mr. Beale and Miss Kathleen Griffin. The decorations are in the hands of Messrs. Howard Robertson, W. Kersey, H. C. Oldfield and Beale, and every effort is being made by all the members to make the event a huge success in every way. The Lakeide Serranaders' five-piece orchestra will provide the music with all the latest hits. Another meeting will be held at a later date to make final arrangements.

Mrs. J. N. Wood, East Saanich Road, spent the week-end visiting friends at Duncan.

Great interest is being taken by the people of the district in the service which the young people of the United Church are taking charge of on Sunday morning, November 1, commencing at 11 o'clock, in the unavoidable absence of Rev. Mr. Lees. President B. C. Avery will have charge of the service, and Miss Christie MacNab and Stuart Stoddart will each give a brief address. G. Somerville and W. McClure will lead in prayer, and Miss Florence Hafer will give the scripture reading, while other members will have other duties and assist in the choir. It is hoped that all who possibly can will turn out on Sunday morning and encourage the young people further in their first undertaking.

The South Saanich Women's Institute will hold their first afternoon social meeting in the rooms at the Temperance Hall on Thursday, November 4, at 2.30 o'clock. The illustrated trip around the world, which was commenced in the Spring, will be continued, and wool comforter making for the members will be commenced, and a sermon in which will be served by a committee. Members of the institute who are unable to attend the evening meeting will welcome this opportunity to meet the other members.

The young people of the United Church will meet in the church parlour on Monday evening, November 2, in being religious night. Mr. Bailey has been asked to give an address on "Religion."

Relation of the Liver and Kidneys

Such that each suffers when other deranged—Both regulated by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

When the liver becomes sluggish or torpid in action, the kidneys have to help out with the work of filtration. When the liver fails the kidneys have all the work to do. Hence the beginning of trouble is usually biliousness, indigestion and constipation, and after a time the kidneys begin to be affected and there comes backache, urinary derangements and kidney disease. The remarkable success of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills is due to their unique combined action on the liver, kidneys and bowels. They get at the cause of trouble and remove it no matter how complicated it may be. Promptly and thoroughly they cleanse the bowels or intestines, arouse the liver action and thereby relieve the overworked kidneys. (Advt.)

Western products need the co-operation of every Western citizen. For instance, Pacific Milk, purely a British Columbia product, better quality than any other put up in Canada, but it can not be sold economically in the East, while Eastern brands reach us here. Pacific Milk does have the patronage of most British Columbia use—and we thank our women for their co-operation.

A FINE VICTORY

IT IS OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED THAT all the Greek troops have now been withdrawn from Bulgarian territory and that the complete evacuation was actually carried out seven hours before the time limit stipulated by the Council of the League of Nations.

This is indeed a triumph for the League. It is considerably less than two weeks since the incident which caused the Greek invasion took place. The Council met in Paris on Monday and ordered the immediate cessation of all belligerent acts and the evacuation of occupied territory by to-day. All this has gone according to schedule.

It is quite probable now that there will be a demilitarized zone to separate Greek from Bulgarian territory. This would round off the League's victory to excellent purpose. It would be a practical step towards permanent peace in the Balkans.

Of supreme importance for the time being, however, is the fact that two of the most peppy nations in Europe have bowed to the authority of the League. Well may it be said that the Locarno gathering ushered in a new and more hopeful era for a war-torn Europe.

THE PACT AND THE EMPIRE

IF THE GENTLEMAN WHO ASKED them really expected that Mr. Mackenzie King and Mr. Arthur Meighen would pause in the middle of the last week of a whirlwind election campaign to say what they thought of the Locarno pact, and express an opinion as to what attitude this country should adopt towards it, he was an optimist indeed. This is obviously a matter for Parliament and Parliament will be certain to deal with it at the proper time. In the meantime it should be remembered that one of the clauses embodying Great Britain's approval of the agreement specifically stipulates that the British Dominions are in no way involved.

It is well that Mr. Austen Chamberlain made this point clear. At the same time we may hope that this country's approval will be given to any sound proposal framed to promote peace. In what manner that approval shall be signified is a matter for decision by Parliament. Most people will continue to hold the view that the Empire understands itself quite well enough to make unnecessary the negotiation of treaties or agreements of this kind as if the self-governing states of the British family were tied together by legal formula.

In this connection Lord Burnham's address in London last night will be read in the Dominions with some interest. He asks, for instance, what would be the status of the Dominions in the light of the provisions of the Locarno pact, if Great Britain were to become involved in war; and then proceeds to inquire if they would supply arms and ammunition to an enemy, if their harbors would be open to enemy ships; and, finally, if an enemy would respect Dominion neutrality. Even if these questions were settled, he concluded, he would not be satisfied that everything was well with the Empire.

Lord Burnham has just returned from a visit to the Antipodes and he came through Canada on his way. In view of this recent close contact with the peoples of these parts of the Empire it would seem that his remarks must have been intended to bring the question of the Dominions' status before the public of the Old Country. He certainly could not imagine that any Dominion would be hostile to Great Britain in a war in which she might be involved as a result of her subscription to the terms of the recently completed agreements. That opinion would be ridiculous. The Dominions always can be depended upon to rally together in defence of their common interests. No formal agreement between them is necessary to assure that condition. Such self-interest would dictate it. Those who are for ever harping on the necessity for a written constitution to hold the Empire together often lose sight of this fact.

THE BATTLE OVER

IN THE CLEARER POLITICAL ATMOSPHERE of polling day the people of this city who have attended the public meetings held by the respective candidates for parliamentary honors will agree that Victoria audiences have played fairly with Liberal and Conservative alike. Only in one or two instances were the interruptions anything but the good-natured banter which all politicians are quite used to and expect. Nothing approaching disorder has marred what has been a spirited and thoroughly interesting campaign. In fact Victoria has lived up to its reputation for British fair play. All that it has to do now is to wait for the returns and then pass its judgment on the merits of the prophets who have already counted the next House and given it its various political labels. Happily for the Canadian taxpayer, for it is the voter who is settling the question to-day, all the predictions will not come true. He would have about five hundred Federal members to pay if they did.

PEOPLING THE DOMINIONS

IT CAN NEVER BE SAID THAT THE British Commonwealth is lacking in suggested solutions for its population problem. Every visitor who comes to Canada from Britain has his pet theory as to how her surplus might be distributed more evenly among the Dominions. Quite a number have all the earmarks of practicability and would no doubt work well if they could be given a fair trial. Others are more or less visionary. When they are all laid out for public inspection, however, it will be found that in nine cases out of ten very large sums of money are required to launch them. And it seems impossible to deal with the question in an effective way without the expenditure of large sums of money. Certain it is that there are hundreds of thousands of people in the Old World who would gladly come to Canada and become first-class citizens if they could find the cash to pay fares and establish themselves within a reasonable period.

Conditions now are altogether different from what they were before the war. Continental European currency is still severely handicapped and it is only recently that the pound sterling has thrown off its discount of the dollar. They it has to be borne in mind that ocean steamship charges are about three times as high as they were in 1913. So that if Great Britain should find it necessary to get rid of her surplus population at a quicker rate than the post-war normal exodus will do it for her, it follows that an inducement will have to be held out to those who are already employed, but whose ambition would bring them to the newer countries of the Empire if they had the financial means. The spending of money by any government to translate the unemployed would be so much money wasted and a certain guarantee of trouble for all concerned. Canada wants the sort of citizen who will take only just enough assistance to give him a fair start. There should be plenty of these.

THEY MISSED A TREAT

JUST WHAT DID THE HARTFORD, Conn., Luncheon Club imagine the Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson, M.P., to be when it refused to listen to him the other day? It is true that he is a Socialist; but, as The Evening Standard points out, he is also a Methodist preacher of "impeccable orthodoxy, an ornament of non-conformist chapels in the North," while his respectability is as solid and as that of any churchwarden. In fact this journal very rightly contends that Mr. Henderson is one of the most sober and least revolutionary politicians in the whole of Great Britain.

Such communists as there are in the Old Country look upon "Uncle Arthur," as he is affectionately called in the lobbies of the House of Commons, as one of their bitter foes. Like Mr. Ramsay MacDonald—in whose Ministry he was Home Secretary—and Mr. J. H. Thomas, this exponent of a very mild form of Socialism has no patience with the so-called idealism of those gentlemen who are endeavoring to remake the world after the Moscow pattern. And in refusing to listen to Mr. Henderson the Hartford Luncheon Club missed a treat, for the former Home Secretary—who, by the way, began his working life in an engineering works—knows how to select phrases and present them to an audience in the most pleasing manner.

TRADE STILL GROWS

ELECTIONS COME AND ELECTIONS go; but the trade of Canada goes merrily on all the time. And the cheerful thing about it is its persistent increase in spite of what Mr. Meighen and his gloomy supporters have been saying about it for the last three months. Exports for the month of September showed an increase over the corresponding month of last year to the tune of $84,827,169 and a natural increase in imports amounted to $26,457,239. The total exports for the twelve months ended September 30, were $1,158,290,739, as against $1,073,463,570 for the corresponding period ended September 30, 1924. Total imports for the year ended September 30 last, were $852,623,241 as against $826,166,002 for the same period ended September 30, 1924. This is progress which will stand the test of any sort of argument.

WHO'S WHO IN HISTORY TO-DAY

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 29

GEORGE ABBOT
English prelate, was born on Oct. 29, 1562. He was archbishop of Canterbury for twenty-two years, and had considerable influence in state affairs during the reign of James I. He was one of the translators of the New Testament in the King James version.

THOMAS F. BAYARD
American statesman, was born on October 29, 1828. He was United States Senator from Delaware for sixteen years, and secretary of state during the first administration of President Cleveland. Four years later he was appointed ambassador to Great Britain, being the first to hold that diplomatic rank.

AMASA WALKER
American political economist, died on October 29, 1875. He lectured on political economy at Oberlin and at Amherst, and held various political offices in Massachusetts, also serving as congressman from that state. He wrote "The Science of Wealth."

JOSEPH PULITZER
American journalist, proprietor of the New York World for twenty-eight years, died on October 29, 1911. Born in Hungary, he came to the United States in the last year of the Civil War, and served in the Union Army. He endowed a school of journalism at Columbia University, which was opened the year after his death.

WORDS OF WISE MEN

The talent of judging may exist separately from the power of execution. —Disraeli.

Self-distrust is the cause of most of our failures. In the assurance of strength there is strength, and they are the weakest, however strong, who have no faith in themselves or their powers. —Bovee.

Dreams in their development have breath. And tears, and tortures, and the touch of joy; They have a weight upon our waking thoughts. They take a weight from off our waking toils. They do divide our being. —Byron.

He who is false to present duty breaks a thread in the loom, and will find the flaw when he may have forgotten its cause. —Henry Ward Beecher.

There are but two ways of paying debt: increase of industry in raising income, increase of thrift in laying out. —Carlyle.

CITY MUST SUPPORT EASTERN OR WESTERN POLICY, LIBERALS WARN

said: must vote on the issues before them. He plunged then into an analysis of the policy of the two parties. He made it clear that the issue between them is not free trade versus protection. The Liberal Party, he said, is not free trade, as its enemies suggested. Free trade, he said, however fine it might be in theory, was impossible of realization. The Liberal policy, he declared, offered the best compromise between dangerously low tariffs and dangerously high tariffs. One of the great issues facing the country, said Dr. MacLean, was the national unity of Canada. How could this be achieved? he asked. A high tariff, he declared, could not unify the country with the Maritime Provinces suffering from trade restrictions already in force, Quebec voting solidly for a moderate tariff and the prairies strongly behind a low tariff.

OFFERS BEST COMPROMISE

"The Liberal Party offers the only compromise between the extremes of tariff under which we can all live harmoniously together," he asserted. Turning to Western Canada's tariff needs, Dr. MacLean pointed out that since 1911 not a single member had been elected in the Prairie provinces under the Conservative banner. Economically high tariffs would mean disaster to the prairies. The Western farmer, he pointed out, must sell his product in the open, uncontrollable markets of the world. He must keep his cost of production as low as possible. For this reason he must have as low tariffs as possible. This part of the Canadian farmer had given rise to the great Progressive Party movement, and the Progressives, he emphasized, were not the malcontents which the Conservative Party called them. "The tariff is simply a tax—have you ever heard of taxes making a people prosperous?" he demanded, quoting the high prices of foodstuffs here as compared with the price in the United States as an example of the working of the tariff. Such a tax, he said, cost $180 more here than in Seattle simply because of the tariff.

RAISES COST OF LIVING

"The thing you have got to remember is that the tariff increases the cost of living," said Dr. MacLean, amid vigorous applause. When someone asked the Doctor where he stood in the Oriental question, he retorted that he had not spent $5 with Orientals all his life.

"If everyone dealt with Orientals as I do probably there would be fewer of them here," he remarked. Transportation costs are of vital concern to British Columbia, Dr. MacLean went on. With high, discriminatory freight rates prevailing in Western Canada, British Columbia manufacturers were prevented from controlling many markets rightly belonging to them. British Columbia, in fact, was more interested in rates than any other part of Canada.

"That is one of the chief reasons I am on this platform," he said. "I want to see British Columbia get its fair rights, and I am asking for its rate equality. We seek no favors." Dr. MacLean dealt in detail with the freight rate question, stressing the fact that the Liberal Party desired to do nothing to injure the privately-owned Canadian Pacific Railway. He asserted that Conservatives in British Columbia had not fought for Western rate justice in the past and were not working for it in the election campaign now.

Discussing the election prospects, Dr. MacLean said the entire Dominion in rapid survey, showing that the Conservative Party faced an impossible task in attempting to increase its present membership of 49 to 123, a bare majority over all.

"Where is the Conservative Party going to get a majority?" he demanded. "Nowhere but in its imagination." Dr. MacLean urged Victorians to get behind Mr. Ivel and the policy of Western development which he represented.

NOT PERSONAL ISSUE

Mr. Farris warned the electors that the issues facing the country were more important than personalities. Both candidates running in Victoria, he said, were worthy men. The must be judged, however, on the merits of their policies, and the policies of their parties.

The Liberal Party offered to the electors, first of all, victory, said Mr. Farris. No one doubted, he said, that the Government would be returned. No money was available, he said, for bets that the Government would be defeated.

Mr. Farris closely analyzed Dr. Tolmie's recent prediction that the Conservative Party would have a majority of eleven over all. Starting with British Columbia, he ridiculed Dr. Tolmie's forecast that the Progressives would return ten Conservatives.

With British Columbia roused over the freight rate issue the Opposition could not hope to increase its present strength here, he said. Even allowing that Dr. Tolmie was only one seat out in his B.C. calculations, one seat out in his extravagant prairie claims, one seat out in his claim of seventy members in Ontario, one out in the forecast of fifteen in Quebec and one out in his prophecy of twenty in the Maritimes—even then, said Mr. Farris, Dr. Tolmie's majority of eleven would be gone. As a matter of fact, he said, the Conservative Party would not come anywhere near Dr. Tolmie's figures.

NEED CLEAR MAJORITY

Even should the Government fail to secure a majority over all, Mr. Farris remarked, it could carry on the work of the Government while the Conservative Party, to form a Government, must have a clear majority. The Progressives, he remarked, were a western force, sympathetic to the Liberal Party's western programme.

In Vancouver, Mr. Farris said, the Liberal Party would win a tremendous victory because the city believed that the Liberal Party offered it most at this time. He suggested that Victorians, too, should send a Liberal to Parliament to see that this city got its fair share in the development of the West under western Liberal policies.

The Conservative Party, Mr. Farris pointed out, claimed credit for starting the freight rate fight. "Well, where did they get it?" he demanded. "Nothing," he said, had secured nothing through their early attempts to bring about rate reductions. It was only when the Liberal Party had taken hold of the situation that results had followed, he said.

Mr. Farris warned the electors that the rate fight was still on. Eastern interests, he pointed out, had appealed to the Railway Commission against its recent rate reductions. A decision on this appeal was still pending, he explained. Should the West lose out in this appeal, it must take the case to the Cabinet. From what Government, he asked, could the West expect most? That, he said, was the supreme issue before the electors and it submerged all questions of personalities.

Premier King, said Mr. Farris, had already declared—and before a maritime audience—that the Railway Board's action on freight rates had been just and fair. On the other hand, Mr. Meighen had left the impression in his famous Halifax speech that he was opposed to the freight rate reductions. Mr. Meighen, he pointed out, had never come out and declared that these equalization orders were just.

"Why didn't he come out and say that he agreed with Mr. King that these reductions were just and fair?" he asked. "He never did and he never will."

In fighting for rate justice, Mr. Farris pointed out, British Columbia had found itself faced with opposition from Mr. Meighen's Eastern friends—the Conservative Government of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

"Who should we leave our case to—a Government headed by a man who says he is our friend or a Government made up of those leaders are frankly against us?" he demanded. Mr. Farris warmly defended the Liberal tariff policy. The Liberal policy, he said, was "reasonable protection with reasonable consideration for the consumer." The Conservative Party's tariff policy, on the other hand, he said, proposed reasonable protection for the manufacturer and no consideration for the great mass of consumers.

The speaker ridiculed the Conservative assertion that a high tariff would make Canada as prosperous as the high tariff in the United States. As a matter of fact, the United States was in itself the greatest free trade area in the world, because its trade area was the world, because it was self-sustaining. The United States prospered despite high tariffs, not because of them, he said. Tracing the economic history of Canada, Mr. Farris asserted that the Macdonald national protective policy had been ruinous to Canada, creating an exodus to the United States greater than any that had occurred since. It had been when the Laurier Government had reduced the tariff, he said, that Canada had begun to prosper. He quoted striking figures to show how Canada's trade showed enormous and immediate growth after the inauguration of the Laurier tariff policy.

Mr. Farris also produced statistics to show that conditions in Canada had become bad again under Conservative policies. He recalled the business situation prevailing here in 1921, the last year of the Meighen regime. Unemployment had been so serious then, he said, that the Federal Government had sought desperately for a solution of the problem. He produced a letter which he had received as B.C. Minister of Labor from the Vancouver Economic Conference, proposing a scheme for handling unemployment. This letter stated that 8,000 men would be unemployed during the winter of 1921-1922, and that $50,000 would be needed to keep the jobless from complete destitution.

Mr. Farris defended the British

NEWS IN BRIEF

The Thoburn garage on Esquimalt Road was yesterday completely destroyed by fire and three automobiles were demolished along with the building, shortly after 4 o'clock. The fire originated in the paint shop.

In the City Police Court this morning before Acting Magistrate James Forman, a delinquent motorist paid a fine of $5 for parking his car outside the Capitol Theatre on October 24.

The British Columbia Telephone Company to-day subscribed $100 towards the city's public advertising campaign, congratulating Mayor Pendray on the prospects for success of a most unusual venture in advertising and civic citizenship.

To dance the Charleston at the Press Club fancy dress ball Friday night at the Empress Hotel it is necessary to get tickets to-day or tomorrow at the offices of both newspapers. Reserved tickets cannot be held after to-morrow.

The annual meeting of the Victoria and district Boy Scouts Association will be held in the Empress Hotel on Wednesday, November 4. His Honor, Lieutenant-Governor, Walter C. Nichol, will attend the meeting while other prominent business men will deliver addresses.

To enable householders and license-holders to register for the civic franchise, City Clerk Hiley's office at the City Hall will be open this evening from 7 to 9 o'clock. Clerk Bradley's office will be open for the last evening to-morrow, November 3, concluding on Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Daylight saving will become an election issue at the municipal elections in December, Alderman Woodward intimated this morning, when discussing the need for greater uniformity in securing the ballot among householders and license-holders. Registrations have been unusually low in numbers this year, Alderman Woodward announced after perusing the files.

Mayor Carl Pendray this morning received from Vice-Admiral Saburo Hyakutake of the Japanese navy, a handsome souvenir log of the Pacific tour of the Japanese Naval Training Squadron, which visited Victoria last summer. Bound in silk, the volume has several hundred pages of views of Japan and other lands, with portraits of Administrator Chief Justice Macdonald, Premier Oliver, and Mayor Carl Pendray.

An illustrated lecture on "Tours by Submarine Caravan in the Cariboo and in Brandon Diocese," will be given by Miss Eva Hasell to-morrow night at 8 o'clock in Church Street Methodist Memorial Hall. Miss Hasell is an experienced church worker from the Old Country who has visited Canada for a number of summers to engage in visiting isolated settlements across the prairies by motor car. Admission to the meeting will be free. A collection will be taken towards caravan work and expenses.

Good Prizes For Stamp Exhibition

Many Valuable and Attractive Awards Donated by Those Interested

The list of prizes donated for the exhibition of the B.C. Philatelic Society to be held in Vancouver, and open to Victorians, is announced as follows:
Col. Keen, Vancouver, silver medal; G. P. Bainbridge, Vancouver, silver medal; R. M. Angus, Victoria, silver medal; Saskatchewan Stamp Company, Saskatoon, silver and bronze medals; P. M. Wolfleffer, New York, silver medal.

These medals are all of uniform design, prepared locally by Messrs. Birks & Son. The idea is taken from the old 3rd Blue of British Columbia, the most striking stamp used in the United provinces of B.C. and Vancouver Island. The dominant feature is a crown over "V" in a circle, bearing the name of the society, the whole being surrounded by a beaver. It is really a strikingly pretty little medal.

A. E. Reive, Vancouver, a number of prizes for juniors; F. H. Vallancey, London, Eng., photographic copies of the stamps of Great Britain and six sub to "Stamp Collecting".
Stamp Herald Pub. Co., Kitchener, Ont., one year subscription; C. J. Phillips, New York, forty lots of stamps; C. J. Phillips, Vancouver, 100 stamps; C. J. Phillips, Vancouver, 100 stamps; C. J. Phillips, Vancouver, 100 stamps.

There passed away on Wednesday morning at Kimberly, B.C., Alfred J. Bosence, aged forty-nine years. He had been a resident of British Columbia for the last thirty years and for many years was one of the foremen of the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company of Kimberly. He is mourned by his widow residing at 1517 Hillside Avenue, Victoria, and four brothers, William of Butte, Montana, Fred and Richard of Victoria, and Thomas of New York; also four sisters, Mrs. Harris of Victoria, Mrs. Wear and Mrs. Dennis of California, and Mrs. Andrews of New York. The remains will be brought to Victoria for interment, and will rest at McColl Bros. funeral home, corner Johnson and Vancouver Streets. Announcement of the funeral will be made later.

Mrs. Clara Lora Orr passed away yesterday morning at St. Joseph's Hospital aged seventy-two years. She was born in Altfeldburg, Germany, and had been a resident of Victoria for the past twenty-three years. The late Mrs. Orr is survived by three sons, David Orr of Revelstoke, Frank Orr of U.S.A., and Mr. Ernest Orr of this city. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3.30 o'clock, from the Sands Funeral Chapel, Rev. Dr. Clem Davies will officiate and the remains will be laid to rest in the family plot at Ross Bay Cemetery.

The death occurred this morning at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. E. A. Colbert, Fort Street, of Mrs. Mary Jane Gibbons, widow of the late John Gibbons. She was born in Belfast, Ireland, and leaves to mourn her loss one daughter, Mrs. Colbert, one sister, Mrs. McCarrison, and one brother, W. Sloan, also two grandchildren, all of this city. The late Mrs. Gibbons had been a resident of Victoria for the past thirty years and a number of old-time friends will share in the grief at her passing. The remains are resting at the B.C. Funeral Chapel and funeral announcements will be made later.

Up-Island people in town include E. MacKenzie of Duncan and A. E. Hetherford of Courtenay.

TORIES END FIGHT CLAIMING VICTORY ALL OVER PROVINCE

Tolmie Cannot See Liberal Success in Any Constituency in British Columbia

That every Federal electoral seat in British Columbia is likely to vote Conservative in to-day's poll, was the generous estimate of the election result provided for Conservatives of Victoria by Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Conservative organizer, last night. At the final Conservative rally in the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium Dr. Tolmie covered the entire Province in rapid survey and try as he might could find no place where the Liberal Party could be sure of electing one of its candidates.

In some places he described the situation as "sure" for the Conservative Party and in others, not quite so "sure," he said, the Opposition chances were "excellent" or "good." In no riding were the Conservative chances less than "good." After predicting his own election and the return of C. H. Dickie, Conservative, in Nanaimo, he added the surprising announcement that the Conservative "prospects of victory in Comox-Alberni riding are excellent."

Dr. Tolmie concluded his campaign with a vigorous attack on the Liberal Government and its leader, Major Guy Lyon. Dr. Tolmie's campaign manager, rallied around the candidate with the prediction that he would increase his old majorities in to-day's poll.

Lindley Crease, K.C., who presided, urged the electors to support the Conservative policy because it would bring about a change and keep Canadians from going to the United States.

H. D. Twiss, M.P.P., warned the electors of the sinister penetration of the United States into Canada and its growing control of Canadian industries. This movement was going on under Liberal rule and would be ended under a strong Conservative policy, he said.

R. H. Pooley, Conservative House leader in British Columbia, would not be at the meeting because of a meeting in the Sailors' Club, Esquimalt, last night. He predicted Mr. Dickie's election by a large majority.

NEW PERIODICAL TO BE PUBLISHED SOON

"Canadian Homes and Gardens" is Sponsored by Leading Publishing Firm

The advent of a periodical entitled, "Canadian Homes and Gardens" is noteworthy as marking another step in the endeavor of Canadian publishers to emphasize wholly Canadian literature, customs and features, and to combat the influx of alien publications. The MacLean Publishing Company is sponsoring this new periodical magazine, which is to be for Canada what publications of this sort across the border are for the United States. Typographically, the magazine is distinctly pleasing in its superficial appearance, is at least equal to its United States rivals. Above all, it is a pleasure to note how intrinsically Canadian are its contents.

In the October issue, there are articles with such suggestive titles as "Chairs That Lived Through History" by Anne Elizabeth Wilson, dealing with the influence of Old France and the first handicrafts of Canada on the colonial chair. "The Nelles Home at Niagara-on-the-Lake" is a gorgeous photographic portfolio of exterior and interior views of one of the most beautiful homes on the Niagara Peninsula. "Refecting the Glories of America Vespucci" by Mona E. Clark, is a historical study of the life of Christopher Columbus, and a valuable contribution to the history of the world.

Through nearly a score of fascinating gardening articles by such experts as Mrs. Dunington-Grubb and W. E. Groves, and a very permanent feature, "The Garden Lover's Guide," conducted by Henry J. Moore, the well-known Canadian horticulturist, formerly assistant horticulturist at Kew Gardens, England.

Four were freed of charges of assault on a ship in the Pacific. The ship was the "H.M.S. Porpoise" and the four were the crew members who were charged with the assault on a Chinese man on board the ship. The charges were dropped after a hearing in the Admiralty court.

Regina, Oct. 29.—Very little threatening is reported around Regina. Around Moose Jaw, there is some threatening going on but not much, many farmers reporting wheat going bad from thawing and freezing.

PRISONER RETAKEN

J. A. Martin, who escaped from his guards while under a sentence of four years imprisonment for theft, and on his way to jail, was recaptured by officers of the Provincial Police to-day, according to word reaching the headquarters of that force this morning.

BIG RUSH FOR TICKETS FOR PRESS BALL

With the election excitement fading into history, interest to-day has been growing in the Press Club Ball which will be held at the Empress Hotel to-morrow evening. All day long the telephones at the Times office have been kept busy answering inquiries about the ball—as to where tickets may be obtained—whether fancy dress was optional and so on. Would-be patrons are being disappointed, should secure their tickets without delay for to-morrow's ball is going to be such a huge success that those who miss it will live to rue the service of an organization of attending the merriest affair of the year.

POPPY DAY TO BE HELD NEXT WEEK

Arrangements for Armistice Event on November 7 Completed

Final arrangements for Poppy Day, which will be held Saturday, November 7, have been completed. At a recent meeting of the ladies representing the ex-service organizations, in the Canadian Legion clubrooms, Mrs. H. P. Thorpe and Mrs. H. Crocker were appointed joint conveners.

The Armistice Period Committee has been granted the use of a store at 1227 Government Street, through the kindness of the B.C. Land and Investment Company Limited. The store will be open every afternoon beginning next Monday, from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Large and small poppies are on hand and orders are being taken from city merchants for large poppies to place in their windows. A complete canvass of the storekeepers is being made and the committee hopes that every store will purchase at least a few poppies for decoration purposes.

Orders for poppies have already been received from Lieutenant-Governor Walter C. Nichol, the Provincial Government, C.P.R., and prominent places of business in the city. By next Tuesday poppies will have been delivered to more than thirty schools in Victoria and district.

BURNHAM DISCUSSES POSSIBILITIES OF WAR

Asks Where Dominions Would Stand if Britain Entered Locarno Fight

London, Oct. 29.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Viscount Burnham, owner of The London Telegraph and president of the Imperial Press Conference, addressing a gathering here last night, touched on the question of the effect of the Locarno security pact on the Dominions.

Greek-Bulgarian Neutral Zone is New Plan Suggested

Paris, Oct. 29.—A neutral demilitarized zone between Greece and Bulgaria, with commissions of conciliation for the regulation of all local conflicts in the Balkans, may be one of the fruits of the settlement of the Balkan crisis by the Council of the League of Nations.

Giving a spur to the Balkan States' ambition to elaborate the security pact, the Council probably will undertake to establish principles to guard the Balkan statesmen in handling future difficulties, and will exert all its influence to have the Locarno security agreement with Germany supplemented not only by a Balkan arrangement, but also by security pacts between other sections of Europe.

Thus will it hasten convocation of a disarmament conference which the Locarno protocol calls for as one of the hoped-for results of the achievement of security.

MRS. BUTCHART PRESENTS ROTARY PRIZE AWARDS

Seed Growing Efforts of Boys and Girls Rewarded

The Rotary Club children's seed growing and citizenship contest for the present year came to a conclusion at to-day's weekly luncheon at the Empress Hotel, when Mrs. R. P. Butchart presented an array of cups and prizes to twenty-six boys and girls.

Mrs. Butchart was greeted with cheers when she arose to distribute the prizes, and her invitation to the young seed growers to make use of the experience gained at the famous Butchart Gardens was also heartily applauded.

The prize winners were:
Senior class—1. Ronald M. Grant, name engraved on Rotary Cup, gold medal given by Mayor Pendray and $20 in gold; 2. Robert H. Currie, silver medal, presented by President R. W. Mayhew, and $10 in gold; 3. Gladys Miles, silver medal given by President Howard Miller of the Kiwanis Club, and $5 in gold.
Junior class—1. R. G. Hills, Butchart Cup, silver medal given by G. McGregor and $10 in gold; 2. W. C. Gibson and $5 in gold.

Other prize winners were:
Senior class—Lance R. Clark, Marjorie and Lloyd Glassford, William Hobbs, Betty and Molly Jewell.
Junior class—Daphne and Jerry Archer, Richard Currie, George L. Dunlop and Marjorie Woolley.
Supplementary—Wilfrid Amos, Ralph and Sidney Barnes, Alice and Gavin Halkett, Langlois, Hope Large, Charles McLeod, Esmond Nixon and Percy Smith.

Federation of Veterans Arrange First Social Function For Friday

The Federation of Veterans in Canada will make their first social venture on Friday evening, October 30, when they will hold a cabaret dance and bridge party at the Alexandra ballroom. The Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. W. C. Nichol are extending their patronage to the affair.

Heaton's orchestra has been engaged and the cabaret numbers will include musical items by Masters Desmond and Brian Burdon-Murphy, Miss Marjorie Watson, George Tate and Ronald Heald, of the Columbia School of Music.

The Federation is working in the interests of returned men. As Friday's event is for the purpose of raising funds to continue this work, they hope for a generous support from the general public.

WOMEN MEET WITH VIOLENT DEATHS

Plattsville, Ont., Oct. 29.—Jessie Hammacher, aged twenty, who suffered terrible burns over a week ago when her clothing became ignited from a stove in which she was placing waste paper, is dead.

Lachine, Que., Oct. 29.—Crazed with delirium brought on by pneumonia, Mrs. William Capovitch, a patient at the hospital here, got out of bed during the absence of the nurse and threw herself from the window to the pavement, three stories below.

"SPEED WILD" IS NEW PICTURE AT COLUMBIA TO-DAY

"Speed Wild" the latest production featuring that popular actor and athlete, Lefty Flynn, is a departure from the previous Westerns in which the former Yale star has appeared. Harry Carson, who produced and directed "Speed Wild," has reason to be proud of his offering, for it supplies Lefty with his best role. Rapid-fire comedy-melodrama, filled with thrills, and a loveable, boyish, devil-may-care character for the star, ensure corking entertainment to the patrons of the Columbia Theatre, when the picture begins a three days' run. Raymond Turner again appears in a colored character, and comes through with his usual quota of laughs. H. H. Van Loan wrote the story. Richard Hendrick, the popular little screen favorite, is to be seen in the John M. Stahl production, "The Wanters," the first National attraction showing at the Playhouse this week. He enacts the role of Sonny, a precocious youngster who rattles the family skeletons at inopportune moments in this drama of society, in which the marriage of the pretty heroine, a serving maid, to the young man of the household is the pivot around which the plot revolves. The leading feminine role is taken by charming Marie Prevost, while opposite her is Robert Ellis in the role of a scion of wealth. CHARLIE CHAPLIN LONE PROSPECTOR IN "ICY WASTES"

To eat one's own shoe—boiled—is something. But, to eat that same shoe artistically—is an achievement. This is done by Charlie Chaplin in his famous comedy, "The Gold Rush," at the Dominion Theatre for an extended engagement. In what is claimed to be a delightful delineation of great artistry, the public sees Charlie Chaplin as the Lone Prospector and Mack Swain as Big Jim McKay in a lonely cabin; stormbound in the barren wastes of Alaska. They have been starving for days. In desperation, Charlie has removed one of his big, worn-out, dilapidated shoes, boiling it with tender care, he serves it a la Rita Chef. The two eat this shoe. And in doing so, they make the spectator really believe they are enjoying their repast. This is an achievement in art. For

A MARTYR TO CONSTIPATION

"Fruit-a-lives" brought early relief

"I first heard of 'Fruit-a-lives' through a friend of mine living in St. Johnsbury, and as I was troubled with very high blood pressure and constipation, I decided to try the fruit treatment. The result is that I am feeling very much better, and I am glad to recommend 'Fruit-a-lives' to anyone."—Mrs. C. W. Thompson, Lyndonville, Vermont. All your physical and mental energy is drawn from your blood stream. If the bowels and kidneys do not function properly, poison enters the blood stream and the heart, brain and nerves are all affected. "Fruit-a-lives" clear the system of all waste matter, purify the blood and tone up the whole system. They are made from the intensified juices of luscious healthful fruits combined with tonics. Sold everywhere 25c. and 50c. (Adv.)

the fact, that the very thought of eating a shoe is offensive to good taste, but the shading of this subject—which could so easily be made repulsive—is so deftly portrayed, that while convulsed with laughter, the spectator will always remember the scene as one of the delicious high lights of "The Gold Rush."

NOT COLISEUM STAR WHO WAS INJURED IN FORT STREET SMASH

The Will Marshall injured in the automobile accident, this week was not the member of the Coliseum Company, the management again announce as a result of many inquiries received. The impression that it was the Coliseum player was strengthened by Marshall's absence from the boards this week, but he is only taking a two weeks' rest after a strenuous game. George Olsen and George Brydine with the four ladies of the company, carry the load of a bright musical fantasy this week which has been thoroughly enjoyed. George Brydine's excellent robust voice is heard to great advantage. George Olsen with Ruth Hamilton stars in several great comedy scenes.

Artistic screen results may be obtained without titles, as "The Last Laugh," the celebrated U.F.A. production which Universal is releasing and which is now playing at the Coliseum Theatre, demonstrates. There are actually only two titles in this dramatic novelty from the pen of Carl Mayer, remembered for his "Cabinet of Dr. Caligari." E. W. Murnau directed. Emil Jannings, who created such a sensation by his work in "Phaeton," "The Loves of Pharaoh" and "Peter the Great," has the leading role.

CONAN DOYLE'S GREAT NOVEL IS TO BE SCREENED HERE

The bringing to life of prehistoric dinosaurs marks another milestone in motion picture history. Years ago Watterson R. Rothacker bought the screen rights to Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's novel, "The Lost World," and over seven years ago work on the photoplay version was started. "The Lost World," made jointly by Rothacker and by First National, reached the screen under the supervision of Earl Hudson, who

SIR ARTHUR CONAN DOYLE'S STUPENDOUS STORY

"The Lost World"
Most Unique Drama
Ever Screened

With WALLACE BEERY BESSIE LOVE LEWIS STONE LLOYD HUGHES

The World's Wonder Picture

Romance and adventure in a newly discovered world of gigantic dinosaurs.

adapted it from the original Conan
Doyle story.

The human section of the cast appearing in the picture comprises Bessie Love, Lewis Stone, Lloyd Hughes, Wallace Beery, Arthur Hoyt, Margaret McWade, Finch Smiles and Bull Montana. The thrilling photodrama will be shown at the Capitol Theatre, beginning Monday.

THE ORIGINALS ARE COMING IN LATEST REVUE "THUMBS UP"

Reports from the East where the Originals are now playing are to the effect that this clever organization of Canadian favorites has without a doubt the fastest and most furiously funny entertainment that has ever toured Canada. Many of the very latest English as well as American song hits are included in the lengthy programme. There are skits a plenty and the star comedian, Bob Anderson, has ample opportunity of displaying his natural gifts of wit and humor and he makes the most of his opportunities. Gene Pearson is singing better than ever and in "Love's Old Sweet Song" and in "Love Has Come Into My Heart" which is a new number Gene's marvellously clear and bell-like soprano is given full scope to show all its power and beauty.

Old Doc Jimmie Goode is back again with an entirely new assortment of black face jokes and patter and he "sure can put 'em over." Then there is the old favorite Bertram Langley, with Alan Murray, the dance wizard, Tom Dunn, the boy with the golden baritone, Jerry Bradford, Lionel Broadway, Percy Campbell, Leonard Young and Stuart Callaghan.

GARDEN SPECIALLY BUILT FOR FILM DRAMA "GRAUSTARK"

A case of moving the mountain to Mahomet was necessitated by failure of studio scouts to find a suitable formal garden for one of the scenes in Norma Talmadge's latest drama, "Graustark," from George Barr McCutcheon's novel of love and intrigue in a make believe kingdom. Movie plenipotentiaries searched all over Southern California, but returned with the news that they were unable to find the particular kind of beauty spot required for the palace garden.

One of the difficulties encountered was the fact that even the beautiful gardens that might have answered the purpose did not have the proper alignment demanded to insure the best photographic results.

So Director Dimitri Buchowetzki ordered a magnificent garden constructed on one of the huge studio stages. The Russian artist had his own ideas on Graustarkian palace gardens. Formerly a frequent visitor to that part of Europe where the mythical monarchy was created by McCutcheon, Buchowetzki insisted upon a new type of landscaping and certain flowers and shrubs. The made-to-order garden finally was ready and the scenes successfully "shot."

Eugene O'Brien has the role of the romantic American adventurer who loves for the princess almost upsets his kingdom. Miss Talmadge and O'Brien are at their best in the tender love scenes. Others in the supporting cast are Marc McDermott, Roy D'Arcy, Albert Gran, Lillian Lawrence, Richard Veritch, Frank Currier, Winter Hall and Wanda Hawley. The picture, produced by Joseph M. Schneck, is First National's current offering at the Capitol Theatre.

After the election dance with the Victoria Press Club—at the Hallowsen Ball, Empress Hotel, Friday, October 30. Tickets $2.00, at offices of Times and Colonist.

Quick Relief for Rheumatics

Old-time Remedy Gets to Work First Day—Drives Out the Dangerous Poison.

Twisted, swollen, unsightly joints are quickly freed from pain and brought back to normal with Rheuma-Lane people walk without aid; sleep comes to those who have been unable to lie in bed; hands that were helpless because of terrible rheumatism are now able to do their share for the support of the family. It is a wonder-worker; it never fails, never gives up until every vestige of poison is expelled from the body. Rheuma acts quickly and brings long prayed for comfort to distressed sufferers. Vancouver Drug Co., and all druggists sell it with guarantee of money back if it isn't satisfactory. —(Adv.)

MIGRATION WITHIN EMPIRE SOLUTION TO MANY PROBLEMS

Says Sir Henry Cowan, M.P.: Lady Cowan to Speak Here

Vancouver, Oct. 29.—That the solution of the Empire's greatest problems at the present time lies in a vigorous policy of inter-empire migration is the opinion of Sir Henry Cowan, M.P., for North Islington, who, with Lady Cowan and their daughter, is a visitor here.

The travelers, who arrived here yesterday, will leave to-night for Victoria, where Lady Cowan will on Monday address the Women's Canadian Club.

Sir Henry attended the recent conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union of the World, which met early this month in Washington and Ottawa.

"After traveling across Canada for the first time in twenty-five years I have been greatly impressed with the obvious impossibility of developing the country and its enormous resources within any reasonable period unless a much more vigorous immigration policy is undertaken," he said.

"The great weakness of the British Empire to-day lies in the concentration of the overwhelming proportion of its white population within the small and congested area of the British Isles while the vast reaches of the great Dominions remain so sparsely populated. In view of the fact that Great Britain is expanding such enormous sums on the maintenance of the out-of-works it seems to me that it would be good business to borrow even £100,000,000 sterling in fact to transfer to Canada and Australia large numbers of British people who are willing and able to work and for whom work can not be found in their own country. In fact it would pay us to deliver free to any one of the Dominions that working population which the Dominions so urgently require."

LIEUT.-GOVERNOR TO ATTEND BENEFIT

Interest Growing in Sunday's Concert For Longshoremen's Dependents

The Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Walter C. Nichol will be among the patrons attending the benefit concert at the Coliseum Theatre to be held on Sunday evening at 8.30 o'clock. The concert is being arranged by the Navy League of Canada in aid of the widows and dependents of the longshoremen who perished in the tug Hope disaster. Benefit of their expense. Heretofore their fatherless children is very great and the promoters hope for generous support on behalf of the public.

The Mayor and City Council and the Reeve and Council of Saanich have signified their intention of being present, and the Transport Workers' Association, and the Longshoremen's Association, to which organization the victims belonged, will attend in a body.

"Bob" Webb is in charge of the programme and he has secured the assistance of such well-known artists as Mrs. Jessie Langford, Miss Ada Wise, Messrs H. J. Davis, T. Kelway, E. Butterworth and Mrs. C. C. Wain. The Coliseum orchestra, specially augmented for the occasion, and the Royal Naval Brigade Band will also contribute selections.

Fletcher Bros. are lending a Steinway piano free of charge for the concert. This readiness to co-operate is the part of all concerned has made the task of arranging the concert and easy one for the promoters and has prevented the incurring of any cost, thus ensuring that every cent of the proceeds of the affair will go intact to the beneficiaries.

Native Daughters Busy.—An enthusiastic meeting of the Native Daughters of British Columbia was held last evening in the Victoria Club. Plans were made for the winter's work and for the reception of the Grand Chief Factor, who will make her annual visit to the post in November, and will be accompanied by the Grand Secretary and members of the Nanaimo Post. The Post will hold a rummage sale in November, the details of which will be announced later, and also a court visit drive. The latter is to be held in the Victoria club rooms on Saturday evening, November 21, and is under the capable co-operation of Mrs. C. B. McDonnell and Miss K. Wilson.

Supper was served by the Women's Institutes during the course of the evening. The committee in charge, to whom credit is due for the outstanding success of the function, was as follows: Chief Thomas Hastings, Constables Rankin, Causey and Brown, and Secretary C. Bell.

Miss Kathleen Hall entertained at a bridge tea at her home, "Inishowen," The Uplands, yesterday afternoon. There were five tables in

Painter's Wife Sues London Farmers For $20,000 Damages

London, Ont., Oct. 29.—Claiming $20,000 damages for alleged libel and slander, the case of Pearl Gilbert, married woman, against two retired farmers living at Parkhill, has been set down for trial at the high court to be presided over by Justice Lennox here next week. The defendants are George Coates and James Metcalfe, each sued for $10,000.

The actions against both are separate, although the claims for damages are identical against both men. Mrs. Gilbert is the wife of John Gilbert, a C.N.R. painter, and has three children. She lives next door to the defendant Coates.

Mrs. Gilbert alleges that both men spoke and published false and malicious statements pertaining to her character and as a result she has been ridiculed and subject to the contempt of the entire community.

Members and friends of the First Congregational choir were entertained at the home of Mrs. and Miss K. E. Ford, 2624 Cedar Hill Road, Saturday evening, the gathering being in the nature of a surprise party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic King upon the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary, when they were presented with a very handsome silver cake basket suitably engraved. Miss Nellie Howell made the presentation on behalf of the choir. Mr. King, in replying to Miss Howell's expressions of the choir's appreciation, gave a resume of the work done under his leadership, emphasizing the splendid spirit which had always existed, and characterized their efforts throughout the nine years of their association in this department of the church work. The evening was spent in music and games, refreshment being served later which brought the gathering to a close at the midnight hour.

COLFAX REBEKAHS ENTERTAIN CANTON

Last evening Canton Victoria No. 2, Patriarchs Militant, were the guests of Colfax Rebekah Lodge No. 1, L.O.O.F., The Canton, in charge of Commandant G. Killam, presented a smart appearance as they entered the lodge room. After welcoming the brothers, Miss D. Todd, Noble Grand, presented them with a flag, the gift of Colfax Lodge. In receiving the flag, Commandant Killam thanked the lodge on behalf of the Canton, and then escorted the Noble Grand through their ranks.

Following the presentation, a banquet was tendered. The guests of honor, when able speeches were made by Commandant Killam, Col. Henderson and Major Shaver.

An exceptionally fine musical programme was rendered by Mrs. E. Le Fevre, Mr. Leon Conyers and Mr. Norval Petersen, these well-known artists being in their usual splendid form and receiving enthusiastic accolades. Mrs. Grace Deaville very ably accompanied the artists.

Sidewalk Sheiks Sentenced to Jail in South

San Francisco, Oct. 28.—United States District Judge J. H. Murray sentenced two "sidewalk sheiks" to six months in the county jail for annoying women. Police Judge O'Brien yesterday sentenced two "mashers" to ninety days in the county jail and announced similar sentence would be imposed on other offenders.

CHILDREN GAVE JOLLY PROGRAMME

Yesterday afternoon at St. Ann's Academy a very pleasing Hallowe'en entertainment was arranged by eleven of the pupils of Miss M. Murray's class as a surprise party for the remainder of the sixth and seventh grades. The auditorium was well filled with an enthusiastic audience of children and many of the parents of the young performers were present.

Piano solos were played by Maureen Grute, Eleanor Peden, Wanda Spencer, Nellie Wells, Helen Peden and Helen Beck, who also sang very sweetly "The Moon Witch," "The Fairy Festival" by Josephine Guimann and "A Ghost Story" by Wanda Spencer. There were two clever recitations, "A Butterfly Dance" and a "Ballet" by Maureen Grute in dainty costumes were received with great applause, and three well presented dialogues, "How the Quarrel Began," by Eleanor Peden and Helen Beck; "Unlucky Suspicion," by Helen Beck, Nellie Wells, Josephine Guimann, Jean Fletcher, Barbara Pollard and Helen Peters; "Helen's Practical Joke," by Agnes Nesbitt, Maureen Grute and Helen Beck, were very much appreciated. Helen Peden acted as accompanist, and the announcements were made by Mary Alexia.

A Hallowe'en chorus and the singing of "God Rest Ye Merry Gentles" brought the entertainment to a close and the children, with their guests, repaired to the gaily decorated gymnasium, where jolly games and a delicious tea were enjoyed.

TO-MORROW'S HOROSCOPE

By Genevieve Kemble

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 30

Although the sidereal operations for this day ensure new projects and incline to change and important journeys, yet there is also an ugly which may be read as hazardous to all financial interests. Speculation might be disastrous and lending money be attended by risk. Also there is a possible menace of trouble through quarrels, impetuosity or litigation. However, these portentous aspects do not apply to domestic and social matters, but there is a strong admonition toward discreet conduct in the latter.

Those whose birthday it is are under the promise of an active and enterprising year, but they are enjoined to safeguard their money, which should not be risked either in loans or in speculative ventures. Also disputes and rash acts should be shunned, and particularly circum-spect conduct is enjoined in the social relations. A child born on this day may be inclined to be rash, hasty and headstrong. It may meet reverses in business through speculation.

Rummage Sale.—A fine assortment, comprising all kinds of goods to be found at a rummage sale, will be on hand at the school room of the First Presbyterian United Church on Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Most of the ladies of that large congregation are contributing, and many of them will be on hand as sales ladies. The whole is under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the church, with Mrs. G. E. Wilkinson, telephone 3383X, as general convenor.

Colwood Golfers To Play For Club Championship Soon

Qualifying Round Will Be Held on November 7 With Finals on November 15

Big Entry List Expected; Inter-club Team Match is Set For November 22

Interest in the Colwood Golf Club is now centring around the club championship which is to open on Saturday, November 7, with a qualifying round of 18 holes. Entries for the event must be in the hands of the secretary, Walter Parry, before November 5.

It is expected that between sixty and seventy members of the club will set out in quest of the title, which now reposes in the stout hands of Frank Thomas. The fact that Frank did not prove invincible over his home links in the recent city championship has given many of the leading players of the club renewed hope of overcoming the champion.

The qualifying round will be held on Saturday of next week and the thirty-two low scores will qualify. The defeated sixteen in the first round will form the first flight. The remainder of the players will be formed into flights of sixteen.

SEMI-FINALS ON MONDAY
Semi-finals of the first and second rounds of eighteen holes each will be played, followed by the third round and semi-finals on Monday. The finals in all flights, other than the championship and first flights, will be held on Monday afternoon.

The finals of the championship and first flights will be held on Sunday, November 15. The finalists will play thirty-six holes.

All members of the club are asked to hand in their entries as early as possible.

INTER-CLUB AFFAIR
The Colwood and Victoria golf clubs will hold their annual inter-club match on November 22. The first teams will play at Oak Bay, while the second teams will meet at Colwood.

"BOOB" NOT "BABE"

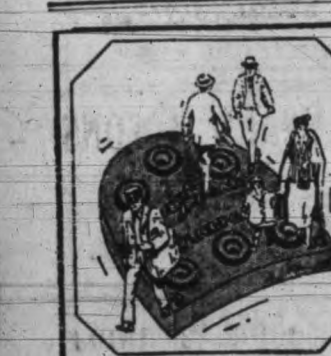

New York, Oct. 29.—Babe Ruth confesses he is "babe and a boob" in an interview. The Sultan of Swat confesses he has lost funds to the tune of $250,000, itemized thus: Money lost through gambling, horses, cards, dice, etc., $125,000; money lost through ill-starred business ventures, $100,000; money lost in fighting suits, attempted blackmail, fees to lawyers, detectives, etc., $25,000.

WOOD WINS EASILY

Portland, Ore., Oct. 29.—Sailor Jack Wood, Houma, La., lightweight wrestler, took two straight falls from Frank Burns, of Flint, Mich., in a two-hour match here last night. Wood won the first fall in 52 minutes and the second fall in 12 minutes and 50 seconds with the same hold.

Montreal Sportsman Marries Actress

Atlantic City, N.J., Oct. 29.—The marriage of Catherine Calvert, the well-known actress and widow of Paul Armstrong, the playwright, to George A. Carruthers of Montreal, Canadian sportsman and actor, was revealed today after the couple had left for New York to sail on a two-year tour of the world.

May be President

George Watson of Victoria is being talked of to succeed L. C. Macken to the presidency of the B.C. Amateur Hockey Association, whose annual meeting is slated for Saturday, November 7.

Mr. Macken has given good service during his term of office but feels that the honor should be passed on. Should he insist on an ideal official as he has closely followed amateur hockey in recent years. He is past president of the B.C. branch of the A.A.U.

George Murray of Trail, who represents the interior on the executive and who will be in attendance at the meeting, has also intimated that he will not seek re-election this year.

In addition to election of officers other business to be considered will be consideration of the cases of members of the Monarch club who were expelled last Spring.

Mr. Macken has not yet received a copy of the changes in playing rules for this year, but in response to a special wire to President Quilty at Ottawa, it is expected that full information will be at hand a week from Saturday.

Players taking part in amateur hockey this winter must have been residents of their particular districts since May 15.

Stables Crowded At Tia Juana Track For Big Meeting

Famous Stables Will Be Represented at Meet Which Opens Thanksgiving Day

Tia Juana Racetrack, Mex., Oct. 29.—The rush of applications for stabling at the Tia Juana track which opens its season Thanksgiving Day is swamping J. P. Atkin, general manager. His work in directing the assignment of stalls is much like that of a hotel manager in housing a lot of convention guests.

In other words Atkin is packing them in even at this early date. Some stalls must be reserved for big Eastern strings which will arrive after the opening.

Wires are arriving at the jockey club with great frequency from owners seeking stabling. By actual count the jockey club received fifty-six telegrams and answered forty-five yesterday, and most of these pertained to stable reservations.

This, Atkin declared, indicates that Tia Juana will have an abundance of runners and many of these are of the better type. Scores are entered in the $75,000 Cofferth Handicap, the world's richest race, and other big classics of the meeting.

At this time a fairly good line can be had on some of the leading stables that will race at the border course. This is given from the chart showing the assignment of stabling.

The Ranocosa Stable, owned by Harry Sinclair and trained by Sam Hildreth, will race a string of seven headed by Silver Fox, winner of the Cincinnati Derby and proclaimed by many as the best three-year-old of the season.

GENERAL THATCHER RETURNS
The Nevada Stock Farm Stable, owned by George W. Wingfield, Nevada millionaire, has been assigned stalls for thirty-eight horses. The star of this string is General Thatcher, a stake horse of great ability. He was second to Atherton in the Cofferth last season.

In the La Brae string will be ten high class gallopers. This organization is owned by H. H. Cotton, of Los Angeles, a man who has entered racing on an extensive scale. John McKee is the trainer. The stars in this lot are Sunper, winner of the Tia Juana Cup last season, and the Tia Juana Cup last season, and who performed brilliantly in the East this Summer, and Sandymann.

The Miramonte Stock Farm, a California organization, of which H. J. Macomber is master, has been given stabling for twenty-four thoroughbreds. In this string is the French bred Phalaris, a star at Tia Juana last season.

Another big string is that of the Brown Shasta Stock Farm. The owner is H. D. (Curly) Brown, of the best known men in racing. Stabling for fifteen runners has been given.

John H. Rosseter, a well known San Francisco man, who bred the once costly Inchepe, will race fifteen head. Rosseter will be here for most of the season. He is engaged in the shipping business in San Francisco. During the war he was chairman of the United States Shipping Board.

Clubmen Now Tied With Bakers For Soccer Leadership

Teams Are Joint Occupants of Top Position in Wednesday Football

Former Hand Garrison Bad Licking; Bakers Defeat Kirkhams

Rennie and Taylors and the Tilliums are now tied for leadership in the Wednesday Football League as a result of their victories yesterday. The former sent Kirkhams down to defeat by 3-1 at Central Park, while the Tilliums found no trouble in scoring a 7-1 victory over the Tommies at Work Point.

The Hudson's Bay scored their first victory of the season over the Navy at Beacon Hill, coming out on the long end of a 2-0 score. All the games were keenly fought, and the spectators witnessed some fine football.

As a result of their defeat the Tommies lost the leadership of the league, and now rest in third position.

In the match at Work Point the Tilliums had the best of the play in both halves and at no time did the Tommies look dangerous. The Garrison opened the scoring just after the game got under way, when Henry placed the ball in the net after a scrimmage in the Tilliums' goal.

The Tilliums carried the play into their opponent's goal area, and Fletcher put the teams on even terms with a well-placed shot. In the next five minutes the Tilliums jumped two goals into the lead, Patterson and Tooby being responsible.

TILLIUMS PULL OUT
The Garrison were no match for their rivals in the second half, and the clubmen ran for their ribs goals, while the Tilliums scored once.

While Southern, the Tilliums' new centre-forward, secured a couple. Abock refereed, and the teams were as follows:

Tilliums: Peden; McIntyre and Armstrong; Hall, Moulton and Rutledge; Patterson, Fletcher, Southern, Woods and Tooby.

Garrison: Matthews; Morrison and Watt; Mitchell, Brown and McVie; Bryson, Falconer, Sweeney, Wallace and Henry.

In a splendid exhibition of soccer the Hudson's Bay overcame the Navy. Both teams played well, and interest never flagged throughout the whole match.

Neither team scored in the first half, although the tars missed a penalty shot. From the kick-off the Navy took the offensive, and only the goal-keepers kept them from scoring.

The blue-jackets also passed up several fine chances by poor shooting. The minutes before half-time Gardiner, one of the Navy's full-backs, handled the ball in the penalty area, and the Navy were awarded a free kick. Johnston, who was a hot shot, but Shirlington lunged into the air and fisted the ball out of the goal. It was a wonderful save.

For a few minutes after the start of the second half the Navy pressed, but their forwards failed at the crucial moments.

BAYS OPEN SCORING
Carey opened the scoring for the Bays when he sent in a long shot from right wing that hit one of the Navy's full-backs, giving Sutter, the goalie, no chance to save.

The Navy tried hard to even things up, but with the end of the game in sight, they were unable to do so. The Navy's victory more secure when he shot the ball towards the net, the platoon dropping at the goalie's feet, and then rolled between his legs into the net.

Hewison refereed, and the teams were as follows:

Hudson's Bay: Shirlington, Gardiner, McKay, Mayne, Weber, Ker, Schen, Clarke, Woodley, Gibson, Harrison and Carey.

Navy: Sutter, Hall, Johnston, Whyte, Freshwater, Harvey, Gleave, Grosvenor, Edd, Roberts and Burden.

Rennie and Taylors scored their second straight victory at the expense of Kirkhams. The final score was 3-1 the teams being tied one-all at half-time.

Kirkhams gave the bakers their hardest fight this season and it was only through lack of experience they failed to come through with a victory. The store eleven scored their only goal about the middle of the first half, and there was such a melee it was impossible to see who got the foot to the ball.

The bakers were responsible for the score. Hawkes being responsible for the counter.

In the second frame the winners and the advantage, their forwards displaying better combination work. Speak put Rennie and Taylors in the lead with a fine shot from close range while McKinnon put the game in a tie.

Minutes later, Kirkham tried hard to score in the dying moments of the first half, but his efforts were useless match but the strong defence of their opponents.

Recognized As Champion

FIDEL LA BARBA

The National Boxing Association of the United States has recognized Barba's claim as flyweight champion. He gained a right to top honors by virtue of his defeat of Frankie Genaro at Los Angeles recently. La Barba left no doubt as to the result, handing the New Yorker a neat trimming over the ten-session route. About a year ago the new crown-wearer was only an amateur. He's made rapid strides up the pugilistic ladder. The passing of Pancho Villa also helped to pave the way for La Barba's climb.

Queen's Can Take Fourth Title By Winning Saturday

Toronto Varsity Determined to End Winning Career of Kingston Team

Greatest Game of Season Expected; Argos Meet Montreal in Big Game

Ottawa, Oct. 29.—Interest in next Saturday's rugby games in eastern Canada centres on the game between Queen's University, the Dominion champions, and the University of Toronto.

Victory for the Kingston students will give Queen's the intercollegiate championship for the fourth consecutive season and will mark their 24th consecutive win.

In their game against Varsity at Kingston on October 19, the Toronto collegians were defeated by eight to five, and the Dominion champions were considered lucky to win as Varsity had the best of the play.

Varsity defeat Queen's they will have to take their two games from McGill on November 7 and 14 to finish in an exhibition affair.

ARGOS MEET M.A.A.
Only one inter-provincial game is scheduled Saturday. Toronto Argonauts meet Montreal A.A.A. in Montreal and must win to stay in the running for the Grey Cup.

In the Ontario Rugby Union, the league leaders and last year's champions, Balmy Beach, meet Camp Borden, the second place holders. The latter will have to win this game to stay in the running. There is only one O.R.U. game scheduled.

LUQUE WAS CHAMPION
Hard-luck Pitcher of National League

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 29.—Adolfo Luque, the Cuban right-hander with the Reds, must be set-down in all respects as the champion hard-luck pitcher of the National League in 1925.

Luque won only sixteen games and lost eighteen for an average of .471 this year, for a club which finished in third place with a team percentage of .523.

Yet all observers who followed the work of the Reds during the past season will freely admit that Luque's own personal work on the mound was at least as good as that of won twenty-one championship games, the former losing only eleven and the latter fourteen. Rixey and Donohue were the only Red pitchers who had a winning average of over .500 and a better percentage than that of the team, but the Cuban was fully as good as they were, in spite of his more humble average.

Next English Polo Four In Doubt But New Stars To Show

Lord Wodehouse Says Old Country Players Must Adopt U.S. Style of Play

Several Promising Players Likely to Catch Places on Team For 1927

New York, Oct. 29.—Lord Wodehouse, who is expected to organize and drill the next English international team, which is to come over in 1927, has stated that so far as he knows no definite plans have been made for such a trip. He came over this Fall at the invitation of Stephen Sanford to get a line on the American style of polo and to take part in the games in which the Hurricanes would play. Whether or not a team will come over in 1927 depends upon the class of players England can assemble.

Lord Wodehouse does not expect to play in international matches again as he is satisfied to give way to younger players. However, if there are no other players available he will play. His Lordship played against the Americans in 1921 and since that time has had his wrist broken three times. These breaks have impaired his playing to some degree and often caused him intense pain during games.

Lord Wodehouse believes that to compete with the American polo the English will have to learn the style of play on this side of the water. The English team will have to come over in plenty of time to get must get used to the fast, hard and dry fields; the mounts must also be trained to keep going at top speed all the time. Players must also learn the art of riding to the boards and, at the same time, must learn how to keep on the ball at all times.

NEED TEAM WORK
As teamwork is essential in the American game, Lord Wodehouse estimated that a team of second-rate Americans could defeat any team in England. This was not because of superior individual play of the Americans, but because of their great teamwork. In referring to the recent games between the American and British army teams Lord Wodehouse was high in his praise of Capt. Rhodes, who played No. 2, Capt. Rhodes made a fine statement in England and his work stood out in the games between the two army teams.

What seemed foremost in the mind of Lord Wodehouse was the class of players needed for an international team. He looked upon Wing-Commander Wise as one of the best players in England and an excellent man for back.

Wing-Commander Wise, Lord Wodehouse said, was a most dependable player and being a big man, on the type of field and in the last of the ninth Agnew singled. The Coast champions tried for a rally by sending Paynter in as a pinch hitter, but he hit into a double play that settled the issue.

COULD NOT HIT
The Seals had the bases full with none out in the seventh, but were unable to hit safely. The home boys got their two runs in this eighth when Mulligan singled and came home on Henry's two-bagger. Henry scored on Betzel's bad throw to Cotter at first. With one out in the last of the ninth Agnew singled. The Coast champions tried for a rally by sending Paynter in as a pinch hitter, but he hit into a double play that settled the issue.

Score:
Louisville 6, 11, 1
San Francisco 2, 9, 2
Pitchers: Cullup and Meyer; Mitchell, Crockett, Geary and Agnew.

JIM THORPE TRIES MATRIMONY AGAIN
New York, Oct. 29.—Released by the New York Professional Football Club because of his failure to get into proper playing condition, Jim Thorpe, famous Indian athlete, has signed another contract in matrimony—this time honey-mooning on his way west.

The announcement to-day that the former Carlisle star had been cut adrift by the "pro" team was counter to the disclosure that he had married Freda Kirkpatrick, of Endicott, N.Y. It is his second venture in matrimony. He was divorced last year in Oklahoma on grounds of desertion.

FRAYNE, SAVED BY BELL, REVIVES AND KAYOES OPPONENT
Bellingham, Wash., Oct. 29.—After being saved by the bell from a knockout in the first round, Ted Frayne, Seattle light-heavyweight, knocked out Marty Foley, Tacoma, at the start of the second round of a main event here last night. Frayne's unexpected comeback left the fans gasping. He caught Foley with a right to the jaw. Both men were unsteady at the finish and neither appeared to realize who had won the slugging match.

In the semi-final Ray Clark, Bellingham, 140-pounder, kayoed Battling Jack, Tacoma, after one minute of fighting in the first round.

Jockey Club Cup At Newmarket Won To-day by Bucellas
Newmarket, Eng., Oct. 29. (Canadian Press Cable).—J. P. Hornum's three-year-old, Bucellas, by Buchanan out of Wendela, a light grey, won the Jockey Club Cup by a short head from Sir A. Bailey's three-year-old, Foxlaw, the latter finishing a length in front of Lord Rosebery's four-year-old, Plack.

Bucellas started at 100 to 20 against Foxlaw at 6 to 4 and Plack, the favorite at 5 to 4 against five, won the Jockey Club Cup, established in 1873, is one of the important long distance races of the turf, being over a 2 1/2 mile course. Lord Rosebery's Plack, third to-day, won the race last year. It has a value to the winner of approximately £400.

Advocates Six Umps For World's Series To Avoid Troubles
Billy Evans Says Two Umpires Are Required to Watch Plays in Outfield

Peckinpaugh Just Gnat's Eyebrow Between Being Hero of Series and the Goat

By BILLY EVANS
The difference between the hero and the "goat" in baseball is slight. If you doubt it, consider the case of Roger Peckinpaugh.

In baseball, it is not how many errors you make, but how costly they are. If a player's mistakes do not figure in the final result they are quickly forgotten.

Very often it is possible for a player to wipe out any number of black spots through the medium of one great play. In the final games of the 1925 series, Roger Peckinpaugh for a moment enjoyed such a thrill.

In the seventh inning, Peck by dropping an easy fly ball made it possible for Pittsburgh to score two runs and tie the game. In the eighth inning he delivered a home run that again put his team in front.

It seemed as if the home run would prove to be the deciding blow of the series. It would transform Peck from the "goat" to the hero class. All his previous misdeeds would be forgotten.

But it was not to be. After two were down in Pittsburgh's half of the eighth, Peck again erred, presenting the Pirates with two runs, the margin by which Pittsburgh won the game and series.

I doubt if any player in the history of a world series ever had such a hectic time of it as was Peck's portion. I am sorry the home run in the eighth didn't erase previous failures.

The world series is considered the last word in baseball, the classic of the year. As such an event it should be staged only under the most propitious conditions.

It is doubtful if ever a game was played under worse conditions than the final clash of the 1925 world series. Certainly in my twenty years of big league umpiring I never saw a worse day for a ball game.

During the regular season a game would have never been started under the conditions that prevailed. Had the home team elected to start the contest, as is its right under the rules of the game, the umpires would never have gone more than an inning or two.

The umpires, however, were decidedly up against it after Washington made four runs in the first inning. It was a tough spot to call it off, after having made the teams start in bad weather.

This is in no sense an alibi for Washington, as all things were equal as to the weather. The experiment of starting a game with unfavorable weather prevailing as it did at Pittsburgh, will serve as a good lesson.

Louisville Pulls Another Game Out Of Fire and Wins
San Francisco, Oct. 29.—The Louisville Colonels, playing in championship fashion, took the seventh game of the baseball series yesterday, defeating the San Francisco club, 6-2. Cullup was in good form, although touched for nine hits, but was never in any great danger. The Seals used three pitchers and were found for eleven hits. The Coast team won four and the Kentuckians three games to date.

In the Colonels' half of the second inning, Tyson, fast little centre fielder, hit for a double and went off, scoring. Cullup and Meyer followed suit, bringing in Cotter. The Easterners rallied again in the fifth, sending Mitchell to the showers after he had added three more runs to their lead. Crockett gave way for a pinch-hitter in the seventh and was relieved by Geary, who was found for one run in the eighth.

FEED YOUR CHILDREN UPON GHOST CEREALS

If you will, but a farmer would laugh at you if you told him to feed them to his live stock, for he would know that live stock will soon die if fed upon them exclusively. Yet your children have not half the resistance of horses and cows. Then why feed them foods that will kill horses and cows?

Ghost cereals is the name science applies to certain unsubstantial cereal foods whose chief claim for your attention is flavor and ease of serving. Now would you not rather buy real foods, especially for your children, than to buy these fancy packages which, without milk, are hardly foods at all? Certainly you would.

Well, Dr. Jackson's Roman Meal is precisely such a real food. Science proves that it is the darker, rougher parts of the grains that nourish and build sound and vital health. Roman Meal has the dark parts of three whole grains with bran, used in proportions to make a balanced human food. Each contains 192 food units to the pound. Roman Meal contains over 1,600 food units to the pound. Prevents indigestion, positively relieves constipation. A truly wonderful food. You ought to try Roman Meal. At grocers.

MANY CASUALTIES IN DAMASCUS FIGHT

Place Deaths in Recent French-Native Clashes at 2,000 to 3,000

Arabs Led by Hassan el Karreth; Time of Unforgettable Horror

Cairo, Egypt, Oct. 29.—All reports from Damascus, although making conflicting accusations and giving varying accounts concerning what occurred when the French put down a native insurrection early last week, leave the impression that city passed through a terrible ordeal from October 18 to 20.

Damascus, it is learned, bears the scars of relentless measures taken by the French to put down riots started by the Arabs following the parading of corpses through the streets.

Dispatches from French sources prior to the insurrection said the French were displaying heads of bandits in the public places of Damascus as a warning to others.

POLICE WERE ATTACKED

A traveler, who has just arrived here from Damascus, says that at 4 p.m., on October 18, Hassan el Karreth, chief of a native band, penetrated into the Chagour quarter of Damascus with his followers, crying: "Rise up! Your brothers, the Druses are here."

The natives then attacked a police post, where they shot a French officer. The inhabitants of the quarter armed themselves and joined the insurgents, the traveler says, and then all advanced toward the Medan quarter, the inhabitants of which ranged themselves against Hassan el Karreth's men.

100 DIED FIGHTING

The traveler relates that at that hour many Frenchmen were working with Armenians in the Medan quarter. There they were savagely attacked by the insurgents and by another force coming from another direction, which caught them between two fires. There 100 men died fighting.

Suddenly an aeroplane appeared over the scene and dropped bombs on the crowds massed in the Armenian quarter to disperse them. The angry crowds fired back, but without hitting the aeroplane.

After that tanks and armored cars arrived, while a number of aeroplanes joined in, all uniting in spreading death among the rebels. The latter fled in all directions.

DISTRICT SHELLED

The insurgents, however, did not cease their firing on the public and military buildings. They barricaded the streets and set fire to certain quarters. Finally the artillery in the citadel began shelling the rebel district, the French making it known the bombardment would continue until the insurgents ceased firing.

The bombardment lasted from Sunday night until Tuesday. The shells destroyed the Medan and Chagour quarters, while parts of the Hamidiyah Bazar, el-Bouzarie and el-Komeire were burned. A palace, considered one of the finest monuments in the East, was greatly damaged.

DAYS OF HORROR

The traveler describes the period of this bombardment as days and nights of "unforgettable horror." He says it is difficult to know how many persons were killed or wounded, but that hundreds were lying in the streets, and the better part of 2,000 were buried in the debris of buildings wrecked by the bombardment.

Apparently the Christians escaped effects of the fighting. The French sent 2,000 soldiers into the Christian quarters, but the insurgents made no direct attack on these.

On Tuesday afternoon, October 20, the traveler says, leading native residents of Damascus went to General Sarrahl, the French High Commissioner, and undertook to fulfill all the requirements laid down by the French.

MARTIAL LAW

Martial law was declared in Damascus, according to this account, and all persons found in possession of arms are being executed.

Another version which reached Cairo says six organized bands had been working around Damascus, but that the band which entered the city on October 18 was composed of only forty men, under Hassan el Karreth, and that they intended to kidnap General Sarrahl. This account says the French then bombarded the city, intending to frighten the population, whom they accused of connivance with the rebel bands and with having informed these the time of General Sarrahl's arrival in Damascus.

NATIVES RETREATED

The rebels retreated in Damascus until October 20, this account continues, and only retired then because their presence was taken by the French as a pretext for bombarding the city.

Another version says the rebel bands attacked Damascus to avenge themselves on the Armenians of the Medan quarter, who it was alleged were enrolling in the French army.

HUNDREDS OF REFUGEES

Alexandria, Egypt, Oct. 29.—The report that the fatal rioting of Damascus last week was caused by the French parading the bodies of rebels killed in the neighborhood of the city is reiterated by a refugee Syrian here from Beirut.

Many hundreds of Damascus residents have taken refuge in the Lebanon villages and Beirut, he said. The steamship Champollion, on which he arrived from Beirut, brought 319 other refugees.

The leader of the revolt, according to the refugee, was a Mohammedan chief named Hassan el Karreth (or Karreth), who entered Damascus at the head of a mixed force of Mohammedans and Druse tribesmen. Hassan sent cries throughout the city inviting the people to remain in their houses and then attacked a police post in the Chagour quarter.

LENGTHY BOMBARDMENT

Next he moved against posts in Medan and Babtuma, the Christian quarters. The French forces and their families withdrew to the Mezzi and Bab-es-Salahlieh quarters, in the north of the city, and opened a bombardment on the Chagour, Medan and Babesour quarters, which are densely populated. A shell fell every three minutes, alternately incendiary and high explosive, for forty-eight hours.

A delegation of notables approached General Gamelin and appealed for a cessation of the bombardment, since the rioters had evacuated the town to save their relatives. Gamelin, the refugee asserts, replied he would not cease firing and the bombardment continued six hours more.

The palatial home of Nasab el Makhrat, who joined the revolt, escaped damage, but the refugee said it later was destroyed with benzine and dynamite.

INDEMNITY GIVEN

General Gamelin demanded $100,000 in gold and 3,000 rifles as an indemnity. The town notables acceded to the demand and began collecting the money—an arms.

That part of the city between the Hamidia and Medan quarters, estimated to hold 120,000 inhabitants, was burned.

The rioters attacked Senegalese troops in front of the museum, drove them back and burned the adjoining premises, but spared the museum.

MERCHANT TOLD HE WILL BE FINED $500

Wycherley, Cumberland, Given Advance Information By Judge After Trial

Vancouver, Oct. 29.—With the advance information that he would be fined $500 and not sent to prison, George H. Wycherley, Cumberland merchant, left the Assize court room here yesterday afternoon on his own recognizance, convicted of fraud.

The man was found guilty of making a false statement to John W. Beck & Co. for the purpose of gaining credit on goods he ordered from the firm for his store at Cumberland, Vancouver Island.

He assigned in bankruptcy in September, 1924, and following his examination for discovery on the assignment, criminal proceedings were started.

In bringing in a verdict of guilty the jury added, as a rider a strong recommendation for mercy.

DEPARTED FROM CUSTOM

Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald made favorable comment on the suggestion and explained to the prisoner he would depart from custom in telling what he considered the proper fine for the offense.

"I can tell you now that I feel the right amount should be $500," the judge stated. "I may change that before the day sentences are handed down, but you may be sure it will not be any more than that."

The judge went on to explain he had divulged this information so the convicted man might prepare to meet the levy.

Wycherley was prosecuted at the instance of the Attorney-General of British Columbia and was brought before the court on a bench warrant following the return of a true bill on the indictment by the grand jury.

That film is an enemy to your teeth—and your gums. You must remove it.

It clings to teeth, gets into crevices and stays. It absorbs discolorations and gives your teeth that cloudy "off color" look. Germs by the millions breed in it—and they, with tartar, are a chief cause of pyorrhea, and gum disorders.

Old-time methods fail in successfully combating it. That's why, regardless of the care you take now, your teeth remain dull—your gums soft and toneless.

New methods remove it. And Firm the Gums

Now, in a new-type dentifrice called Pepsodent, dental science has discovered effective combatants. Their action is to curdle the film and remove it, then to firm the gums.

What you see when that film is removed—the whiteness of your teeth—will amaze you.

Largely on dental advice, the world has turned to this method.

A few days' use will prove its power beyond all doubt.

ELECTION STILL IN DOUBT WITH WEST UNREPORTED

Local Conservative Member Increases His Majority By a Slight Margin

Tolmie Defeats Ivel By Large City Majority

Tolmie Polls 6,923 Votes as Against 4,708 Polled by Ivel; Booth Chances in Nanaimo Riding Defeated by W. T. Grieves, Labor Candidate, Who Secured Over 2,000 Votes. Nearly Twelve Thousand Recorded Votes in Victoria To-day.

By a majority of 2,216, Dr. S. F. Tolmie was elected at the polls to-day, the Conservative member virtually duplicating his majority in 1921. Dr. Tolmie's majority in 1921 was 2,452. In all of the five wards in the city to-day Dr. Tolmie secured a lead over his opponent.

In 1921 Dr. Tolmie polled 7,485 votes against 5,033 votes polled by William McK. Ivel, the majority in the last Federal election for the Conservative member being 2,452. To-day Mr. Ivel polled 325 votes less than in 1921.

Finals in the city were as follows:

TOLMIE	6,923
IVEL	4,708

By wards the vote went as under:

Ward	Tolmie	Ivel	Spilled
Ward One	745	674	17
Ward Two	1,152	918	34
Ward Three	1,573	1,232	19
Ward Four	1,459	686
Ward Five	1,995	1,198

Thomas B. Booth, Liberal candidate, apparently was defeated in the Nanaimo riding by a majority of over 1,600 in favor of C. H. Dickie, Conservative candidate.

In Nanaimo City, however, Mr. Booth secured nearly 1,000 majority over Mr. Dickie.

In the Nanaimo riding the following results had been received up to 8 o'clock to-night:

DICKIE (Conservative)	7,109
BOOTH (Liberal)	5,460
GRIEVES (Labor)	2,192

A. W. NEILL IN FOR COMOX-ALBERNI

With the help of a big vote from the West Coast A. W. Neill, Independent-Liberal for Comox-Alberni was returned with a majority of 2,000 over T. D. Goldcutt, Conservative.

Conservatives Gain In Ontario and Maritimes; Liberals Hold Quebec

Verdict of Western Canada Unknown; Outcome of Election Still Doubtful; 52 Conservatives, 20 Liberals and 2 Labor Members Elected at 8 P.M.; Early Returns Indicate Liberal Gains on Prairies.

KING AND MEIGHEN DEFEATED IN OWN CONSTITUENCIES

B.C. Situation Doubtful, with Stevens Elected in Vancouver, King in Kootenay and Ridings Around Vancouver Giving Tories Lead in Early Returns; Five Cabinet Ministers Lose Seats; Only Two Conservatives Break Solid Liberal Bloc in Quebec; Forke Elected in Brandon.

With the Conservative Party conceded heavy gains throughout the Maritime Provinces and Ontario, the Liberal Party apparently holding Quebec almost solid, few returns received from constituencies west of the Great Lakes and Premier King and Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen both defeated in their own ridings, the result of the Federal election was still in a complete doubt at 8 o'clock to-night. At that time the Conservative Party had elected fifty-two members, the Liberal Party twenty and the Labor Party two, but the situation all over Western Canada and most of Quebec, the chief Liberal stronghold, had not clarified. It was impossible when this edition went to press to foresee the grouping of the three parties in the new House of Commons, but it was evident the Liberals and Conservatives would be much more evenly divided than in the last House of Commons.

The chief features of the election up to 8 o'clock to-night were the Conservative Party's heavy increase in strength in Ontario and the Maritimes and the almost unbroken return of Liberals in Quebec. In Ontario the Conservative Party had elected forty Conservatives to one Liberal, while in the Maritimes eight Conservatives and four Liberals had been returned. Early returns from Quebec showed that the solid Liberal bloc had been broken only in Montreal, where two Conservatives were returned while thirteen Liberals were returned elsewhere.

Practically nothing had been heard from New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island. Only scattered returns were in from the prairies and these indicated Liberal gains and the election of a few Conservatives, but with the farming districts yet to be heard from the Progressive Party is evidently holding much of its former strength.

In British Columbia, while returns were preliminary in character, it was evident the Conservative Party was bidding strongly for an increase in its former strength, but the situation in this Province, except for the Victoria seat, was very doubtful. In Vancouver seats Conservatives were leading by heavy margins.

DR. KING ELECTED

Cranbrook, Oct. 29.—Hon. J. H. King, Minister of Public Works, has been elected in East Kootenay.

FORKE ELECTED

Brandon, Oct. 29.—The election of Robert Forke, Progressive leader, in Brandon, is conceded.

Maritime Results

Halifax, Oct. 29.—At 9 p.m. the election of Conservatives was conceded in the following Nova Scotia and New Brunswick constituencies: Charlottetown, unchanged; St. John-Albert, unchanged; Restigouche-Madawaska, Conservative gain; Northumberland, Conservative gain from Liberals; Westmorland, Conservative gain from Liberals; York-Sunbury, unchanged; Victoria-Carleton, Conservative gain from Progressives; Royal, unchanged; Kent, unchanged.

The Liberal candidate was leading in Gloucester.

J. HUBBS RETURNED

Belleville, Ont., Oct. 29.—J. Hubbs, Conservative, was elected in the new riding of Prince Edward-Lennox.

SOUTH BRUCE LIBERAL
Walkerton, Ont., Oct. 29.—The election of Hall, Liberal, in South Bruce, Ont., is conceded.

ONTARIO RESULTS

The Conservative victory in Ontario defeated Premier King in his riding of North York and swept four of his Cabinet Ministers from office. Rt. Hon. G. P. Graham, Minister of Railways; Hon. Vincent Massey, Hon. James Murdock and Hon. G. N. Gordon went down to defeat, while Hon. T. A. Lov was running behind in early returns. A feature of the Ontario poll was the victory of Miss Agnes MacPhail, Progressive and only woman member of the House of Commons. Out of eighty-two seats in Ontario Conservatives were conceded forty and were leading in many other ridings. The Conservative gains were taken from both Liberal and Progressive seats, although the Progressives were suffering most.

QUEBEC'S DECISION

Quebec is evidently maintaining its allegiance to the Liberal Party. Apart from the defeat of two Liberals in Montreal, including Hon. Herbert Marler, newly-appointed member of the Government, the French Province had registered no Conservative victories. Henri Bourassa, Nationalist leader, running now as an independent, was re-elected, while Hon. E. L. Patenaude, the Quebec Conservative leader, early conceded defeat.

In British Columbia G. G. McGeer conceded Hon. H. H. Stevens' election just before 8 p.m. Other seats around Vancouver appeared to be going Conservative.

Ontario Results Quebec Results

Toronto, Oct. 29.—At 8 p.m. the following elections in Ontario were conceded:

Conservatives — Brantford City, Fort William-Haldimand, Halton, Kingston, Lincoln-London, Toronto-Parkdale, Simcoe North, Toronto East, Toronto East Centre, Toronto High Park, Toronto Northeast, Toronto Northwest, Toronto Scarborough, Toronto South, Toronto West Centre.

TORONTO CONSERVATIVE
Toronto, Oct. 29.—Toronto has gone solidly Conservative. All nine seats are conceded. This includes the three new ridings.

GUTHRIE ELECTED
Toronto, Oct. 29.—Hon. Hugh Guthrie, Conservative, was elected in South-Wellington, Ont. He was Minister of Defence in the Meighen administration.

MARLER DEFEATED
Montreal, Oct. 29.—In the St. Lawrence-St. George division of Montreal the Liberals conceded the election of C. H. Cahan, Conservative, over Hon. Herbert Marler, Minister without portfolio.

ROBITAILLE RE-ELECTED
Montreal, Oct. 29.—In Maisonneuve C. Robitaille, Liberal, was re-elected. He represented the constituency in the last House.

DR. DENIS ELECTED
Montreal, Oct. 29.—The election of Dr. J. A. Denis, Liberal, in St. Denis, Montreal, is conceded.

MOUNT ROYAL
Montreal, Oct. 29.—R. S. White, Conservative, was the successful candidate in Mount Royal.

TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION HEADS

TOPAY VISIT

President J. M. Lynch, S. R. Brown and J. W. Hays Will Arrive in City on Nov. 18

At the monthly meeting of the Victoria Typographical Union, President F. G. Wyatt announced that President James M. Lynch, First Vice-President S. R. Brown, and Secretary-Treasurer J. W. Hays, members of the Executive Council of the International Typographical Union, had in contemplation a western itinerary which would include Victoria. The trio will arrive here on the Seattle boat at 1:15 on Wednesday, November 18, and leave the following day for Vancouver. A reception committee was appointed by the local union to make arrangements for the entertainment of the well known labor leaders of an organization that has always been in the forefront of its educational methods in the cause of trade unionism on this continent. The I.T.U. protective and beneficial institutions, such as the $2,500,000 Union Printers Home at Colorado Springs, Colo., its mortuary benefits, and its old age pensions have accomplished much in popularizing the trade union movement and probably accounts for the amicable relations that exist between the employers and their employees. A donation of $50 was voted by the union to the Seattle-Bentley Island Relief Fund for the benefit of the families of the longshoremen whose lives were so tragically terminated when the tug Hope turned turtle.

A resolution of appreciation was passed to the T.B. Association at the favorable termination of their efforts to secure recognition of the claims of the late J. J. Belfort by the S.C.R. Board.

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily's Prickly Chair

Copyright, 1925, McClure Newspaper Syndicate

(By Howard R. Garis)

"Cock a doodle doo!" crowed Charlie the little rooster boy. "Cackle and cackle!" cried his sister Arabella Chick. "Oh, isn't this just wonderful to meet so many friends!" she went on joyfully. "Charlie and Arabella were floating down the brook in a clothes basket for a boat. It was Charlie and Arabella whom Flipper had seen when, on the island, Uncle Wiggily was making candy for Flipper, his sister Flapper, and his two nephews, Billy and Bawly No Tail, the frog boys.

"This is the end of our voyage," Charlie cackled Arabella as she steered the clothes basket boat up to the shore of the little island where they had rafted off Billy and Bawly were moored.

"Goodness!" exclaimed Uncle Wiggily again. "I thought, Flipper, when you called out so suddenly, that you saw some of the bad chaps. And I was afraid they would want some of the candy, when there is hardly enough to go around."

"Longears had made some candy from a pound of sugar he happened to find in his tail, silk hat after he started off on the adventure trip with Flipper and Flapper. "Aren't you glad it was only us two chickens, and none of the bad chaps?" asked Arabella as she shook a little water off her tail feathers. She and Charlie had gone sailing in the clothes basket, and of course it leaked a little.

"Really, it would be a better boat for the Wibblewobble ducks than for us," crowed Charlie. "But a little water leaking in did not harm."

"Well, I am very glad it was you, and none of the bad chaps," said Uncle Wiggily. "And now if you will all take seats."

"But a little water leaking in did not harm."

"I will pass the candy."

He had poured the melted sugar, which was flavored with blue leaves to saffron bark, twice as clear leaves to cool, and now the little thin slabs of candy were ready to eat.

"Oh, this is very good!" crowed Bully, who had been racing his twin brother, Flipper, and had rattled before Uncle Wiggily and the little twin bunnies got on board.

"The best I ever ate!" crowed Charlie, and Arabella said the same. But even can't eat it all at once. Then, noticing that Flipper and Flapper looked sleepy, Uncle Wiggily asked Charlie and Arabella to take the little rabbit's home in their clothes basket boat.

"Where are you going, Uncle Wiggily?" asked Charlie.

"I am going to hop off by myself to look for a rabbit gentleman, twinkling his pink nose. Tell your mother I will be home soon," he added to Flipper and Flapper.

They were then taken to the shore by Uncle Wiggily and his sister sailed away with them. Bully and Bawly went pulling their way down the brook on the lily leaf raft after the uncle and his sister.

Then Mr. Longears hopped off by himself. He had not gone far before he came to a grove of trees. The ground beneath the trees was covered with chestnuts, some of them still being green in the sharp, prickly burrs.

"I'll pile a lot of these chestnuts on this flat stump," said Uncle Wiggily to himself, "and when I see the squirrel, and Billie Bushytail, the squirrel, I'll tell them to come here for the nuts."

By using a piece of board, which he pulled off an old fence, Uncle Wiggily could stand up without getting any silver in his paws. Soon the stump was covered with a heap of burrs.

"That would make a pretty good place for anyone to sit on," thought Uncle Wiggily. "I shouldn't invite any of my friends to sit there. But if any of the bad chaps happened to come along—well, that would be different. But I haven't seen any bad chaps lately. I wonder if—"

And just then there was a rustling in the bushes and something began pushing its way out. Uncle Wiggily did not know whether it was a squirrel or not, but he was not to run. But what he did not learn to tell the world his story.

By using a piece of board, which he pulled off an old fence, Uncle Wiggily could stand up without getting any silver in his paws. Soon the stump was covered with a heap of burrs.

"That would make a pretty good place for anyone to sit on," thought Uncle Wiggily. "I shouldn't invite any of my friends to sit there. But if any of the bad chaps happened to come along—well, that would be different. But I haven't seen any bad chaps lately. I wonder if—"

responsibility for many of the "disagreeable things" done during that time.

Premier King, Dr. MacLean stated, was a man admirably equipped for the position of premier—better equipped, indeed, than any man who had ever filled the post. By inheritance, by ability, by training he was fitted for "giving the country's affairs," the speaker affirmed.

Neither Mr. Meighen or Mr. King would reflect on the Canadian people, the private character, Dr. MacLean declared. But the electors, he (Concluded on page 4)

M. P. BLAIR GIVES OUTLINE OF WORK OF ACTIVE GROUP

Tells What Industrial Group Has Accomplished After Year's Service

In his report at the annual meeting of the Industrial Group of the Chamber of Commerce, M. P. Blair yesterday gave a short resume of the year's work.

"Your Industrial Group Executive would, I am sure, with all this time, report that every effort has been made through correspondence, circulars, personal interviews and attention to call-out-of-town prospects for local manufacturing concerns."

By consultation and advice to local concerns who have sought the assistance, to increase and promote the industrial activities of the city," Mr. Blair said.

"It is difficult to state definitely the direct or indirect benefit and influence that continued efforts along these lines may have, and returns are not always immediately apparent. There have, however, as you are aware, been several substantial additions to our local factories during the year's report continued."

WORK CONTINUES

Negotiations are at the present time being carried out with certain firms who have expressed an interest and desire to locate here on the Pacific Coast. There has in fact been a marked activity in the industrial group in the part of industrial concerns seeking locations for branch plants or Canadian plants in the southern portion of Vancouver Island.

It would take considerably more time than we have available to-day to outline the individual steps and experiences, beside the work done during the past year, but one special activity, and another, but I am moved to take advantage of the opportunity to mention my personal appreciation of the work of individual members of the executive, and of the individual members, who have from time to time brought to the attention of your executive, possibilities and activities which have come to their notice in the past year.

As a result of the work of the executive, which is being carried on with corporations whose intentions locally have been intimated to your executive.

BROUGHT NEW MILL

The McMaisters-Horton negotiations alone, which have led up to the construction of a mill recently under the Reserve, is a fitting instance of interest, and follow-up activities, necessary, once a proposal such as this first reaches the ears of the group.

Worthwhile of mention, too, especially at this time, is the Home Products Fair which was staged at the Armories last April and in which many of those present took an active part. My personal belief is that we must continue these fairs, from time to time, for this is without doubt one of the activities for which this group should be responsible. Let me assure you that there is no doubt as to the benefits derived by our citizens and industrial plants as a whole, it is only necessary to take but a few of the comments of those who exhibit regularly, to be convinced of the importance of these exhibitions.

Mr. Blair has been chairman of the Industrial Group for the past two years, but declined to hold office again this term, saying that it was well to get new blood at the head of things. He acknowledged a hearty vote of thanks of the members yesterday at the meeting of the group.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY FOR CHILDREN AT LAKE HILL HALL

As the members of the Lake Hill Women's Institute have desired to give the children of the district a good time, they under the convener-ship of Mrs. Peddie, have decided to give a Hallowe'en party, masquerade optional, on October 31, in the Lake Hill community hall, to which parents and friends are invited.

Commencing with supper at 5.30 p.m. and devoting the rest of the time to various old and new Hallowe'en games, in which everyone can take an active part, is an ideal way of spending a social evening, with plenty of fun and laughter.

Admission will be free, but there will be a collection during the evening in aid of the solarium at Mill Bay for the benefit of crippled children.

ALCOHOL SEIZED

Shelburne, N.S., Oct. 29.—Customs officers seized a quantity of alcohol valued at $30,000 at East Jordan, near here, when they became suspicious of the loading of a car of barrels labeled "Mackel No. 2." No arrests were made.

"Why didn't you pick up that bill?" asked a traveler in Germany, who saw a native drop 1,000 marks. "Ach!" replied the German. "Last week I stopped to pick up such a bill and lost a suspender button, and you can't get a suspender button under 5,000 marks."

Langford

Special to The Times

Langford, Oct. 29.—There will be a Halloween party for the children of the district held Friday, October 30, at 7.30 p.m. The teachers hope that all parents and friends will endeavor to be present and help to make the evening a joyful one. It is requested that the children will appear in masked fancy costumes, for which prizes will be given. Refreshments will be served, and a collection taken in aid of the piano fund.

Mrs. A. Cooper of Millstream Road is visiting her daughter in Portland, Oregon.

Mrs. C. A. Morley of Millstream Road has her mother, sister, and brother-in-law visiting her from Schreiber, Ontario.

Mrs. A. Cowie of Leigh Road has her niece, Mrs. A. Greenhouse from Vancouver visiting her.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Brown, who have been visiting on the prairies for several months, have returned to their home in Atkins Road.

A mission of service will be held at St. Matthew's Church starting on Sunday, November 1, to 3. There will be evening service every week night, except Saturday, at 8 p.m., Sundays 7 p.m., while on Monday, Wednesday and Friday children's service will be held at 4.45 p.m. The Rev. H. T. Archibald will be the minister, and an earnest invitation is extended to all to be present at the services.

The October meeting of the Langford Women's Institute was held Tuesday afternoon in their hall on Dunford Road. Mrs. Percy Welsh, vice-president, presided. The invitation from the Victoria Steam Laundry to visit their plant was accepted by the Langford members for Thursday, November 5. The management having offered to give a handsome sum to the proffered solarium if 1,000 members will visit the laundry. It is hoped that all ladies will endeavor to go. The members voted a small donation to the B.C. Potato Show to be held in New Westminster on November 25 and 26. An excellent paper on the "W.F. District—Conference" was given by the secretary, many interesting ideas were gained by the members from the work of other institutes. The establishing of a bulb and seed exchange should prove of help, particularly to isolated institutes. The members pledged themselves to help at the children's Halloween party on Friday, October 30. The business over a pleasant cup of tea was enjoyed, the hostess being Mrs. A. Cowie.

Chemainus

Special to The Times

Chemainus, Oct. 29.—The Physical Culture Club visited the picture house Monday. About sixty ladies attended. The walls were all decorated with weird designs of a Halloween nature, goblins, witches, black cats and yellow streamers being used effectively. A number of contests also of a Halloween nature took place, for which prizes were awarded. Supper was served by girls in yellow and black aprons and yellow caps. A silver collection was taken up to provide new records for the gramophone which is used at the physical culture classes. The business over a pleasant cup of tea was enjoyed. A vote of thanks was passed to Mrs. John Humbird and the ladies who worked hard to make the event successful.

Lieut. Colin Donald, R.C.N., is home on leave for a few days, the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Donald, pending his departure for Halifax where he has been appointed to the command of H.M.C.S. Ypres.

Miss E. Thomas has returned home to Millar's Crossing after spending a few days in Victoria.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Dobinson have been entertaining friends from Victoria.

Mr. Joseph Gard was recently the guest of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jones, Nanaimo.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cathcart and Miss Hazel Cathcart have returned home after spending a brief visit to the capital.

Mr. Alfred Jones has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Nanaimo.

Mrs. J. Stewart was a recent visitor to Ladysmith.

Mr. and Mrs. Burnett and Marjorie Burnett, Mrs. H. and Mrs. H. Lydia Gilliland spent the week-end in Victoria.

Metochosin

Special to The Times

Metochosin, Oct. 29.—H. C. Helgeson and his son C. H. Helgeson have returned from a successful hunting trip in the Cariboo district. Mr. Helgeson expressed himself as being very much impressed with the apparent prosperity of the farming communities in the interior, particularly around the Ashcroft district, where he says the crops of tomatoes averaged fifteen tons per acre and potatoes ten tons per acre and where there is a canning factory employing ninety-six girls besides other male help. The country looks green and lively, apparently no depression in the farming industry. Mr. Helgeson speaks of what is known as the "Cherry Creek Farm," which has been recently purchased by the three brothers Heron from the Yakima Valley, State of Washington, who have transported 6,000 sheep to this district and who evidently intend to farm extensively.

Colwood

Special to The Times

Colwood, Oct. 29.—Halloween in the Colwood district is to be a children's night and a fancy dress party is to be held in the hall, arranged by the Misses Kelly and the Colwood Women's Institute, to which all the children of the district are invited to attend in costume and to bring their parents and friends. A general invitation is cordially issued to residents of the district to gather at the hall and help to give the children a good time and incidentally to have a good time themselves; there is only one condition stipulated, and that is that all appear in costume. Many attractive little items of entertainment have been planned, to be given by the children, and games and laughter will be the order of the evening.

Duncan

Special to The Times

Duncan, Oct. 29.—In spite of the inclement weather the auction sale arranged by the Cowichan Women's Institute, proceeds to go to the solarium fund, proved quite a success, about $62.50 being realized. C. Barrett kindly acted as auctioneer, and before putting up any articles for sale, made a spirited appeal on behalf of the crippled children. Bidding was brisk and some good prices realized for the articles donated. The handsome pair of bedroom slippers made by Mrs. J. A. Macdonald were raffled and brought in over $4. Mrs. J. Maitland-Douglass has worked hard for this object of raising funds for the solarium, and together with the president, Mrs. A. W. Johnson, the secretary and the directors, made the afternoon a success. The articles donated, including articles for sale were: Mesdames Bradley, F. G. Christmas, G. T. Corfield, W. E. Corfield, J. Dunkley, John W. Lionel Henslow, Hanson, Carr-Hilton, John H. King, W. Kier, Kayll, Leather, R. Macgregor, J. Maitland-Douglass, Macmillan, Neal, Morford, T. Pitt, S. Potts, Roy C. O'Neill, Thompson, Watson, Willett, Warwick, Lamont, Miss Parlett, Miss Crafter, Miss H. Thomson, J. Ellingham and others.

The children of St. Peter's Sunday School, Quamichan, donated $20 of the money to the solarium fund through the Cowichan Women's Institute at their sale on Tuesday, this would bring the total receipts to nearly $85.

Keating

Special to The Times

Keating, Oct. 29.—The directors of the Elk Lake Athletic Association held a meeting at the home of H. C. Oldfield, Office Road, Monday evening, instead of Tuesday, as previously announced. Business for the evening was mainly in connection with the annual club ball which it was decided to hold on November 10 in the Agricultural Hall, Saanichton. Several committees were appointed for the evening being Mr. Beale and Miss Kathleen Griffin. The decorations are in the hands of Messrs. Howard Robertson, W. Kersey, H. C. Oldfield and Beale, and every effort is being made by all the members to make the event a huge success in every way. The Lakeside Serenaders, five-piece orchestra will provide the music with all the latest hits. Another meeting will be held at a later date to make final arrangements.

Mrs. J. N. Wood, East Saanich Road, spent the week-end visiting friends at Duncan.

Great interest is being taken by the people of the district in the service which the young people of the United Church are taking charge of on Sunday morning, November 1, commencing at 11 o'clock, in the unavoidable absence of Rev. Mr. Jones. President B. C. Amery will have charge of the service, and Miss Christie MacNab and Stuart Stoddard will each give a brief address. G. Souerby and W. McClure will lead in prayer, and Miss Florence Hafer will give the scripture reading, while other members will have other duties and assist in the choir. It is hoped that all who possibly can will turn out on Sunday morning and give the young people their first encouragement in their first undertaking of this nature.

The South Saanich Women's Institute will hold their first afternoon social meeting in the rooms at the Temperance Hall on Thursday, November 1, at 2.30 o'clock. The illustrated trip around the world, which was commenced in the Spring, will be continued, and wool comforter making for the members will be commenced, and afternoon tea will be served by a committee. Members of the institute who are unable to attend the evening meeting will welcome this opportunity to meet the other members.

The young people of the United Church will meet in the church parlour on Monday evening, November 2, at 8 o'clock, for a social gathering. It being religious night, Mr. Bailey has been asked to give an address on "Religion."

Relation of the Liver and Kidneys

Such that each suffers when the other is deranged—Both regulated by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

When the liver becomes sluggish or torpid in action, the kidneys have to help out with the work of filtration. When the liver fails the kidneys have all the work to do. Hence the beginning of trouble is usually silicosis, indigestion and constipation and after a time the kidneys begin to be affected and there comes backache, urinary derangements and kidney disease.

The remarkable success of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills is due to their unique combined action on the liver, kidneys and bowels. They get at the cause of trouble and remove it no matter how complicated it may be. Promptly and thoroughly they cleanse the bowels or intestines, arouse the liver action and thereby relieve the overworked kidneys.

Western Milk Is Better

Western products need the co-operation of every Western citizen. For instance, Pacific Milk, purely a British Columbia product—is better quality than any other put up in Canada, but it can not be sold economically in the East, while Eastern brands reach us here.

Pacific Milk does have the patronage of most British Columbia users—and we thank our women for their co-operation.

A FINE VICTORY

IT IS OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED THAT all the Greek troops have now been withdrawn from Bulgarian territory and that the complete evacuation was actually carried out seven hours before the time limit stipulated by the Council of the League of Nations.

This is indeed a triumph for the League. It is considerably less than two weeks since the incident which caused the Greek invasion took place. The Council met in Paris on Monday and ordered the immediate cessation of all belligerent acts and the evacuation of occupied territory by to-day. All this has gone according to schedule.

It is quite probable now that there will be a demilitarized zone to separate Greece from Bulgarian territory. This would round off the League's victory to excellent purpose. It would be a practical step towards permanent peace in the Balkans.

Of supreme importance for the time being, however, is the fact that two of the most peopled nations in Europe have bowed to the authority of the League. Well may it be said that the Locarno gathering ushered in a new and more hopeful era for a war-torn Europe.

THE PACT AND THE EMPIRE

IF THE GENTLEMAN WHO ASKED them really expected that Mr. Mackenzie King and Mr. Arthur Meighen would pause in the middle of the last week of a whirlwind election campaign to say what they thought of the Locarno pact, and express an opinion as to what attitude this country should adopt towards it, he was an optimist indeed. This is obviously a matter for Parliament and Parliament will be certain to deal with it at the proper time. In the meantime it should be remembered that one of the clauses embodying Great Britain's approval of the agreement specifically stipulates that the British Dominions are in no way involved.

It is well that Mr. Austen Chamberlain made this point quite clear. At the same time we may hope that this country's approval will be given to any sound proposal framed to promote peace. In what manner that approval shall be signified is a matter for decision by Parliament. Most people will continue to hold the view that the Empire understands itself quite well enough to make unnecessary the negotiation of treaties or agreements of this kind as if the self-governing states of the British family were tied together by legal formula.

In this connection Lord Burnham's address in London last night will be read in the Dominions with some interest. He asks, for instance, what would be the status of the Dominions in the light of the provisions of the Locarno pact, if Great Britain were to become involved in war; and then proceeds to inquire if they would supply arms and ammunition to an enemy, if their harbors would be open to enemy ships; and, finally, if an enemy would respect Dominion neutrality. Even if these questions were settled, he concluded, he would not be satisfied that everything was well with the Empire.

Lord Burnham has just returned from a visit to the Antipodes and he came through Canada on his way. In view of this recent close contact with the peoples of these parts of the Empire it would seem that his remarks must have been intended to bring the question of the Dominions' status before the public of the Old Country. He certainly could not imagine that any Dominion would be hostile to Great Britain in a war in which she might be involved as a result of her subscription to the terms of the recently-completed agreements. That opinion would be ridiculous.

The Dominions always can be depended upon to rally together in defence of their common interests. No formal agreement between them is necessary to assure that condition. Such self-interest would dictate it. Those who are for ever harping on the necessity for a written constitution to hold the Empire together often lose sight of this fact.

THE BATTLE OVER

IN THE CLEARER POLITICAL ATMOSPHERE of polling day the people of this city who have attended the public meetings held by the respective candidates for parliamentary honors will agree that Victoria audiences have played fairly with Liberal and Conservative alike. Only in one or two instances were the interruptions anything but the good-natured banter which all politicians are quite used to and expect. Nothing approaching disorder has marred what has been a spirited and thoroughly interesting campaign. In fact Victoria has lived up to its reputation for British fair play. All that it has to do now is to wait for the returns and then pass its judgment on the merits of the prophets who have already counted the next House and given it its various political labels. Happily for the Canadian taxpayer, for it is the voter who is settling the question to-day, all the predictions will not come true. He would have about five hundred Federal members to pay if they did.

PEOPLES THE DOMINIONS

IT CAN NEVER BE SAID THAT THE British Commonwealth is lacking in suggested solutions for its population problem. Every visitor who comes to Canada from Britain has his pet theory as to how her surplus might be distributed more evenly among the Dominions. Quite a number have all the earmarks of practicability and would no doubt work well if they could be given a fair trial. Others are more or less visionary. When they are all laid out for public inspection, however, it will be found that in nine cases out of ten very large sums of money are required to launch them. And it seems impossible to deal with the question in an effective way without the expenditure of large sums of money. Certain it is that there are hundreds of thousands of people in the Old World who would gladly come to Canada and become first-class citizens if they could find the cash to pay fares and establish themselves within a reasonable period.

Conditions now are altogether different from what they were before the war. Continental European currency is still severely handicapped and it is only recently that the pound sterling has thrown off its discount with the dollar. Then it has to be borne in mind that ocean steamship charges are about three times as high as they were in 1913. So that if Great Britain should find it necessary to get rid of her surplus population at a quicker rate than the post-war normal exodus will do for her, it follows that an inducement will have to be held out to those who are already employed, but whose ambition would bring them to the newer countries of the Empire if they had the financial means. The spending of money by any government to translate the unemployed would be so much money wasted and a certain guarantee of trouble for all concerned. Canada wants the sort of citizen who will take only just enough assistance to give him a fair start. There should be plenty of these.

THEY MISSED A TREAT

JUST WHAT DID THE HARTFORD Conn. Luncheon Club imagine the Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson, M.P., was to be when it refused to listen to him the other day? It is true that he is a Socialist; but, as The Evening Standard points out, he is also a Methodist preacher of "impeccable orthodoxy, an ornament of non-conformist chapels in the North," while his respectability is as solid and as that of any churchwarden. In fact this journal very rightly contends that Mr. Henderson is one of the most sober and least revolutionary politicians in the whole of Great Britain.

Such communists as there are in the Old Country took upon "Uncle Arthur," as he is affectionately called in the lobbies of the House of Commons, as one of their bitter foes. Like Mr. Ramsay MacDonald—in whose Ministry he was Home Secretary—and Mr. J. H. Thomas, this exponent of a very mild form of Socialism has no patience with the so-called idealism of those gentlemen who are endeavoring to remake the world after the Moscow pattern. And in refusing to listen to Mr. Henderson the Hartford Luncheon Club missed a treat, for the former Home Secretary—who, by the way, began his working life in an engineering works—knows how to select phrases and present them to an audience in the most pleasing manner.

TRADE STILL GROWS

ELECTIONS COME AND ELECTIONS go; but the trade of Canada goes merrily on all the time. And the cheerful thing about it is its persistent increase in spite of what Mr. Meighen and his gloomy supporters have been saying about it for the last three months. Exports for the month of September showed an increase over the corresponding month of last year to the tune of $84,827,169 and a natural increase in imports amounted to $26,457,239. The total exports for the twelve months ended September 30, 1924, were $1,158,290,739, as against $1,073,463,570 for the corresponding period ended September 30, 1923. Total imports for the year ended September 30 last, were $852,623,241 as against $826,166,002 for the same period ended September 30, 1924. This is progress which will stand the test of any sort of argument.

GEORGE ABBOT
English prelate, was born on Oct. 29, 1562. He was archbishop of Canterbury for twenty-two years, and had considerable influence in state affairs during the reign of James I. He was one of the translators of the New Testament in the King James version.

THOMAS F. BAYARD
American statesman, was born on October 29, 1828. He was United States Senator from Delaware for sixteen years, and secretary of state during the first administration of President Cleveland. Four years later he was appointed ambassador to Great Britain, being the first to hold that diplomatic rank.

AMASA WALKER
American political economist, died on October 29, 1876. He lectured on political economy at Oberlin and at Amherst, and held various political offices in Massachusetts, also serving as congressman from that state. He wrote "The Science of Wealth."

JOSEPH PULITZER
American journalist, proprietor of the New York World for twenty-eight years, died on October 29, 1911. Born in Hungary, he came to the United States in the last year of the Civil War, and served in the Union Army. He endowed a school of journalism at Columbia University, which was opened the year after his death.

said, must vote on the issues before them. "The Liberal Party," he said, "is not a party of compromise. It is a party of principle. It is a party of the people. It is a party of the future. It is a party of the world. It is a party of the God." He said, however, that it might be in theory, was impossible of realization now. The Liberal policy, he declared, offered the best compromise between the extremes of the two parties. He made it clear that the issue between them is not free trade versus protection. It is the issue of the future of the country. He said, however, that it might be in theory, was impossible of realization now. The Liberal policy, he declared, offered the best compromise between the extremes of the two parties.

One of the great issues facing the country, said Dr. MacLean, was the national unity of Canada. How could this be achieved? he asked. A high tariff, he declared, could not unify the country with the Maritime Provinces suffering from trade restrictions already in force. Quebec voting solidly for a moderate tariff and the prairies strongly behind a low tariff.

OFFERS BEST COMPROMISE

"The Liberal Party offers the only compromise between the extremes of tariff under which we can all live harmoniously together," he asserted. Turning to Western Canada's tariff needs, Dr. MacLean pointed out that since 1891 not a single member had been elected to the Prairie provinces under the Conservative banner. Economically high tariffs would mean disaster to the prairies. The Western farmer, he pointed out, must sell his produce in the open, uncontrollable markets of the world. To do this successfully he must keep his cost of production as low as possible. For this reason he must have as low tariffs as possible. This desire on the part of the Canadian farmer had given rise to the great Progressive Party movement. The Progressives, he emphasized, were not the malcontents which the Conservative Party called them. "The Progressives are a fair-minded people," he said, "and you ever heard of taxes making a people prosperous?" he demanded, quoting the high price of a Ford car here as compared with the price in the United States as an example of the working of the tariff. Such a car, he said, cost $180 more here than in Seattle simply because of the tariff.

RAISES COST OF LIVING

"The thing you have got to remember is that the tariff increases the cost of living," said Dr. MacLean, amid vigorous applause. When someone asked the Doctor where he stood in the Oriental question, he retorted that he had not spent $5 with Orientals all his life.

"If everyone dealt with Orientals as I do probably there would be fewer of them here," he remarked.

Transportation costs are of vital concern to British Columbia, Dr. MacLean went on. With high, discriminatory freight rates prevailing in Western Canada British Columbia manufacturers were prevented from controlling many markets rightly belonging to them. British Columbia, in fact, was more interested in rates than any other part of Canada. "That is one of the chief reasons I am on this platform," he said. "I want to see British Columbia get its just rights. All freight rates are not equal. We seek no favors." Dr. MacLean dealt in detail with the freight rate question, stressing the fact that the Liberal Party desired to do nothing to injure the privately-owned Canadian Pacific Railway. He asserted that Conservatives in British Columbia had not fought for Western rate justice in the past and were not working for it in the election campaign now.

Discussing the election prospects, Dr. MacLean covered the entire Dominion in rapid survey, showing that the Conservative Party faced an impossible task in attempting to increase its present membership of 49 to 123, a bare majority over all. "Where is the Conservative Party going to get a majority?" he demanded. "Nowhere, but in its imagination." Dr. MacLean urged Victorians to get behind Mr. Ivel and the policy of Western development which he represented.

NOT PERSONAL ISSUE

Mr. Farris warned the electors that the issues facing the country were more important than personalities. Both candidates running in Victoria, he said, were worthy men. They must be judged, however, on the merits of their policies, and the policies of their parties.

The Liberal Party offered to the electors, first of all, victory, said Mr. Farris. No one doubted, he said, that the Government would be returned. No money was available, he said, for bets that the Government would be defeated.

Mr. Farris closely analyzed Dr. Tolmie's recent prediction that the Conservative Party would have a majority of eleven after starting with British Columbia, he ridiculed Dr. Tolmie's forecast that the Province would return ten Conservatives. With British Columbia routed over the freight rate issue the Opposition could not hope to increase its present strength here, he said. Even allowing that Dr. Tolmie was only one seat out in his B.C. calculations, one seat out in his extra-provincial claims, one seat out in his claim of seventy members in Ontario, one out in the forecast of fifteen in Quebec and one out in his prophecy of twenty in the Maritimes—even then, said Mr. Farris, Dr. Tolmie's majority of eleven would be gone. As a matter of fact, he said, the Conservative Party was a couple of any-where from Dr. Tolmie's figures.

NEED CLEAR MAJORITY

Even should the Government fall to secure a majority over all, Mr. Farris remarked, it could carry on with the aid of the Progressives while the Conservative Party waited for a Government, must have a clear majority. The Progressives, he remarked, were a western force, sympathetic to the Liberal Party's western programme.

In Vancouver, Mr. Farris said, the Liberal Party would win a tremendous victory because the city believed that the Liberal Party offered it most at this time. He suggested that Victorians, too, should send a Liberal to Parliament to see that this city got its fair share in the development of the West under western Liberal policies.

The Conservative Party, Mr. Farris pointed out, claimed credit for starting the freight rate fight. "Well, where did they get it?" he demanded. The Conservatives, he said, had secured nothing through their early attempts to bring about rate reductions. It was only when the Liberal Party had taken hold of the situation that results had followed, he said.

Mr. Farris warned the electors that the rate fight was still on. Eastern interests, he pointed out, had appealed to the Railway Commission against its recent rate reductions. A decision on this appeal was still pending, he explained. Should the West lose out in this appeal then it must take the case to the Cabinet. From what Government, he asked, could the West expect such a result? The answer, he said, was the supreme issue before the electors and it submerged all questions of personalities.

The answer, he said, was the supreme issue before the electors and it submerged all questions of personalities.

Premier King said Mr. Farris, had already declared and before a maritime audience—that the Railway Board's action on freight rates had been just and fair. On the other hand, Mr. Meighen had left the impression in his famous Halifax speech that he was opposed to the board's rate reductions. Mr. Meighen, he pointed out, had never come out and declared that these equalization orders were just.

In fighting for rate justice, Mr. Farris pointed out, British Columbia had found itself faced with opposition from Mr. Meighen's Eastern friends—the Conservative Governments of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

"Who should we leave our case to—a Government headed by a man who says he is our friend or a Government many of whose leaders are frankly against us?" he demanded. Mr. Farris warmly defended the Liberal tariff policy. The Liberal policy, he said, "was reasonable protection with reasonable consideration for the consumer." The Conservative Party's tariff policy, on the other hand, he said, proposed reasonable protection for the manufacturer and no consideration for the great mass of consumers.

The speaker ridiculed the Conservative assertion that a high tariff would make Canada as prosperous as the high tariff in the United States. As a matter of fact, the United States was in itself the greatest free trade area in the world, because it was self-sustaining. The United States prospered despite high tariffs, not because of them, he said. Tracing the economic history of Canada, Mr. Farris asserted that the Macdonald national protective policy had been ruinous to Canada, creating an exodus to the United States greater than any that had occurred since. It had been when the Laurier Government had reduced the tariff, he said, that Canada had begun to prosper. He quoted striking figures to show how Canada's trade showed enormous and immediate growth after the inauguration of the Laurier tariff policy.

Mr. Farris also produced statistics to show that conditions in Canada had become bad again under Conservative policies. He recalled the business situation prevailing here in 1921, the last year of the Meighen regime. Unemployment had been so serious then, he said, that the Federal Government had sought desperately for a solution of the problem. He produced a letter which he had received as B.C. Minister of Labor from the Vancouver Economic Conference, proposing a scheme for handling unemployment. This letter stated that 8,000 men would be unemployed during the winter of 1921-1922, and that $850,000 would be needed to keep the jobless from complete destitution.

Mr. Farris defended the British reference which the Conservative Party proposed to abolish. The Liberal Party, he said, refused to bargain with the Old Country when it was facing its present difficult situation. NEWS IN BRIEF

The Thoburn garage on Esquimalt Road was yesterday completely destroyed by fire and three automobiles were demolished along with the building, shortly after 4 o'clock. The fire originated in the paint shop.

In the City Police Court this morning before Acting Magistrate James Forman, a delinquent motorist paid a fine of $5 for parking his car outside the Capitol Theatre on October 24.

The British Columbia Telephone Company to-day subscribed $100 towards the city's prairie advertising campaign, congratulating Mayor Penderay on the prospects for success of most unusual venture in advertising and civic salesmanship.

To denote the Charleston at the Press Club fancy dress ball Friday night at the Empress Hotel it is necessary to get tickets to-day or tomorrow at the offices of both newspapers. Reserved tickets cannot be held after to-morrow.

The annual meeting of the Victoria and district Boy Scouts Association will be held in the Empress Hotel at 8 o'clock on Wednesday, November 4. His Honor, Lieutenant-Governor, Walter C. Nichol, will attend the meeting while other prominent business men will deliver addresses.

To enable householders and license-holders to register for the civic franchise, City Clerk Bradley's office at the City Hall will be open this evening from 7 to 9 o'clock. Clerk Bradley's office will be open for the last evening to-morrow, registrations concluding on Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Daylight saving will become an election last night municipal election on December 1. Alderman Woodward intimated this morning, when discussing the need for greater interest in securing the ballot among householders and license-holders. Registrations have been unusually low in numbers this year, Alderman Woodward announced after perusing the lists.

Mayor Carl Penderay this morning received from Vice-Admiral Saburo Hyakutake of the Japanese navy, a handsome souvenir log of the Pacific tour of the Japanese Naval Training Squadron, which visited Victoria last summer. Bound in silk, the volume has several hundred pages of views of Japan and other lands, with portraits of Administrator Chief Justice Macdonald, Premier Oliver and Mayor Carl Penderay.

An illustrated lecture on "Tours by Sunday School Caravan in the Caribbean and in Brandon Diocese" will be given by Miss Eva Haasli to-morrow night at 8 o'clock in the Church of the Sacred Heart Memorial Hall. Miss Haasli is an experienced church worker from the Old Country who has visited Canada for a number of Summers to engage in visiting and lecturing in the prairie provinces by motor car. Admission to the meeting will be free. A collection will be taken towards caravan work and expenses.

Good Prizes For Stamp Exhibition

Many Valuable and Attractive Awards Donated by Those Interested

The list of prizes donated for the exhibition of the B.C. Philatelic Society to be held in Vancouver, and open to Victorians, is announced as follows:

Col. Keen, Vancouver, silver medal; G. P. Bainbridge, Vancouver, silver medal; R. M. Angus, Victoria, silver medal; Saskatchewan Stamp Company, Saskatoon, silver and bronze medals; P. M. Wolfstetter, New York, silver medal.

These medals are all of uniform design, prepared locally by Messrs. Birks & Son. The idea is taken from the old 3rd Blue of British Columbia, the most striking stamp used in the United provinces of B.C. and Vancouver Island. The dominant feature is a crown over "V" in a circle, bearing the motto of the society, the whole being surmounted by a beaver. It is really a strikingly pretty little medal.

A. E. Reeve, Vancouver, a number of prizes for juniors; P. H. Vallancey, London, Eng., autographed copy of "The Stamp of Great Britain" and six sets to "Stamp Collecting"; Stamps, New York, forty lots of stamps, cat. $150, including seven British Columbia, cat. $45; Varian Morgan, Inc. New York, four albums; Marks Stamp Company, Toronto, five prizes for juniors; "House of Merit" Merritt, B.C., one stamp album; British Columbia Electric Railway, Vancouver, Electric appliance, value $10.

FOUR WERE FREED OF CHARGES OF ASSAULT

Vancouver, Oct. 28.—Following a fight September 14 at Butte Inlet between John McPhee, trapper and guide, and Alex Paul, Chuchouse by Constable Sutton from the Indian, the two men and Tommy Paul and Dave Paul were arrested by Provincial Police Constable A. C. Sutton and taken to Powell River for trial on common assault charges.

After hearing the evidence, the magistrate dismissed the case on the ground that all were equally to blame. It developed that McPhee's habit of drinking had been long, and when, in his canoe, he met the three Pauls in his boat, he got into an altercation with them. Alex Paul grappled with the white man and threw overboard the latter's rifle and revolver, and finally McPhee himself.

Fishery taxes of $100 were collected by Constable Sutton from the Indians, who are alleged to have defied the fishery guard.

McPhee pleaded guilty to supplying the white man and Indian and was fined $50 and costs.

Vancouver, Oct. 29.—One of the oldest persons who voted to-day here was Mrs. T. R. MacInnes, widow of the late Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia and mother of W. W. R. MacInnes, former court judge, and Tom MacInnes, author and poet.

Mrs. MacInnes, who is ninety-six years old, voted in Burrard. Inland account of the birthday of Tom MacInnes, who recently returned to Vancouver from China.

TORIES END FIGHT CLAIMING VICTORY ALL OVER PROVINCE

Tolmie Cannot See Liberal Success in Any Constituency in British Columbia

That every Federal electoral seat in British Columbia is likely to vote Conservative in to-day's poll, was the generous estimate of the election result provided for Conservatives of Victoria by Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Conservative organizer, last night. At the final Conservative rally in the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium Dr. Tolmie covered the entire Province in rapid survey and try as he might could find no place where the Liberal Party could be sure of electing one of its candidates.

In some places he described the situation as "sure" for the Conservative Party and in others, not quite so "sure," he said. The Opposition chances were less than "good." After predicting his own re-election and the return of C. H. Dickie, Conservative, in Nanaimo, he added the surprising announcement that the Conservative prospect of victory in Comox-Alberni was "excellent."

Dr. Tolmie concluded his campaign with a vigorous attack on the Liberal Government and its works. Major-Gus Lyons, a Conservative member of the House of Commons, who would increase his old majorities in today's poll.

Lindley Crease, M.P., who presided, urged the electors to support the Conservative policy because it would build up Canada and Canadians from going to the United States.

H. D. Twigg, M.P.P., warned the electors of the sinister penetration of the United States into Canada and its growing control of Canadian industries. This movement was going on under Liberal rule and would be ended under a strong Conservative policy, he said.

R. H. Pooley, Conservative House leader in British Columbia, wound up his fight for Mr. Dickie with a meeting in the Sailors' Club, Esquimalt, last night. He predicted Mr. Dickie's election by a large majority.

NEW PERIODICAL TO BE PUBLISHED SOON

"Canadian Homes and Gardens" is Sponsored by Leading Publishing Firm

The advent of a periodical entitled, "Canadian Homes and Gardens" is noteworthy as marking another step in the endeavor of Canadian publishers to emphasize wholly Canadian literature, customs and features, and to combat the influx of alien publications. The MacLean Publishing Company is sponsoring this new magazine, which is to be for Canada what publications of this sort across the border do for the United States. Typographically, the magazine is a masterpiece of planning, and its superficial appearance is at least equal to its United States rivals. Above all, it is a pleasure to note how intrinsically Canadian are its contents.

In the October issue there are articles with such suggestive titles as "Chairs That Lived Through History," by Anne Fitzhugh, dealing with the influence of Old France and the first handicrafts of Canada on the colonial chair. "The Nelles Home at Niagara-on-the-Lake" is a gorgeous photographic portfolio of exterior and interior views of one of the most beautiful homes on the Niagara Peninsula.

"Reflecting The Glories of America" by Mona E. Clark is the account and pictorial presentation of a remarkable group of historic furniture now on view in Toronto. So through nearly a score of fascinating contributions including valuable gardening articles by such experts as Mrs. Dunington-Grubb and W. E. Groves, and a very permanent feature, "The Gardener's Guide," conducted by Henry J. Moore, the well-known Canadian horticulturist, formerly assistant horticulturist at Kew Gardens, England.

Even if these questions were settled, Lord Burnham declares, he would not be satisfied everything was well with the Empire in connection with the Locarno pact.

Paris, Oct. 29.—A neutral demilitarization zone between Greece and Bulgaria, with commissions of reconciliation for the regulation of all local conflicts in the Balkans, may be one of the fruits of the settlement of the Balkans, crisis by the Council of the League of Nations.

Giving a spur to the Balkan States' ambition to elaborate the security pact, the council probably will undertake to establish principles to guard the Balkan statesmen in handling any future difficulties, and will exert all its influence to have the League security agreement with Germany supplemented not only by a Balkan arrangement, but also by security pacts between other sections of Europe.

The will it hasten convocation of a disarmament conference which the Locarno protocol hailed as one of the hoped-for results of the achievement of security.

Vancouver, Oct. 29.—Facing a four-year penitentiary sentence imposed recently at Prince Rupert, Joseph Albert Martin, who escaped on Saturday night from the lockup room of the steamer, Prince Rupert at Powell River, has been recaptured there, according to a report received by provincial police here. It is expected Martin will be brought to Vancouver on the next ship.

PRISONER RETAKEN

J. A. Martin, who escaped from his guards while under a sentence of four years imprisonment for theft and on his way to jail, was recaptured by officers of the Provincial Police to-day, according to word reaching the headquarters of that force this morning. Martin escaped from the steamer, Prince Rupert while the vessel was on her way south from Prince Rupert with the man and his escort, bound for Oakalla. No details of the recapture of the man are given.

BIG RUSH FOR TICKETS FOR PRESS BALL

With the election excitement fading into history, interest to-day has been growing in the Press Club's Halloween ball which is to be staged, with all the trimmings associated with the mystic eve at the Empress Hotel to-morrow evening. All day long the telephones at the Times office have been kept ringing inquiring about the ball—as to where tickets may be obtained—whether fancy dress was optional and so on. Would-be patrons, to avoid disappointment, should secure their tickets without delay for to-morrow's ball is going to be such a huge success that those who miss it will live to rue their neglect of an opportunity of attending the merriest affair of the year.

POPPY DAY TO BE HELD NEXT WEEK

Arrangements for Armistice Event on November 7 Completed

Final arrangements for Poppy Day, which will be held Saturday, November 7, have been completed. At a recent meeting of the ladies representing the ex-servicemen's organizations in the Canadian Legion clubrooms, Mrs. H. P. Thorpe and Mrs. H. Crocker were appointed joint conveners.

The Armistice Period Committee has been granted the use of a store at 1227 Government Street, through the kindness of the B.C. Land and Investment Company Limited. The store will open every afternoon, beginning next Monday, from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Large and small poppies are on hand and orders are being taken from city merchants for large poppies to place in their windows. A complete canvass of the storekeepers is being made and the committee hopes that every store will purchase at least a few poppies for decoration purposes.

Orders for poppies have already been received from Lieutenant-Governor Walter C. Nichol, the Provincial Government, C.P.B., and prominent places of business in the city. By next Tuesday poppies will have been delivered to more than thirty schools in Victoria and district.

At the last meeting of the Armistice Period Committee the sum of $100 was voted to the Mayor's fund for the relief of the dependents of those drowned on the tug Hope.

BURNHAM DISCUSSES POSSIBILITIES OF WAR

Asks Where Dominions Would Stand if Britain Entered Locarno Fight

London, Oct. 29 (Canadian Press Cable)—Viscount Burnham, of The London Daily Telegraph and president of the Imperial Press Conference, addressing a gathering here last night, touched on the question of the Locarno security pact on the Dominions.

Lord Burnham said nobody had yet made clear what would be the international status of the Dominions if Great Britain were involved in war. Would the Dominions be asked, supply arms and ammunition to an enemy, and would their harbors be open to enemy ships? On the other hand, would the enemy respect their neutrality?

Even if these questions were settled, Lord Burnham declared, he would not be satisfied everything was well with the Empire in connection with the Locarno pact.

Seed Growing Efforts of Boys and Girls Rewarded

The Rotary Club children's seed growing and citizenship contest for the present year came to a conclusion at to-day's weekly luncheon at the Empress Hotel, when Mrs. R. P. Butchart presented an array of cups and prizes to twenty-six boys and girls.

Mrs. Butchart was greeted with cheers when she arose to distribute the prizes, and her invitation to the young seed growers to make use of the experience gained at the famous Butchart Gardens was also heartily applauded.

The prize winners were: Senior class—L. Ronald M. Grant, name engraved on Rotary Cup, gold medal given by Mayor Penderay and $20 in gold; 2. Robert H. Currie, silver medal, presented by President R. W. Mayhew, and $10 in gold; 3. Gladys Miles, silver medal given by President Howard Miller of the Kiwanis Club, and $5 in gold.

Junior class—R. G. Hills, Butchart Cup, silver medal given by G. McGregor and $10 in gold; 2. W. C. Gibson, bronze medal given by J. D. Gibson and $5 in gold.

Supplementary winners: Ralph and Sidney Barnes, Alec and Gavin Hallett, Langlois Hope, Large, Charles McLeod, Esmond Nixon and Percy Smith.

Federation of Veterans Arrange First Social Function For Friday

The Federation of Veterans in Canada will make their first social venture on Friday evening, October 30, when they will hold a cabaret dance and bridge party at the Alexandra ballroom. The Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. W. C. Nichol are extending their patronage to the affair.

Heaton's orchestra has been engaged and the cabaret numbers will include musical items by Masters Desmond and Brian Hargrove-Murphy, Miss Marjorie Watson, George Tate and Ronald Heard, of the Columbia School of Music.

The Federation is working in the interests of returned men. At Friday's event is for the purpose of raising funds to continue this work, they hope for a generous support from the general public.

"SPEED WILD" IS NEW PICTURE AT COLUMBIA TO-DAY

"Speed Wild," the latest production featuring Lefty Flynn, is a departure from the previous Westerns in which the former Yale star has appeared. Harry Garson, who produced and directed "Speed Wild," has reason to be proud of his offering, for it supplies Lefty with his best role, rapid-fire comedy-melodrama, filled with thrills, and a lovable, boyish, devil-may-care character for the star, ensuring a sure eking entertainment to the patrons of the Columbia Theatre, when the picture begins a three days' run. Raymond Turner again appears in a colored character, and comes through with his usual quota of laugh. H. H. Van Loan wrote the story. Richard Hendrick, the popular little screen favorite, is to be seen in the John M. Stahl production, "The Wanters," the first National attraction showing at the Playhouse this week. He enacts the role of Sonny, a precocious youngster who rattles the family skeletons at inopportune moments in this drama of society, in which the marriage of the pretty heroine, a serving maid, to the young man of the household is the pivot around which the plot revolves. CHARLIE CHAPLIN LONE PROSPECTOR IN ICY WASTES

To eat one's own shoe—boiled—is something. But to eat that same shoe—artistically—is an achievement. This is done by Charlie Chaplin in his famous comedy, "The Gold Rush," at the Dominion Theatre for an extended engagement. Is what is claimed to be a delightful delineation of great artistry, the public sees Charlie Chaplin as the Lone Prospector and Mack Swain as Big Jim McKay in a lonely cabin; stormbound in the barren wastes of Alaska. They have been starving for days. In desperation, Charlie has moved one of his big, worn-out, dilapidated shoes, boiling it with tender care, he serves it to a Rita Chief. The two eat this shoe. And in doing so, they make the spectator really believe they are enjoying their repast. This is an achievement in art. For

"Fruit-a-lives" brought early relief

"I first heard of 'Fruit-a-lives' through a friend of mine living in St. Johnsbury, and as I was troubled with very high blood pressure and constipation, I decided to try the fruit treatment. The result is that I am feeling very much better, and I am glad to recommend 'Fruit-a-lives' to anyone." Mrs. C. W. Thompson, Lyndonville, Vermont.

All your physical and mental energy is drawn from your blood stream. If the bowels and kidneys do not function properly, poison enters the blood stream, and the heart, brain and nerves are all affected. "Fruit-a-lives" clear the system—of all waste matter, purify the blood and tone up the whole system. They are made from the intensified juices of luscious healthy fruits combined with vitamins. Sold everywhere 25c and 50c.

the fact, that the very thought of eating a shoe is offensive to good taste, but the shading of this subject—which could so easily be made repulsive—is so deftly portrayed, that while convulsed with laughter, the spectator will always remember the scene as one of the delicious high lights of "The Gold Rush."

NOT COLISEUM STAR WHO WAS INJURED IN FORT STREET SMASH

The Will Marshall injured in the automobile accident this week was not the member of the Coliseum Company, the management again announce as a result of many inquiries received. The impression that it was the Coliseum player was strengthened by Marshall's absence from the boards this week, but he is only taking a two weeks' rest after a strenuous spell. George Olsen and George Brydson, with the four ladies of the company, carry the load of a bright musical, fantasy this week which has been thoroughly enjoyed. George Brydson's excellent robust voice is heard to great advantage. George Olsen with Ruth Hamilton stars in several great comedy scenes.

Artistic screen results may be obtained without titles as "The Last Laugh," the celebrated U.F.A. production which Universal is releasing and which is now playing at the Coliseum Theatre, demonstrates. There are actually only two titles in this dramatic novelty from the pen of Carl Mayer, remembered for his "Cabinet of Dr. Caligari." F. W. Murnau directed "Emil Jannings," who created such a sensation by his work in "Passion," "The Loves of Pharaoh," and "Peter the Great," has the leading role.

CONAN DOYLE'S GREAT NOVEL IS TO BE SCREENED HERE

The bringing to life of prehistoric dinosaurs marks another milestone in motion picture history. Years ago Watterston R. Rothman bought the screen rights to Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's novel, "The Lost World," and over seven years ago work on the photoplay version was started. "The Lost World" movie jointly by Rothman and by First National, reached the screen under the supervision of Earl Hudson, who

Quick Relief for Rheumatics

After the election dance with the Victoria Press Club at the Hal-lowe-en Ball, Empress Hotel, Friday, October 30. Tickets $2.00, at offices of Times and Colonist.

Twisted, swollen, unsteady joints are quickly freed from pain and brought back to normal with Rheuma. Lame people walk without aid; sleep comes to those who have been unable to lie in bed; hands that were helpless because of terrible rheumatism are now able to do their share for the support of the family. It is a wonder-worker; it never fails, never gives up until every vestige of poison is expelled from the body. Rheuma acts quickly and brings long prayed for comfort to distressed sufferers. Vancouver Drug Co. and all druggists sell it with guarantee of money-back if it isn't satisfactory. —(Adv.)

adapted it from the original Conan Doyle story. The human section of the cast appearing in the picture comprises Bessie Love, Lewis Stone, Lloyd Hughes, Wallace Beery, Arthur Hoyt, Margaret McWade, Finch Smiles and Bul Montana. The thrilling photodrama will be shown at the Capitol Theatre, beginning Monday.

THE ORIGINALS ARE COMING IN LATEST REVUE "THUMBS UP"

Reports from the East where the Originals are now playing are to the effect that this clever organization of Canadian favorites has without a doubt the fastest and most furiously funny entertainment that has ever toured Canada. Many of the very latest English as well as American song hits are included in the lengthy programme. There are skits a plenty and the star comedian, Bob Anderson, has ample opportunity of displaying his natural gifts of wit and humor and he makes the most of his opportunities. Gene Pearson is singing better than ever and in "Love's Old Sweet Song" and in "Love Has Come Into My Heart" which is a new number. Gene's marvellously clear and bell-like soprano is given full scope to show all its power and beauty. Old Doc Jimmie Goode is back again with an entirely new assortment of black face jokes and patter and he "sure can put 'em over." Then there is the old favorite Bertram Langley, W.B. Allen Murray, the dance wizard, Tom Dunn, the boy with the golden baritone, Jerry Bradford, Lionel Broadway, Percy Campbell, Leonard Young and Stuart Callaghan. The Originals' new revue comes to the Royal Victoria Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 5, 6 and 7, with special Saturday matinee.

GARDEN SPECIALLY BUILT FOR FILM DRAMA "GRAUSTARK"

A case of moving the mountain to Mahomet was necessitated by failure of studio scouts to find a suitable formal garden for one of the scenes in Norma Talmadge's latest drama, "Graustark," from George Barr McCutcheon's novel of love and intrigue in a make believe kingdom. Movie plenipotentiaries searched all over Southern California, but returned with the news that they were unable to find the particular kind-of-beauty-spot required for the palace garden. One of the difficulties encountered was the fact that even the beautiful gardens that might have answered the purpose did not have the proper alignment demanded to insure the best photographic results. So Director Dimitri Buchowetzki ordered a magnificent garden constructed on one of the huge studio stages. The Russian artist had his own ideas on Graustarkian palace gardens. Formerly a frequent visitor to that part of Europe where the mythical monarchy was created by McCutcheon, Buchowetzki insisted upon a new type of landscaped garden. The made-to-order garden finally was ready and the scenes successfully "shot." Eugene O'Brien has the role of the romantic American adventurer whose love for the princess almost upsets his kingdom. Miss Talmadge and O'Brien are at their best in the tender love scenes. Others in the supporting cast are Marc McDermott, Roy D'Arcy, Albert Gran, Lillian Lawrence, Michael Vavitch, Frank Currier, Winter Hall and Wanda Hawley. The picture, produced by Joseph M. Schneck, is First National's current offering at the Capitol Theatre.

EMPIRE SOLUTION TO MANY PROBLEMS

Says Sir Henry Cowan, M.P.; Lady Cowan to Speak Here

Vancouver, Oct. 29.—That the solution of the Empire's greatest problems at the present time lies in a vigorous policy of inter-Empire migration is the opinion of Sir Henry Cowan, M.P., for North Islington, who, with Lady Cowan and their daughter, is a visitor here.

The travelers, who arrived here yesterday, will leave to-night for Victoria, where Lady Cowan will on Monday address the Women's Canadian Club.

Sir Henry attended the recent conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union of the World, which met early this month in Washington and Ottawa.

"After traveling across Canada for the first time in twenty-five years, I have been greatly impressed with the obvious impossibility of developing the country and its enormous resources within any reasonable period unless a much more vigorous immigration policy is undertaken," he said.

"The great weakness of the British Empire to-day lies in the concentration of the overwhelming proportion of its white population within the small area of the British Isles while the vast reaches of the great Dominions remain so sparsely populated. In view of the fact that Great Britain is expending such enormous sums on the maintenance of the out-of-works it seems to me that it would be good business to borrow even £100,000,000 sterling to be used to transfer to Canada and Australia large numbers of British people who are willing and able to work and for whom work can not be found in their own country.

"In fact it would pay us to deliver free to any one of the Dominions that working population which the Dominions so urgently require."

LEUT.-GOVERNOR TO ATTEND BENEFIT

Interest Growing in Sunday's Concert For Longshoremen's Dependents

The Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Walter C. Nichol will be among the patrons attending the benefit concert at the Coliseum Theatre to be held on Sunday evening at 8.30 o'clock. The concert is being arranged by the Navy League of Canada in aid of the widows and dependents of the longshoremen who perished in the tug Hope disaster. Benefit of their breadwinners in the tragedy, the need of these widows and little children is very great and the promoters hope for generous support on behalf of the public.

The Mayor and City Council and the Reeve and Council of Saanich have signified their intention of being present, and the Transport Workers Association, and the Longshoremen's Association, to which organization the victims belonged, will attend in a body.

"Bob" Webb is in charge of the programme and he has secured the assistance of such well-known artists as Mrs. Jesse Longfield, Miss Ada Wise, Messrs H. J. Davis, T. Kelway, E. Butterworth and Mrs. C. C. Ward. A Coliseum orchestra, specially augmented for the occasion, and the Boys' Naval Brigade Band will also contribute selections.

Fletcher Bros. are lending a Steinway piano free of charge for the concert. This readiness to co-operate on the part of all concerned has made the task of arranging the concert easy and has prevented the incurring of any expense, thus ensuring that every cent of the proceeds of the affair will go intact to the beneficiaries.

Native Daughters Busy.—An enthusiastic meeting of the Native Daughters of British Columbia was held last evening in the Victoria Club. Plans were made for the Winter's work and for the reception of the Grand Ch. Factor, who will make her annual visit to the post in November, and will be accompanied by the Grand Secretary and members of the Grand Chapter. The post will hold a rummage sale in November, the details of which will be announced later, and also a court whist drive. The latter is to be held in the Victoria club rooms on Saturday evening, November 21, and is under the capable convener'ship of Mrs. C. B. McDonnell and Miss K. Wilson.

Complimentary to Mrs. E. Mac Moody of Vancouver and Mrs. Wells of Portland, Oregon, a delightful bridge party was given yesterday by Mrs. S. G. Fiedle, McKenzie Avenue. Four tables were in play. Mrs. M. F. Cutler and Mrs. C. F. Bailey assisted the hostess at the tea-hour.

Hallowe'en decorations and the "stunts" associated with this mystic occasion will be featured at the bridge and dining party given by the Camosun Chapter, I.O.D.E., will hold at the home of Miss Agnew, Rockland Avenue, on Saturday evening. There is accommodation for a large number of tables for bridge, mah-jongg and 500, and reservations should be made without delay to Miss Agnew, telephone No. 308.

L'Alliance Francaise met yesterday afternoon at Laurel Lane with the vice-president, Madame Hallet, in the chair. An unusually large attendance and many new members made the discussion of the afternoon's topic, "The Modern Young Girl as Compared with Her Grandmother," the more animated and amusing. The meeting closed with the singing of the Marseillaise. Members are reminded that the ensuing meeting will be held on the second and fourth Wednesday of every month.

The Saanich police department were last night hosts at their annual ball in the Agricultural Hall, Saanichton. Nearly three hundred persons attended and danced throughout the evening to the strains of George Osard's orchestra. The hall was decorated artistically with flags and bunting, evergreens and flowers. Supper was served by the Women's Institute during the course of the evening. The committee in charge, to whom credit is due for the outstanding success of the function, was as follows: Chief Thomas Hastings, Constables Rankin, Cansey and Brown, and Secretary C. Bell.

Miss Kathleen Hall entertained at a bridge tea at her home, "Inishowen," The Uplands, yesterday afternoon. There were five tables in progress, the players including Mrs. J. O. Wilson, Mrs. T. S. Gore, Mrs. A. N. Mount, Mrs. E. H. King, Mrs. D. H. Kerr, Mrs. W. Gibson, Mrs. E. H. Wilson, Miss Galtley, Mrs. W. L. Morkill, Mrs. Alex. Fraser, Miss Tate, Mrs. Barr, Mrs. Cowan, Miss Haggen, Mrs. M. G. Moore, Mrs. Alec Scott, Miss Schwartz, Mrs. C. McIntosh, Mrs. Stuart Robertson and Mrs. J. A. Turner. Mrs. Hanington and Miss Hall presided at the daintily decorated tea table, when a few additional guests joined the players for tea.

On Tuesday evening, Mr. George (Jinny) Ford was entertained at a stag party arranged in his honor at the Civil Service Club rooms, Menzies Street, where a very enjoyable evening was spent in cards and singing. Mr. Ford, whose marriage is to take place shortly, was presented with numerous useful gifts, and in a happy response thanked his colleagues. Among those present were C. Biddell, T. Mayne, J. Underwood, C. Hopper, C. Ferris, W. Currie, A. Thompson, Bill Holman, J. Kerr, F. Pugh, L. W. Aitken, J. Jackson, Len Ball, A. Paton, J. Owens, Bill Passmore, F. Morris, Mat McCabe, J. Miller, G. Ford, A. Kerr, G. Ingledew, Sid Smith, J. G. Edwards, W. Gropp, H. McNeil, T. Woolson and J. Aldrich.

Members and friends of the First Congregational choir were entertained at the home of Mrs. and Miss Kelley, 2624 Cedar Hill Road, Saturday evening, the gathering being in the nature of a surprise party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic King upon the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary. When they were presented with a very handsome silver cake basket suitably engraved, Miss Nellie Howell made the presentation on behalf of the choir. Mr. King, in replying to Miss Howell's expressions of the choir's appreciation, gave a resume of the work done under his leadership, emphasizing the splendid spirit which had always existed and characterized their efforts throughout the nine years of their association in this department of the church work. The evening was spent in music and games, refreshment being served later which brought the gathering to a close at the midnight hour.

Yesterday afternoon at St. Ann's Academy a very pleasing Hallowe'en entertainment was arranged by eleven of the pupils of Miss M. Murray's class as a surprise party for the remainder of the sixth and seventh grades. The auditorium was well filled with an enthusiastic audience of children and many of the parents of the young performers were present.

Piano solos were played by Maureen Grute, Eleanor Peden, Wanda Spencer, Nellie Wells, Helen Peden and Helen Beck, who also sang "Sweetly," "The Story of the Fairies," "The Fairy Festival" by Josephine Quinlan, and "A Ghost Story" by Wanda Spencer were two clever recitations. A "Butterfly Dance" and a "Ballad" by Maureen Grute in dainty costumes were received with great applause, and three well presented dialogues, "How the Quarrel Began," by Eleanor Peden and Helen Beck, "The Suspicion," by Helen Beck, Nellie Wells, Josephine Quinlan, Jean Fletcher, Barbara Pollard and Helen Peters; "Helen's Practical Joke," by Agnes Nesbitt; Maureen Grute and Helen Beck, were very much appreciated. Helen Peden acted as accompanist, and the announcements were made by Mary Alexis.

A Hallowe'en chorus and the singing of "God Save the King" brought the entertainment to a close and the children, with their guests, repaired to the gaily decorated gymnasium, where jolly games and a delicious tea were enjoyed.

TO-MORROW'S HOROSCOPE

By Genevieve Kemble
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 30

Although the sidereal operations for this day encourage new projects and incite to change and important journeys, yet there is also an urgency which may be read as hazardous to all financial interests. Speculation might be disastrous and lending money be attended by risk. Also there is a possible menace of trouble through quarrels, impetuosity or litigation. However, these portentious aspects do not apply to domestic and social matters, but there is a strong admonition toward discreet conduct in the latter.

Those whose birthday it is are under the promise of an active and enterprising year, but they are enjoined to safeguard their money, which should not be risked either in loans or in speculative ventures. Also disputes and rash acts should be shunned and, particularly, conspicuous conduct is enjoined in the social relations. A child born on this day may be inclined to be rash, hasty and headstrong. It may meet reverses in business through speculation.

Rummage Sale.—A fine assortment, comprising all kinds of goods to be found at a rummage sale, will be on hand at the school room of the First Presbyterian United Church on Friday morning, at 10 o'clock. Most of the ladies of that large congregation are contributing, and many of them will be on hand as sales ladies. The whole is under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the church, with Mrs. G. E. Wilkinson, telephone 3593X, as general convenor.

ONTARIO WOMAN CLAIMS FOR LIBEL

Painter's Wife Sues London Farmers For $20,000 Damages

London, Ont., Oct. 29.—Claiming $20,000 damages for alleged libel and slander, the case of Pearl Gilbert, married woman, against two retired farmers living at Parkhill, has been set down for trial at the high court to be presided over by Justice Lennox here next week. The defendants are George Coates and James Metcalfe, each sued for $10,000.

The actions against both are separate, although the claims for damages are identical against both men. Mrs. Gilbert is the wife of John Gilbert, a C.N.R. painter, and has three children. She lives next door to the defendant Coates.

Mrs. Gilbert alleges that both men spoke and published false and malicious statements pertaining to her character and as a result she has been ridiculed and subject to the contempt of the entire community.

COLFAX REBEKAHS ENTERTAIN CANTON

Last evening Canton-Victoria No. 2, Patriarchs Militant, were the guests of Colfax Rebekah Lodge No. 1, I.O.O.F. The Canton, in charge of Commandant G. Killam, presented a smart appearance as they entered the lodge room. After welcoming the brothers, Miss D. Todd, Noble Grand, presented them with a flag, the gift of Colfax Lodge. In receiving the flag, Commandant Killam thanked the lodge on behalf of the Canton, and then escorted the Noble Grand through their ranks.

Following the presentation, a banquet was tendered the guests of honor, when able speeches were made by Commandant Killam, Col. Henderson and Major Shaver.

An exceptionally fine musical programme was rendered by Mrs. B. Le Fevre, Mr. Leon Conyers and Mr. Norval Peden. The well-known artists being in their usual splendid form and receiving enthusiastic accolades. Mrs. Grace Deaville very ably accompanied the artists.

Sidewalk Sheiks Sentenced to Jail in South

San Francisco, Oct. 29.—Unless San Francisco "sidewalk sheiks" change their tactics they will get the maximum penalty for annoying women. Police Judge O'Brien yesterday sentenced two "smashers" to ninety days in the county jail and announced similar sentence would be imposed on other offenders.

Colwood Golfers To Play For Club Championship Soon

Qualifying Round Will be Held on November 7 With Finals on November 15

Big Entry List Expected; Inter-club Team Match is Set For November 22

Interest at the Colwood Golf Club is now centring around the club championship which is to open on Saturday, November 7, with a qualifying round of 18 holes. Entries for the event must be in the hands of the secretary, Walter Parry, before November 5.

It is expected that between sixty and seventy members of the club will set out in quest of the title which now reposes in the stout hands of Frank Thomas. The fact that Frank did not prove invincible over his home links in the recent city championship has given many of the leading players of the club renewed hope of overcoming the champion.

The qualifying round will be held on Saturday of next week and the thirty-two low scores will qualify. The defeated sixteen in the first round will form the first flight. The remainder of the players will be formed into flights of sixteen.

SEMI-FINALS ON MONDAY
On Sunday the first and second rounds of eighteen holes each will be played, followed by the third round and semi-finals on Monday. The finals in all flights, other than the championship and first flight, will be held on Monday afternoon.

The finals of the championship and first flights will be played on Sunday, November 15. The finalists will play thirty-six holes.

All members of the club are asked to hand in their entries as early as possible.

INTER-CLUB AFFAIR
The Colwood and Victoria golf clubs will hold their annual inter-club match on November 22. The first team will play at Oak Bay while the second team will meet at Colwood.

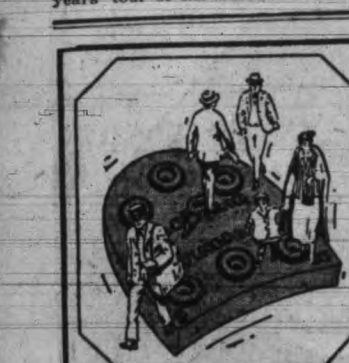

"BOOB" NOT "BABE"
New York, Oct. 29.—Babe Ruth confesses he is a "babe" and a "boob" in an interview. The Sultan of Swat confesses he has lost funds to the tune of $250,000, itemized thus: Money lost through gambling, $100,000; money lost through business ventures, $100,000; money lost in fighting suits, attempted blackmail, fees to lawyers, detectives, etc., $50,000.

WOOD WINS EASILY

Portland, Ore., Oct. 29.—Salmon Jack Wood, Houlihan, Texas, lightweight wrestler, took two straight falls from Frank Burns, of Flint, Mich., in a two-hour match here last night. Wood won the first fall in 52 minutes and 19 seconds with a flying wing lock and the second fall in 13 minutes 59 seconds with the same hold.

Montreal Sportsman Marries Actress

Atlantic City, N.J., Oct. 29.—The marriage of Miss Catherine Calvert, the well-known actress and widow of Paul Armstrong, the playwright, to George A. Caruthers, a Montreal, Canadian sportsman and soldier, was revealed to-day after the couple had left for New York to sail on a two-years' tour of the world.

Why Do More People Walk on Goodyear Wingfoot Heels

BECAUSE they give more satisfaction—wear longer, look better, cost no more. Made by the makers of Goodyear Tires. Used by hundreds of good shoe manufacturers and by thousands of shoe repairmen. Be sure you get Goodyear Wingfoot Heels. For men, women and children.

Goodyear means Good Wear.

May be President

Vancouver, Oct. 29.—Secretary J. Percy Watson of Victoria is being talked to by several of the leading members of the B.C. Amateur Hockey Association, whose annual meeting is slated for Saturday, November 7. Mr. Watson has given good service during his term of office but feels that the honor should be passed round. Should he insist on retiring Mr. Watson should prove an ideal official as he has closely followed amateur hockey in recent years. He is past president of the B.C. branch of the A.A.U.

George Murray of Trail, who represents the interior on the executive and who will be in attendance at the meeting, has also intimated that he will not seek re-election this year.

In addition to election of officers other business to be considered will be consideration of the cases of members of the Monarch club who played a series with the Monarchs of Los Angeles last Spring.

Mr. Macken has not yet received a copy of the changes in playing rules this year, but in response to a special wire to President Quilty at Ottawa, it is expected that full information will be at hand a week from Saturday. Players taking part in amateur hockey this winter must have been residents of their particular districts since May 15.

CLUBMEN NOW TIED

Former Hand Garrison Bad Licking; Bakers Defeat Kirkhams

Rennie and Taylors and the Tilliums are now tied for leadership in the Wednesday Football League as a result of their victories yesterday. The former sent Kirkhams down to defeat by 3-1 at Central Park, while the Tilliums found no trouble in scoring a 7-1 victory over the Tomnies at Work Point. The Hudson's Bay scored their first victory of the season over the Navy at Beacon Hill, coming out on the long end of a 2-0 score. All the games were keenly fought, and the spectators witnessed some fine football.

As a result of their defeat the Tomnies lost the leadership of the league, and now rest in third position.

In the match at Work Point the Tilliums had the best of the play in both halves and at no time did the Tomnies look dangerous. The Garrison opened the scoring just after the game got under way, when Henry placed the ball in the net after a scrimmage in the Tilliums' goal.

The Tilliums carried the play into their opponent's goal area, and Fletcher put the teams on even terms with a well-placed shot. The next five minutes the Tilliums jumped two goals into the lead, Paterson and Toby being responsible.

TILLIUMS PULL OUT
The Garrison were no match for their rivals in the second half, and the clubmen ran in four more goals, while they held the Tomnies scoreless. Woods and Toby scored once, while Southern, the Tilliums' new centre-forward, secured a couple.

ALCOCK REFUSED
Alcock refused, and the teams were as follows:
Tilliums—Peden, McIntyre and Armstrong; Hall, Mouton and Rutledge; Patterson, Fletcher, Southern, Woods and Toby.
Garrison—Matthews; Morrison and Watt; Mitchell, Brown and McVie; Bryson, Falconer, Sweeney, Wallace and Henry.

In a splendid exhibition of soccer the Hudson's Bay overcame the Navy. Both teams played well, and neither team was fagged throughout the whole match.

Neither team scored in the first half, although the fans missed a penalty shot. From the kick-off the Navy took the offensive and only the first work of Shrimpton, the Bays' goalie, kept them from scoring. The blue-jackets also passed up several fine chances by poor shooting.

Three minutes before half-time Gardner, one of the Bays' full-backs, handled the ball in the penalty area, and the Navy were awarded a free kick. Johnson drove the ball into the net, and Shrimpton lunged into the air and flung the ball out of the goal. It was a wonderful save.

For a few minutes after the start of the second half the Navy pressed, but their forwards failed at the crucial moments.

BAYS OPEN SCORING
Carey opened the scoring for the Bays when he sent in a long shot from right, the ball hitting one of the Navy's full-backs, glancing into the net, giving Shrimpton, the goalie, no chance to save.

The Navy tried hard to even things up, but with the end of the game drawing near Webber made the Bays' victory more secure when he shot the ball towards the net, the goalkeeper failing to see who got his foot on the ball. Just before half-time the bakers evened up the score, Hawkes being responsible for the goal.

In the second frame the winners had the advantage, their forwards displaying better combination work. Speak put Rennie and Taylors in the lead with a fine shot from close range while McKinnon put the game on ice for the bakers mere a few minutes later. Kirkham tried hard but their efforts were useless against the strong defence of their opponents.

The Tilliums carried the play into their opponent's goal area, and Fletcher put the teams on even terms with a well-placed shot. The next five minutes the Tilliums jumped two goals into the lead, Paterson and Toby being responsible.

TILLIUMS PULL OUT
The Garrison were no match for their rivals in the second half, and the clubmen ran in four more goals, while they held the Tomnies scoreless. Woods and Toby scored once, while Southern, the Tilliums' new centre-forward, secured a couple.

ALCOCK REFUSED
Alcock refused, and the teams were as follows:
Tilliums—Peden, McIntyre and Armstrong; Hall, Mouton and Rutledge; Patterson, Fletcher, Southern, Woods and Toby.
Garrison—Matthews; Morrison and Watt; Mitchell, Brown and McVie; Bryson, Falconer, Sweeney, Wallace and Henry.

In a splendid exhibition of soccer the Hudson's Bay overcame the Navy. Both teams played well, and neither team was fagged throughout the whole match.

Neither team scored in the first half, although the fans missed a penalty shot. From the kick-off the Navy took the offensive and only the first work of Shrimpton, the Bays' goalie, kept them from scoring. The blue-jackets also passed up several fine chances by poor shooting.

Three minutes before half-time Gardner, one of the Bays' full-backs, handled the ball in the penalty area, and the Navy were awarded a free kick. Johnson drove the ball into the net, and Shrimpton lunged into the air and flung the ball out of the goal. It was a wonderful save.

For a few minutes after the start of the second half the Navy pressed, but their forwards failed at the crucial moments.

BAYS OPEN SCORING
Carey opened the scoring for the Bays when he sent in a long shot from right, the ball hitting one of the Navy's full-backs, glancing into the net, giving Shrimpton, the goalie, no chance to save.

The Navy tried hard to even things up, but with the end of the game drawing near Webber made the Bays' victory more secure when he shot the ball towards the net, the goalkeeper failing to see who got his foot on the ball. Just before half-time the bakers evened up the score, Hawkes being responsible for the goal.

In the second frame the winners had the advantage, their forwards displaying better combination work. Speak put Rennie and Taylors in the lead with a fine shot from close range while McKinnon put the game on ice for the bakers mere a few minutes later. Kirkham tried hard but their efforts were useless against the strong defence of their opponents.

Recognized As Champion

Barba's claim as flyweight champion. He gained a right to top honors by virtue of his defeat of Frankie Genaro at Los Angeles recently. La Barba left no doubt as to the result, handing the New Yorker a neat trimming in the ten-session route. About a year ago the new crown-wearer was only an amateur. He's made rapid strides up the pugilistic ladder, the passing of Pancho Villa also helped to pave the way for La Barba's climb.

NEED TEAM WORK
As teamwork is essential in the American game, Lord Wodehouse intimated that a team of second rate Americans could defeat any team of superior individual play of the Americans, but because of their great teamwork. In referring to the American and British army teams Lord Wodehouse was high in his praise of Capt. Rhodes, who played No. 3. According to his work stood out in the games between the two army teams.

What seemed foremost in the mind of Lord Wodehouse was the class of players needed for an international team. He looked upon Wing-Commander Wodehouse as one of the best players in England and an excellent man for his position.

WING-COMMANDER WODEHOUSE
Wodehouse said, was a most respectable player and a big man, but could use his weight both in riding and hitting for distance.

J. A. E. Trail, the only ten-goal player mentioned by Lord Wodehouse, was a fast, showy player, much on the style of Lewis Lacey of the Argentine team, he commented. Lacey, it will be remembered, played last year's international team, and was about the only player to make a showing against the American four.

A DASHING PLAYER
Capt. C. T. Bork was also mentioned. The young officer has been greatly admired by every American player for his fast riding and excellent mallet work. Both Devereux, Milburn and J. Cheever Cowden have spoken in the highest terms of this dashing player, whose work has been an outstanding feature in all the games played by the Hurries. The former Canadian team was defeated by Mr. Sanford's players defeated Mr. Harriman's aggregation for the Monty Waterbury Cup.

Another player Lord Wodehouse was very much interested in was Capt. A. H. Williams, a member of the original Jodhpur team from India. Famous Jodhpur after it had defeated the British Army players. Capt. Williams is serving in the Indian army and has been over in England for quite some time. It is doubted that he can get another leave of absence in case he is asked to play.

Wodehouse said that he would keep him away from duty too long, since he would have to practice with the other members of the combination. Capt. Williams is said to be one of the best forwards in England, a very fast player, on the order of Major Wilson of the American army. If Capt. Williams can be had, Lord Wodehouse feels that he can assemble a team, which, with proper training, ought to make a good showing in the net international matches.

Queen's Can Take Fourth Title By Winning Saturday
Toronto 'Varsity Determined to End Winning Career of Kingston Team

Greatest Game of Season Expected; Argos Meet Montreal in Big Game

Ottawa, Oct. 29.—Interest in next Saturday's rugby games in eastern Canada centres on the game between Queen's University, the Dominion champions, and the University of Toronto, Victory for the Kingston students will give Queen's the intercollegiate championship for the fourth consecutive season and will mark their 24th consecutive win.

In their game against Varsity at Kingston on October 18, the Toronto collegians were defeated by eight to five, and the Dominion champions were considered lucky to win as Varsity had the best of the play. If Varsity defeat Queen's they will have to take their two games from McGill on November 7 and 14 to consolidate a play-off.

ARGOS MEET M.A.A.A.
Only one inter-provincial game is scheduled Saturday. Toronto Argonauts meet Montreal A.A.A. in Montreal. The Argos must win to stay in the running. Ottawa Senators, who for the first time in many years have a real chance to climb into the ranks of the elite, will be entertaining McGill University in an exhibition affair.

In the Ontario Rugby Union, the league leaders and last year's champions, Balm Beach, meet Camp Borden, the second place holders. The latter will have to win this game to stay in the running. There is only one O.R.U. game scheduled.

Luque Was Champion Hard-luck Pitcher of National League
Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 29.—Adolfo Luque, must be set down in all fairness as the champion hard-luck pitcher of the National League in 1925. Luque won only sixteen games in 1925, lost eighteen for an average of 4.71 this year, for a club which finished in third place with a team percentage of .523.

Yet all the players who followed the work of the Reds during the past season will freely admit that Luque's own personal work on the mound was at least as good as that of Rixey and Donohue, each of whom won twenty-one championship games, the former losing only eleven and the latter fourteen. Rixey and Donohue were the only Red pitchers who had a winning average of over .500 and a better percentage than that of the team, but the Cuban was fully as good as they were, in spite of his more humble average.

Next English Polo Four In Doubt But New Stars To Show

Lord Wodehouse Says Old Country Players Must Adopt U.S. Style of Play

Several Promising Players Likely to Catch Places on Team For 1927

New York, Oct. 29.—Lord Wodehouse, who is expected to organize and drill the next English international team, which is to come over in 1927, has stated that so far as he knows no definite plans have been made for such a trip. He came over this fall at the invitation of Stephen Sanford to get a line on the American style of polo and to take part in the games in which the Hurricanes would play. Whether or not a team will come over in 1927 depends upon the class of players England can assemble.

Lord Wodehouse does not expect to play in international matches again as he is satisfied to give way to younger players. However, if there are no other players available he will play. His Lordship played against the Americans in 1921 and since that time has had his wrist broken three times. These breaks have impaired his playing to some degree and often caused him intense pain during games.

Lord Wodehouse believes that to compete with the American poloists, the English will have to learn the style of play on this side of the water. The English team will have to come over in plenty of time to get the proper practice. The players must get used to the fast, hard and dry fields; the mounts must also be trained to keep going at top speed all the time. Players must also learn the art of the riding, must learn how to keep on the ball at all times.

NEED TEAM WORK
As teamwork is essential in the American game, Lord Wodehouse intimated that a team of second rate Americans could defeat any team of superior individual play of the Americans, but because of their great teamwork. In referring to the American and British army teams Lord Wodehouse was high in his praise of Capt. Rhodes, who played No. 3. According to his work stood out in the games between the two army teams.

THE TIME-WORN TOWN

By J. S. Fletcher

"Wouldn't it be as well to produce them?" suggested Brent.

"Not yet, anyway," said she. "I'll consider them. Much of its general statement, not particular accusation. But the Town Trustees question is not all. Until very recently, when a Reform party gradually got into being and increased steadily though it still in a minority, the whole representation and administration of the borough was hopelessly bad and unprincipled. For what do you suppose men went into the Town Council? To represent the ratepayer, the townspeople? No, but to look after their own interests, to safeguard themselves, to get what they could out of it. The whole policy of the old council was one of—there's only one word for it, Mr. Brent, and that's only just becoming Anglicized—graft."

Now, the corporation of a town is supposed to exist for the good, the welfare, the protection of a town, but the whole idea of these Hatherborough men, in the past, has been to use their power and privileges as administrators for their own ends. So here you've had on one hand, the unfortunate ratepayer, and on the other, a close corporation, a privileged band of pirates, battenning on them. In plain words, there are about a hundred men in Hatherborough who have used the seven or eight thousand votes as a means to their own ends. The town has been a helpless, defenceless thing, from which these harpies have picked whatever they could lay their talons on."

"That's the conclusion he'd come to, eh?" asked Brent.
 "He couldn't come to any other after many years of patient investigation," declared Mrs. Saumarez. "And he was the sort of man who had an inborn hatred of abuses and shams and hypocrisy! And now put it to yourself: when a man stands up against vested interests, such as exist here, and says plainly that he's never going to rest, nor leave a stone unturned, until he's made a radical and thorough reformation, do you think he's going to have a primrose path of it? Bah! But he knew! He knew his danger!"

"But—murder?" said Brent. "Murder!"
 Mrs. Saumarez shook her head. "Yes," she answered. "But there are men in this place who wouldn't stick at even that! You don't know. If Wallingford had done all the things he'd vowed to do, there would have been such an exposure of affairs here as would have made the whole country gasp. And some men would have been ruined—literally. I know! And things will come out and be tracked down—if no red herrings are drawn across the trail. You're going to get at the truth!"

"By God, yes!" exclaimed Brent, with sudden fervour. "I am so!"
 "Look for his murderers amongst men he intended to show up, then?" she said, with a certain fierce intensity. "And look closely—and secretly! There's no other way!"

Brent presently left her, and went off wondering about the contents of the little cabinet. He would have wondered still more if he had been able to look back into the cosy room which he had just left. For when their year of Mayoralty. On such occasions, the Corporation has been present in state."

"In state, eh?" said Brent. "What's that amount to? Sort of procession, eh?"

A daily marshalled one," answered the Town Clerk. "The badge with the mace, the Deputy-Mayor, the Recorder, the Recorder and Town Clerk, of course, in wigs and gowns, the Aldermen in their furled robes, the Councilors in their velvet gowns; a very stately procession, Mr. Brent, preceding the funeral cortege to St. Hatherly's Church, where the Vicar, as Mayor's Chaplain, would deliver a funeral oration. The procession would return subsequently to the Moot Hall for wine and cake."

Brent rubbed his square chin, staring hard at his visitor.

"Um!" he said at last. "Well, there isn't going to be anything of that sort to-morrow! I'm just going to bury my cousin quietly and privately, without maces and furled robes and velvet gowns. So you can just tell 'em politely—nothing doing!"

"But my dear sir, my good Mr. Brent!" expostulated the visitor. "The Mayor of Hatherborough! The oldest borough in the country! Why, your old charter was signed by William the Conqueror or Edward the Confessor. I say—nothing doing!"

"But your reasons, my dear sir, your reasons!" exclaimed the Town Clerk. "Such a breaking with established custom and precedent! I really don't know what the neighboring boroughs will say of us!"

"Let 'em say!" retorted Brent. He laughed contemptuously. But suddenly his mood changed, and he turned on his visitor with what the Town Clerk afterwards described as a very ugly look. "But if you want to-morrow!" he added. "I'll tell you why I won't have any Corporation procession after my cousin's dead body! It's because I believe that his murderer's one of 'em! See?"

COULD NOT SLEEP NIGHTS

Pains and Headaches Relieved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Dublin, Ontario.—"I was weak and irregular, with pains and headaches, and could not sleep nights. I learned about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by reading the letters in the newspapers and tried it because I wanted to get better. I have got good results from it as I feel a lot stronger and am not troubled with such bad headaches as I used to be and am more regular. I am gaining in weight all the time and I tell my friends what kind of medicine I am taking. You may use my letter as a help to others."—Mrs. JAMES RACHO, Box 12, Dublin, Ontario.

Halifax Nurse Recommends
 Halifax, N.S.—"I am a maternity nurse and have recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to many women who were childless, also to women who need a good tonic. I am English and my husband is American, and he told me of Lydia E. Pinkham while in England. I would appreciate a copy or two of your little books on women's ailments. I have one which I keep to lend. I will willingly answer letters from any woman asking about the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. S. M. COLEMAN, 24 Uniscoe St., Halifax, Nova Scotia.

MANY CASUALTIES IN DAMASCUS FIGHT

Place Deaths in Recent French-Native Clashes at 2,000 to 3,000

Arabs Led by Hassan el Karreth; Time of Unforgettable Horror

Cairo, Egypt, Oct. 29.—All reports from Damascus, although making varying accusations, concerning what occurred when the French put down a native insurrection early last week, leave the impression that city passed through a terrible ordeal from October 18 to 20.

Damascus, it is learned, bears the scars of relentless measures taken by the French to put down riots started by the Arabs following the parading of corpses through the streets.

Dispatches from French sources prior to the insurrection said the French were displaying heads of bandits in the public places of Damascus as a warning to others.

POLICE WERE ATTACKED
A traveler, who has just arrived here from Damascus, says that at 4 p.m., on October 18, Hassan el Karreth, chief of a native band, penetrated into the Chagour quarter of Damascus with his followers, crying: "Rise up! Your brothers, the Druses are here."

The natives then attacked a police post, where they shot a French officer. The inhabitants of the quarter armed themselves and joined the insurgents, the traveler says, and then all advanced toward the Median quarter, the inhabitants of which ranged themselves against Hassan el Karreth's men.

100 DIED FIGHTING
The traveler relates that at that hour many Frenchmen were working with Armenians in the Median quarter. There they were savagely attacked by the insurgents and by another force coming from another direction, which caught them between two fires. There 100 men died fighting.

Suddenly an aeroplane appeared over the scene and dropped bombs on the crowds massed in the Armenian quarter to disperse them. The angry crowds fired back, but without hitting the aeroplane. The latter fled in all directions.

DISTRICT SHELL
The insurgents, however, did not cease their firing on the public and military buildings. They barraged the streets and set fire to certain quarters. Finally the artillery in the citadel began shelling the rebel district, the French making it known the bombardment would continue until the insurgents ceased firing.

The bombardment lasted from Sunday night until Tuesday. The shells destroyed the Median and Chagour quarters, while parts of the Hamidieh Bazaar el Bouzourie and El Komeira were burned. A palace, considered one of the finest monuments in the East, was greatly damaged.

DAYS OF HORROR
The traveler describes the period of this bombardment as days and nights of "unforgettable horror." He says it is difficult to know how many persons were killed or wounded, but that hundreds were lying in the streets, and he believes at least 2,000 were buried in the debris of buildings wrecked by the bombardment.

Apparently the Christians escaped effects of the fighting. The French sent 2,000 soldiers into the Christian quarters, but the insurgents made no direct attack on these.

On Tuesday afternoon, October 20, the traveler says, leading native residents of Damascus went to General Sarraill, the French High Commissioner, and undertook to fulfill all the requirements laid down by the French.

MARTIAL LAW
Martial law was declared in Damascus, according to this account, and all persons found in possession of arms are being executed.

Another version which reached Cairo says six organized bands had been working around Damascus, but that the band which entered the city on October 18 was composed of only forty men, under Hassan el Karreth, and that they intended to kidnap General Sarraill. This account says the French then bombarded the city, intending to frighten the population, whom they accused of conspiracy with the rebel bands.

With having informed these the time of General Sarraill's arrival in Damascus.

NATIVES RETREATED
The rebels remained in Damascus until October 20, this account says, and only retired then because their presence was taken by the French as a pretext for bombarding the city.

Another version says the rebel band attacked Damascus to avenge themselves on the Armenians of the Median quarter, who it was alleged were on friendly terms with the French army.

HUNDREDS OF REFUGEES
Alexandria, Egypt, Oct. 29.—The report that the fatal rioting of Damascus last week was caused by the French parading the bodies of rebels killed in the neighborhood of the city is reiterated by a refugee Syrian here from Beirut.

Many hundreds of Damascus residents have taken refuge in the Lebanon villages and Beirut, he said. The steamship Champlain, on which he arrived from Beirut, brought 319 other refugees.

The leader of the revolt, according to the refugee, was a Moslem named Hassan el Karreth, who entered Damascus at the head of a mixed force of Moslems and Druses.

Hassan sent messengers throughout the city inviting the people to remain in their houses and then attacked a police post in the Chagour quarter.

LENGTHY BOMBARDMENT
Next he moved against posts in Median and Bahama, the Christian quarter. The French forces and their families withdrew to the Median and Bahama quarters, in the north of the city, and opened a bombardment on the Chagour, Median and Bahama quarters, which are densely populated. A shell fell every three minutes, alternately incendiary and high explosive, for forty-eight hours.

A delegation of notables approached General Sarraill and appealed for a cessation of the bombardment, since the rioters had evacuated the town to save their relatives. Gamelin, the refugee asserts, replied he would not cease firing and the bombardment continued six hours more.

The palatial home of Nassib el Makhr, who joined the revolt, escaped damage, but the refugee said it later was destroyed with benzene and dynamite.

INDEMNITY GIVEN
General Gamelin demanded £200,000 in gold and 3,000 rifles as an indemnity. The town notables acceded to the demand and began collecting the money in arms.

That part of the city between the Hamidia and Median quarters, estimated to hold 120,000 inhabitants, was burned.

MERCHANT TOLD HE WILL BE FINED $500

Wycheley, Cumberland, Given Advance Information
By Judge After Trial

Vancouver, Oct. 29.—With the advance information that he would be fined $500 and not sent to prison, George H. Wycheley, a Cumberland merchant, left the Assize court room here yesterday afternoon on his own recognizance, convicted of fraud.

The man was found guilty of making a false statement to John W. Peck & Company for the purpose of gaining credit on goods he ordered from the firm for his store at Cumberland, Vancouver Island.

He assigned in bankruptcy in September, 1924, and following his examination for discovery on the assignment, criminal proceedings were started.

By bringing in a verdict of guilty the jury added as a rider a strong recommendation for mercy.

DEPARTED FROM CUSTOM
Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald made a favorable comment on the suggestion and explained to the prisoner he would depart from custom in telling what he considered the proper fine for the offense.

"I can tell you now that I feel the right amount should be $500," the judge stated. "I may change that before the day sentences are handed down, but you may be sure it will not be any more than that."

The judge went on to explain he had divulged this information to the convicted man in preparing to meet the levy.

Wycheley was prosecuted at the instance of the Attorney-General of British Columbia and was brought before the court on a bench warrant following the return of a true bill on the indictment by the grand jury.

Just accept, please, this remarkable dental test which gives "off-color" teeth dazzling whiteness and firms delicate gums by removing that dingy film from teeth

IN a few days you can work a transformation in your mouth this new way.

Dazzling whiteness will supplant that "off color" look of your teeth. Your gums will become firm and take on healthy coral tint.

Please accept a 10-day tube without charge.

FILM... the trouble
Run your tongue across your teeth, and you will feel a film, a viscous coat that covers them.

That film is an enemy to your teeth—and your gums. You must remove it.

It clings to teeth, gets into crevices and stays. It absorbs discolorations and gives your teeth that cloudy "off color" look. Germs by the millions breed in it, and they, with tartar, are a chief cause of pyorrhea, and gum disorders.

Old-time methods fail in successfully combating it. That's why, regardless of the care you take now, your teeth remain dull—your gums soft and toneless.

New methods remove it.
And Firm the Gums
Now, in a new-type dentifrice called Pepsodent, dental science has discovered effective combatants. Their action is to curdle the film and remove it, then to firm the gums.

What you see when that film is removed—the whiteness of your teeth—will amaze you.

Largely on dental advice, the world has turned to this method. A few days' use will prove its power beyond all doubt.

RUMOR OF REVOLVER SHOTS AT MEETING IS GIVEN DENIAL

Quebec, Oct. 29.—Premier Taschereau yesterday denied revolver shots had been fired during a meeting he attended in Chateau Richer, Charlevoix County, last Friday, stating the only disturbance had been caused by someone throwing two stones through a window in the direction of the platform.

Look for Film

That's what makes your teeth look "off-color." That's what invites decay and gum troubles.
